Asia-Pacific sheds light onto the balancing act of urban heritage management, focusing specifically on the Asia-Pacific regions in which this challenge is imminent and in need of effective solutions. Urban heritage, while being threatened

amid myriad forces of global and
ecological change,
provides a vital
social, cultural, and

regeneration and sustenance of liveability of inhabited urban areas worldwide.

further discusses the difficult task
that heritage managers
encounter in
conceptualizing,
mapping, curating,
and sustaining the
plurality, poetics, and politics of urban heritage of the regions in question. The connective thesis

that weaves the chapters in this volume together
reinforces for readers that the management of urban heritage
considers cities as dynamic entities, palimpsests of historical memories, collages
of social diversity, territories of

contested identities, and sites for sustainable liveability.

Throughout this edited collection, chapters argue for recognizing the totality of the eco-cultural urban fabric, embracing change, building
social cohesion,
and initiating

This book offers a discerning narrative on the spectacular rise
and fall of the so-called Celtic Tiger economy. It depicts Ireland as a micro-state with a unique

File Type PDF
2014 January To February

reliance on foreign-assisted businesses, driven in part by a favourable taxation
regime. It shows that rent-seeking by trades unions
and property
developers contributed to the fall since 2002.

Although the country's highly centralized
government's predisposition to lobbying has yielded international successes, it has also resulted in recurring self-
inflicted crises

since 1970. This

Ireland's export-led growth is associated more

with the attraction
of foreign-assisted with the development of critical masses of businesses.

success of foreign-businesses in the pharmaceutical,

ICT and finance
sectors has been influenced by tax advantages, many of these businesses have been involved in highly productive

activity in Ireland
over a number of decades. The problem of rent-
seeking is shown to have undermined
Irish
competitiveness in the internationally traded and sheltered sectors. The Irish policy mind-set is shown to lean towards distribution rather than growth. While this has been advantageous for how 'Ireland Inc.' interacts with other governments and

businesses, it has also resulted in a
failure to resist the destructive effects

conclusion, this book considers future opportunities

book is divided into two parts: spaces of control, and spaces
of transgression.

Section I focuses on formal and informal surveillance and the politics of control, using case studies to compare strategies in spaces including Olympic cities, luxury skyscrapers, residential neighbourhoods and shopping malls.

Section II focuses on transgressive or deviant behaviour in public spaces, with case studies examining

nightlife districts, governance of
homelessness, boy-racer culture and abortion protests.

The epilogue

The purpose of this book is twofold. First, it lays out the forces that shaped the international aviation industry and that changed all the rules in the drive for liberalization.

Second, it looks at the many interesting and difficult choices ahead that the airline industry in general and the international aviation industry in particular face.

These choices include many dichotomies: pulling back from the trend toward liberalization or embracing the liberalization trend, merging in search of profitability or

possible futures are

Contemporary American society, with its emphasis on mobility and economic progress, all too often loses sight of the importance of a sense of "place" and community.
