

Io Collego I Puntini 6 Ediz A Colori

"This book presents the proceedings of the fifth meeting of the International Dante Seminar. As with previous volumes, the proceedings also include a carefully edited account of the extensive discussions which followed the presentations. The papers, given by some of the leading international scholars of the poet - from Italy, the UK and the USA - address four major topics of particular concern to present-day Dante studies: Dante as a lyric poet; Dante as an ethical poet; Dante and the Eclogues; and Dante in nineteenth-century Britain. These topics reflect both areas which are currently the subject of heated critical debate (several editions of the lyric poems are in preparation, and the ethical dimension of Dantes works is very much under discussion) and areas which are long overdue a reassessment (Dantes remarkable revival of Latin pastoral poetry, and the extraordinary British contribution to Dante studies in the nineteenth century). As this set of conference proceedings makes clear, in Dante and in his legacy, ethics and poetry are inseparable. The contributors include Paola Allegretti, Michael Caesar, Paolo Falzone, Manuele Gagnolati, Claudio Giunta, Claire Honess, Robin Kirkpatrick, John Lindon, Lino Pertile, Justin Steinberg, Claudia Villa, and Diego Zancani."

Since antibodies tagged with markers have been developed, immunocytochemistry has become an important method for identifying tissue substances and the localisation of nucleic acid in tissue by in situ hybridisation in molecular biology. This laboratory book covers the embedding of tissue using less sensitive epoxy resin methods to the more sensitive procedures employing the acrylics. The possibilities are discussed and results are presented so that an understanding of the techniques can be acquired.

Vi voglio bene lo stesso è la narrazione-descrizione, in chiave ironica e a tratti comica, della personalità dell'autrice che ripercorre gli aneddoti più divertenti e importanti della sua vita e che ci fanno ridere e divertire grazie a delle esilaranti scenette. Ne scaturisce il ritratto di una ragazza di 38 anni che vorrebbe innamorarsi e trovare l'uomo della sua vita ma che prima di tutto vuole amare se stessa. Una ragazza che vuole girare il mondo e si realizza professionalmente ma al tempo stesso è alla ricerca di una stabilità emotiva che per il momento raggiunge grazie alla convivenza con due gatti pieni di personalità. Francesca si mette a nudo di fronte al lettore e quello che colpisce è che, tramite la comicità e la risata, riesce a sdrammatizzare le sue imperfezioni caratteriali e a non prendersi troppo sul serio. Francesca riesce sempre e comunque a perdonarsi!

Francesca Sibilla, nata a Gorizia nel 1979, si è laureata in Scienze internazionali e diplomatiche a Gorizia ed ha intrapreso da subito la sua carriera nell'ambito della cooperazione internazionale e allo sviluppo, lavorando con diverse ONG come volontaria in America Latina ed in Africa e come consulente esterna nei Balcani. Attualmente continua il suo impegno in collaborazione sempre più stretta con l'Unione Europea.

The volume collects papers presented at the International Conference "Greek Medical Papyri - Text, Context, Hypertext" held at the University of Parma on November 2-4, 2016, as the final event of the ERC project DIGMEDTEXT, aimed primarily at creating an online textual database of the Greek papyri dealing with medicine. The contributions, authored by outstanding papyrologists and historians of the ancient medicine, deal with a variety of topics focused on the papyrological evidence of ancient medical texts and contexts. The first part, devoted to "medical texts", contains some new reflections on important sources such as the Anonymus Londinensis and the Hippocratic corpus, as well as on specific themes like the pharmacological vocabulary, the official medical reports, the medical care in the Roman army. The second part collects papers about the "doctors' context", providing highlights from broader viewpoints like the analysis of the writing supports, the study of the ostraka from the Eastern Desert, the evidence of inscriptions and philosophical texts. The third part is entirely focused on the DIGMEDTEXT project itself: the team members present some relevant key issues raised by the digitisation of the medical papyri.

Συναγώνιζεσθαι, the ancient Greek verb chosen as the title of this volume, belongs to the jargon of dramaturgy as employed by Aristotle in Poetics, where he emphasizes the function of the Chorus as an active co-protagonist in the dynamics of drama. Here it suggests the collaborative nature of this Festschrift offered to Guido Avezzù in the year of his retirement by friends and colleagues. The volume collects a wide selection of contributions by international scholars, grouped into four sections: Greek Tragedy (Part 1), Greek Comedy (Part 2), Reception (Part 3), and Theatre and Beyond (Part 4).
