

Let's Celebrate God's Blessings On Thanksgiving (Holiday Discovery Series)

We all love the benefits of technology and social media, but even with the incredible upsides, many of us suspect there are unintended negative consequences that are beyond our control. We've lost perspective, even perhaps ourselves. In this relevant and life-changing new book, New York Times bestselling author and pastor of LifeChurch.tv Craig Groeschel encourages readers who are hungry to regain control over their lives and put Christ first again. He walks them though biblical values that all Christ followers know are essential, but are even more important for the maxed out, selfie-centered world we live in. The more you compare, the less satisfied you are. The more we interact online, the more we crave face to face intimacy, but the harder it is to have. The more filtered our lives become, the harder it is to be authentic. The more information about the pain in the world we're exposed to the more difficult it is to care. It's time to refresh and rediscover our understanding for today's world the biblical principles that life with Christ brings: contentment, intimacy, authenticity, compassion, rest and more. Groeschel taps some of the most up to date studies on the effects of social media on our emotions and our friendships, and shows us through real-life illustrations how we struggle and how we can overcome our struggles with Jesus' life-changing gospel message. With helpful appendices like the 10 Commandments of Using Social Media to Strengthen Your Faith, a challenge to go on Technology Fasts, and Creating Safeguards for Your #Struggles, you'll find #Struggles to be just the guide to bring balance and real-life engagement to your everyday living.

Both a daily devotional and an in-depth Bible study, God's Beloved Daughters is a tool "to strengthen and establish and to exhort and comfort and encourage you in your faith" (1 Thessalonians 3:2). Throughout her years serving in the ministry of Christian education, and as friend, mother, and mentor, Merrilynn Grodecki has championed her passion for seeing God's daughters step into that grace-enhanced, mountain-moving, peace-filled life that is theirs in Him. Now, after decades of studying God's ways of doing and being right concerning all of life's issues, she has written this devotional to help each beautiful daughter of God walk in the fullness of life in Christ and discover the eternal truth of God's promises. Wife, mother, student, teacher, lawyer, doctor, businesswoman, pastor—despite all of these titles, there is one role that takes priority over all others—daughter! Our heavenly identity not only defines and characterizes every other relationship we take part in, it prioritizes our daily motivation. God's daughters: His ambassadors to the neighborhood, the workplace and the world. Do you see yourself that way? Do you open your door in the morning to step out into the day with that kind of vision? Do your heavenly credentials, your Kingdom citizenship, define for you your determined purpose? Each day offers an opportunity to practice our ambassadorship and extend God's love. We awake each morning to love God, to serve Him and continue to be loved and known by Him... Walk out in that carefree graciousness that will compel the world to take a closer look at what makes you different. "I don't know what she's got," they will say, "but I want it."

Living the Christian life in the presence of God, where we are consciously aware of God's presence at all times, does not get any better. However, like everything else in life, it takes practice, self-discipline, and patience. In an era where time is a rare commodity, this small book will challenge you and encourage you enough to start your discipline of practicing the presence of God. Which means an intimate relationship between you and God. A relationship where we acquire the ability to turn our thoughts automatically and instinctively toward God. In short, practicing the presence of God, is a contemplative life where our will is turned over to Him as well as our mind, heart and spirit completely turned over to the lover of our soul. You have twenty-five days of meditations and prayers along with short prayers that you can use while taking a walk, driving, doing chores around the house, during business hours when you are at work, etc... Advent is a time of hope and expectancy. A time where God's love has changed our lives forever and as Christians, every day should be lived purposely with hope in our Redeemer,and in expectancy and the love of God. So, while the theme of this book is about Advent, the meditations and prayers can be practiced 365 days a year. They are the same prayers that I used in my life to learn the practice of the presence of God.Feel free to borrow the book through the Kindle program or you can read the first seven days here: http://mjandre.com/ Got 3 minutes to spare? You'll find the spiritual pick-me-up you desire in 3-Minute Devotions for Women. There are far too many people hurting and with feelings of being left out of the blessings of God. The church is busy dealing with the world and its worldly ways of living in this world. Not wanting to offend anyone, they sometimes look so much like the world that the Christian is finding it hard to separate themselves from the world. With Pop-Culture, Political Correctness, the New Normal, Rejection and other status-quo; the church must not be moved by the cares of this world, we must keep our eyes on the kingdom of God; our provider, the Lord our God. We are called to live in this world but to not live like the world. This in itself can be a slippery slope if not followed cautiously and patiently with the Word of God. We are commissioned by God to encourage the believer to live out their faith in Christ. I must tell them about Jesus and the rewards we as believer have in the anointed One. What I am doing is giving you key scriptures that has helped me to have a vital relationship with our heavenly Father, our brother and head of the church Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit, our guide in this life we live here on earth. It is possible to honor God with all your heart, all your mind, and all your spirit! God would not have commanded us to live like that and not have made away for us to do just that. What I Think About, thinking like a Christian will help guide you into using the power you have within to please God and to walk in the authority you have in Christ. We have but one person to answer to and that being Jesus. By Beverly J Ward

Hey! Let's celebrate you! You are special, you are unique, and inside of you are talents and gifts that are needed on this Earth. You were created to fulfill a special plan that God preplanned before you were born. Just think, if Michael Jackson, Whitney Houston, Picasso, and da Vinci never discovered their gifts and talents, we would have missed out big time. Thank God first for giving those gifts and talents. Whatever gifts and talents are in us were meant to be given away to bless others. Something as simple as a smile or a word of encouragement given can bless the world. Let's Celebrate You will give you insight into seeing and learning to appreciate your uniqueness without it you will never allow what God has put in you to flow out of you. Let's Celebrate You will help you see how important it is to kick out discouragement; it is a dream killer. Jesus said the kingdom of God has suffered violence and the violent take it by force. For your dreams to be fulfilled, you will have to be violent against discouragement. It may feel like all the forces of hell are coming against you just because you are trying to give birth to your dream. Every great dream has had to overcome great opposition and discouragement to win.

