Go West, Young Man. Isn't that the advice every east coast boy has considered at least once in his life? At nineteen, almost twenty, Ron Bancroft thinks those words sound pretty good. Newly out as transgender, Ron finds himself adrift: kicked out by his family, jilted by his girlfriend, unable to afford to return to college in the fall. So he heads out to Wyoming for a new start, a chance to prove that—even though he was raised as a girl, even though everyone in Boston thinks of him as transgender—he can live as a man. A real man. In Wyoming, he finds what he was looking for: rugged terrain, wranglers, a clean slate. He also stumbles into a world more dangerous than he imagined, one of bigotry and violence. And he falls for an intriguing young woman, who seems as interested in him as he is in her. Thus begins Ron's true adventure, a search not for the right place in America, but the right place within himself to find truth, happiness, and a sense of belonging.

PLEASE NOTE - this is a replica of the print book and you will need a pen and paper to complete the exercises. Your first 1,000 German words - five words a day. Over the course of a year, German for Everyone Junior: Five Words a Day teaches new vocabulary to children who are starting to learn German. Presenting 20 new words between Monday and Thursday, the final day of each week's teaching allows children to practice the vocabulary they have just learned. A mix of nouns and verbs are taught through beautifully illustrated scenes, with each new word clearly labeled. Five Words a Day first encourages children to copy out the words before covering them with the flaps on the jacket and testing their new knowledge. Accompanying audio means that children are also able to practice their German pronunciation as many times as they want. With over 1,000 German words, Five Words a Day is a colorful, clear, and comprehensive workbook that will lay the foundations for your child's journey in learning and understanding German, at school or at home.
