Well look not further as we have created this book of writing prompt and story starters for kids in Grades 1-3! Why are writing prompts important for young kids? At this age, children have the creative ability to write about a range of simple issues but usually they just need a bit of inspiration on how to start writing. Hence, our story starters can help them to tap into their imagination. To reinforce a good writing habit, it is also necessary to learn writing skills at this age. When kids begin writing, they will further learn how to put their thoughts on paper and how to use words to describe concepts. Now, to get them to enjoy writing, let's help to tap into their creativity of using fun writing prompts.

ENJOY!

The development of good reading and writing skills is essential not only for success in school but also for success in life. Writing daily will help your student develop their writing skills. Practicing sentence development is a fundamental key to becoming an excellent writer. The 1st Grade Writing Journal can be used in conjunction with ready-made story-starters. It can be used daily by student writers to record their daily activities, adventures, and imaginative thoughts. Journals can help students clarify their thoughts. Taking time to jot down feelings and thoughts about daily events can give young writers an opportunity to discover what they think and how they feel about different topics. Writing in a journal is comfortable for beginning writers because it is a casual and informal process. It isn't structured or graded. Students are allowed to free-write and become immersed in expression. Students should be allowed to write about different topics, which will give them the opportunity to improve their writing skills while exploring their thoughts without being chastised for grammar, usage, or other errors. Let this journal be an "idea book"--a place where the student is free to "think" in writing.

A hilarious companion to I Wanna Iguana. Ever since their baby sister came along, Alex has been forced to share a room with his little brother, Ethan, and it's a nightmare. Ethan always breaks stuff, snores like a walrus, and sticks crayons up his nose. No hardworking, well-behaved, practically grown-up boy like Alex should have to put up with that! Writing letters to his mom convinced her to let him get his pet iguana, so Alex puts pencil to paper again, this time determined to get his own room. Though all of his powers of persuasion can't get his dad to expand the house, he does come through with a fun alternative to give Alex some space of his own.