Dr. Christopher E. L. Toote's expose, "50 Powerful Sermon Outlines" is a brilliant bridge, connecting ancient world texts to current life application. This compilation of outlines is designed to be used as vehicles to help the preacher cross the bridge from a revelatory approach to the Word of God, to a practical, transformational, and homiletical approach to the sermonic moment. Dr. Toote's outlines will empower preachers for effective communication for this current generation as well as generations to come. - Dr. Gary G. Hayles Director, New Kind of Preacher, Northern Seminary Lead Pastor, Tabernacle Bible Church, Cincinnati, OH Dr. Christopher Toote has written a master-preacher guide for pastors and teachers to learn how to outline a sermon, access a biblical text, understand multiple ways to interpret the Bible, and provide applicable meaning in today's world. Dr. Toote understands how to prepare, present, and apply God's Word. He brings a scholar's mind and a pastor's heart to his writing. This work is drawn from a deep well of experience in Christian and secular higher education and a lifelong practice of biblical exposition. He's been on both sides of the pulpit—as preacher and parishioner. He has lived out the gospel on campus and preached and taught faithfully in congregations. This book reflects years of hard work from a student of God's Word. He understands what it's like to work throughout the week and be responsible for the work of the Word on a weekly basis. - Dr. William D. Shiell President Professor of Pastoral Theology and Preaching Northern Seminary Lisle, IL This collection of sermon outlines is a treasure trove of inspiration and the sparks that ignite sound biblical preaching and teaching. Each outline employs rhetorical devices and homiletical movements that may serve as a model for outlining any other sermon or lesson you may be inspired to deliver. The homiletics professor at Princeton Theological Seminary, Dr. Cleophas LaRue, made a statement that suggested that Sundays come quicker than sermons. Dr. Toote's sermon outlines will help any proclaimer whose Sunday is approaching sooner than the development of the sermon. - Dr. Gerald M. What do you say to an adolescent who's getting ready to enter those turbulent teenage years? Dr. James Dobson, one of America's leading family psychologists, knows how to speak directly and sincerely to today's adolescents about the topics that trouble them most. Topics include avoiding feelings of inferiority, handling peer pressure, drug abuse, puberty, sexual development, menstruation, masturbation, romantic love, overcoming discouragement, sound decision-making and handling independence.

Heaven on Earth is a layman's guide to a deeper and more mystical relationship with the one whom some describe as the Ground of all Being. The book starts with a clear explanation of the personality and character of the one we call God; a personality of total self-giving love. It then goes on to explain how this can be seen in all of life around us if we were but to learn to recognize it. The author draws from his own practical experiences of encountering this loving entity within nature and daily life by using his own poetry and stories while quoting from sacred writings. He presents a God who is attractive, trustworthy and is wanting loving union with all people on earth. This book is both comforting and challenging and provides regular interludes for the reader to stop and learn to engage with this Divine Presence for themselves. If you read this book openly and honestly you will not be the same person when you finish. It is inspiring, will help to answer some of our deepest questions and can be life changing.

Ezekiel 31:7 "Thus it was beautiful in greatness And in the length of its branches, Because its roots reached to abundant waters." Romans 11:13 "For if the first fruit is holy, the lump is also holy; and if the root is holy, so are the branches." Ephesians 3:17 "that Christ may dwell in your hearts through Faith; that you, being Rooted and grounded in love." By the Grace of God I have recently, with the passing of my father, been able to realize and understand my roots through the tribe of Aaron. As a result of this blessing I have been inspired by my church and family to write this devotional of Communion Messages. Hopefully, this devotional will be a blessing to anyone that can use it for Communion in Church, or at home. With this blessing I sign my name; Bruce Allyn Cohen

Do you believe that the essence of our Salvation is Spiritual Maturity? We are spiritually mature when we grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ (2 Peter 3:18, KJV). Do you know that wisdom and knowledge are related but not synonymous? Wisdom is the ability to discern or judge what is true, right, or lasting (The Gospel); Knowledge, is information gained through experience, reasoning, or acquaintance. No one (none of us) is born wise; we must acquire and can only acquire wisdom from God. The Bible urges us often to seek wisdom above all things; The beginning of wisdom is this: Get wisdom, and whatever you get, get insight (Proverbs 4:7, ESV). Knowledge can exist without wisdom, but wisdom cannot exist without knowledge. One can be knowledgeable without being wise. Knowledge is when you know you should hear the word and the importance of it; Wisdom is hearing and knowing how and when to use it (Word) and how to live it. In order for us to obey Him and be in obedience, God wants us to have knowledge of Him and His commands, as of His word. Our knowledge begins when we fear God. If we lack or despise wisdom, we are foolish and not knowledgeable. Wisdom is a gift from God. Scriptures tell us, If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given him (James 1:5 (ESV)). Just knowing the Bible and facts about God is not all there is to wisdom. God blesses us with wisdom; for us to use the knowledge we have of Him, in order for us to glorify Him. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction (Proverbs 1:7, KJV). In our Spiritual Maturity, let us fear God; and let us not be foolish but wise and knowable, pleasing God. This book, teaches us; giving one an understanding and affords us the opportunity to be blessed and favored with wisdom. It expresses and confirms who we are in Christ Jesus.
