STEM adventure! This colorfully-illustrated, video-game themed learning tool is focused on four critical domains for young, 21st century learners: Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math. These content areas can be taught in isolation, but teaching them together (using diamond swords, zombies, creepers and redstone traps for added fun) allows for deeper understanding and authentic connections to the world where kids live and play. Children won't need to be nagged to dive headfirst into this collection of over one hundred S.T.E.M. activities and challenges. Each lesson invites gamers to use the same kinds of creativity, critical

All Trivia Book for Minecrafters!
Inside you will find awesome trivia such as: Herobrine isn't a real character programmed into the game. Urban legends insist that he's a dead miner, or that Notch's deceased brother haunts the game. It's just a glitch that makes Steve sometimes appear to have spooky white eyes. They're probably just bleary from playing too much Minecraft. The name of the main miner character in the game is Steve, right? Well, sort of. He didn't ever have one until someone asked Notch in an interview if the character had a name. Notch's response:
" Steve? " The name stuck. We still don't know what his last
