Jill Winger, creator of the award-winning blog The Prairie Homestead, introduces her debut *The Prairie Homestead Cookbook, including 100+ delicious, wholesome recipes made with fresh ingredients to bring the flavors and spirit of homestead cooking to any kitchen table. With a foreword by bestselling author Joel Salatin *The Pioneer Woman Cooks meets 100 Days of Real Food, on the Wyoming prairie. While Jill produces much of her own food on her Wyoming ranch, you don't have to grow all—or even any—of your own food to cook and eat like a homesteader. Jill teaches people how to make delicious traditional American comfort food recipes with whole ingredients and shows that you don't have to use obscure items to enjoy this lifestyle. And as a busy mother of three, Jill knows how to make recipes easy and delicious for all ages. "Jill takes you on an insightful and delicious journey of becoming a homesteader. This book is packed with so much easy to follow, practical, hands-on information about steps you can take towards integrating homesteading into your life. It is packed full of exciting and mouth-watering recipes and heartwarming stories of her unique adventure into homesteading. These recipes are ones I know I will be using regularly in my kitchen." - Eve Kilcher *These 109 recipes include her family's favorites, with maple-glazed pork chops, butternut Alfredo pasta, and browned butter skillet corn. Jill also shares 17 bonus recipes for homemade sauces, salt rubs, sour cream, and the like—staples that many people are surprised to learn you can make yourself. Beyond these recipes, The Prairie Homestead Cookbook shares the tools and tips Jill has learned from life on the homestead, like how to churn your own butter, feed a family on a budget, and experience all the fulfilling satisfaction of a DIY lifestyle.

As someone who is passionate about life and is also creative, I am always looking for new ways to make my life more beautiful and healthier. That being said, a few years ago, I've stumbled upon a handmade soap recipe and decided to give it a try. At first, the process of soap making seemed so confusing to me, but with time and practice, I learned how to do it the best way. Now, you must be thinking: "Why would I waste time on making soap bars when I can just go to the store and buy them"? Well, of course, you can, but do you really want to? Stop for a second and think about all the ingredients that a manufacturer puts into the soap bar. Do you know which ingredients they use? That's how I thought - you have no idea of how harmful that soap may be to your skin. So, tell me, would not be much smarter to buy all of the ingredients and invest some time in making your very own soap? If you are anything like me, then you take care of your skin and the way you treat it. Handmade soap bars are great for cleaning and hydrating your skin. Add to that your favorite color or scent and you turned a bath time into a sensational ritual. The best part of making homemade soap bars is that you get to choose what ingredients you will put in the mixture. This is especially great if you have a sensitive skin since you can add the ingredients that will soothe it and make it softer. One more thing I love about soap making is fun. Once you learn how to make soap bars, you will have so much fun every time you want to make soap bars, because possibilities are endless. Soap making will be as creative and fun as you are, so don't be afraid to set free your creativity and embrace fresh ideas. Speaking of which, in this e-book, I want to share 50 great homemade soap recipes, so as to boost your creativity. Thanks to these recipes, you will forget about commercial soap bars once and for all. After reading this book, you will: Know basic ingredients; Get perfect soaps; Know 50 best soap recipes. Use this basic knowledge how to make bath bombs, and impress your family and friends!

Natural soap is a great way to keep yourself clean without exposing your skin to harsh chemicals, dyes, and scents. Making that natural soap at home is a great way to ensure that you are getting exactly what you want in your soap. However, not everyone wants to make their own soap. Lye, a caustic chemical used in making soap can be extremely dangerous and frightening for inexperienced soap makers. Luckily there is a way to make natural soap at home without using lye. If you want to learn the secrets of the art then Soap Making from Scratch by April Weatherly is the best book for you to use to get started. Commercial soap is full of chemicals that are hard to pronounce. Chemicals are added in to create lather, add shine, give the soap color and scent, and preserve the bar for longer times. On the other side, natural soaps are made from thing you can both pronounce and understand like goat's milk, olive oil, and your favorite essential oils. April learned that lye that is commonly used in soaps is dangerous. It is poisonous is accidentally swallowed by young children or pets. It can also cause serious chemical burns if spilled. This is why many people are looking for ways to make natural soaps without lye. Unfortunately, there is no true soap without lye, yet you can skip the lye process by using melt and pour soaps. There are several melt and pour glycerin soap kits that you can use to make your own natural soaps. Learn the trade secrets of making safe soap in Soap Making from Scratch.

