THE PURPOSE OF TEACHING HADITH AND AKHLAAQ

Rasulullah PBUH has explained the virtues of memorising the Mubaarak Ahaadeeth. In one Hadith he has mentioned: "May Allah Ta'ala brighten up the face of that person who heard something from us (my words - Hadith) and passed it on in the same form that he heard it." In another Hadith, the following has been reported: "That person who learns forty Ahaadeeth from my sayings, I will intercedefor him on the Day of Qiyaamah."

Through the blessings of these Ahaadeeth, the mu'allim/ah and the pupils will attain success in this world as well as the Aakhirah, Insha Allah.

The Religion of Islam is based upon Five Primary Foundations or Pillars. Just as a building or a bridge would lack stability without strong pillars, a Muslim's relationship with Allah, his God, would lack a focus and a secure connection without the observance of and adherence to these fundamental Five Pillars. These Five Pillars or religious duties are mandatory. Every Muslim must follow and practice them with the utmost devotion. Failure to comply and practice any of these dictates can be considered the commission of serious sin, some resulting even in the expulsion of a believer from the fold and faith of Islam. Like the Ten Commandments of the Jewish and Christian faiths, these Pillars provide a spiritual foundation and a framework to guide a Muslim's life. Fulfillment of these Five Pillars provides blessings and rewards for those who follow them in both this life and the next. These Pillars help Muslims establish a closer relationship with their Creator and build a spiritual connection with Him. A faithful Muslim prioritizes these Pillars over all worldly matters, principles, or regulations in their lives, as they form the foundation and starting point for all