Soap making at home has many benefits both for adults and children. Basic soap making can teach you about chemistry processes like saponification and more. On top of that, the more familiar you get with the process, the more you can create soap that is designed especially for your needs. You will be able to create soaps with the scents that you love, that do not irritate sensitive skin and that even comes in the shapes that you prefer. Soap making is a great way to get the soap you want!

"Scientific Soapmaking" bridges the gap between the technical and craft literature. It explains the chemistry of fats, oils, and soaps, and teaches sophisticated analytical techniques that can be carried out using equipment and materials familiar to makers of handcrafted soap.

Have you recently come across information that ordinary people are making organic soaps at home, even without having any certifications relating to the use of various chemicals? And have you been curious to know the process involved in making soap and want to make your first batch of soap to explore this new world of making soap at home, but haven't found a comprehensive guide that addresses everything? If you've answered YES, keep reading! You Are About To Discover Exactly How To Make Your Very Own Organic Soap Using Readily Available Ingredients, Just Like The Pros! Even though we don't like admitting it, most of us know that commercial soap that comes in different names like "beauty bar" and "deodorizing bar" isn't really soap, but a detergent made with synthetic ingredients, agents and chemicals you'd not fancy pronouncing. Such soap is often harsh to our precious skin, which is notorious for absorbing anything that is placed on it. On the other hand, natural soap is made with rich, natural fats and oils that are nourishing to the skin, through a very simple, interesting process. So basically, making your own soap is not only cost-effective, but healthy and salutary especially if you love exciting DIY projects that yield magnificent results. But what if you've never done it before, how do you get started? What if you want to go large-scale and make a business out of it? What if you heard that it's risky? What if you're looking for a way to improve your current soap making processes? If you're (or have been) having such thoughts and concerns, then you landed on the right page. This simple beginners' guide to making your own natural soap has your back, adequately armed with all the answers tips and techniques that characterize any master soap-maker. More precisely, you'll learn: The basic essentials of making soap, including the equipment, tools and chemical compounds you require The different forms of making soap The precautions you need to take while making organic soap How to conduct soap mixing using different methods Why it's important to make natural and organic soaps The most important things to consider while choosing your homemade soap recipe The common mistakes in homemade soap making that you can avoid How to be creative in your homemade soap making process How to cure and cut your cold process soap The different soap making recipes to take advantage of today ...And much more! Are you looking for simple, amazing soap recipes to diversify your production? Or are you targeting certain body or mental ailments that you can fight with topical applications? If you've answered YES, this book is for you! What's more, this book takes an easy to follow structure, and a practical approach that will enable you to put what you learn into action, even if you've never done anything like this before! Would you use something if you are aware that it could be harmful? If in your mind you're thinking "Of course not!", then why would you expose your body to the chemicals present in commercialized soaps? Have you ever felt "clean" but at the same time your skin felt uncomfortable, itchy, and lacking moisture? It's all because of the unnatural components of the "soap" that are stripping your skin of its natural oils. Did you even take a glance at the ingredients list of what soap you're using? I'm pretty sure you have not. It's too long, filled with words you can't even understand, let alone, pronounce. It is easy to unknowingly subject your body to the harmful components of these "cleaning products" because they are readily available. These days we want everything to be fast and accessible, we barely even give it a second thought of how it might affect us, be it positively or negatively. But it's not too late to start treating you skin with the care it truly deserves! This book covers: Understanding Natural Soap Making Soap Making Equipment The Basic Techniques and Ingredient How to Wrap and Preserve Your Soap Making Your Own Recipes The Cold Process Techniques The Hot Process Techniques Decorative Techniques Natural Additives, Colorants & Scents Troubleshooting and Common Mistakes in Soap Making Tips and Safety Reminders on Making Soaps at Home Soap Making as A Business Opportunity Easy and Simple Recipes to Help You Start Soap Recipes for Soothing and Skin Conditions Special and Seasonal Soap Recipes And much more! There are plenty of reasons why you should choose to make your own soaps out of organic ingredients. First of all, making your own soap enables you to take control over what you put in each bar, and consequently what you apply to your skin as well as that of your family's every single day. Soap making can be either very complicated or very simple. It depends only on your approach. Like all things, all it takes is a bit of learning and patience at first. What makes soap making so attractive and amusing is that you have the freedom in selecting what goes in from the ingredients, scents and some extras - it's all about what you like! You are creating something that suits you and is also good for you! This is a step to changing your life for the better. It takes commitment to actually put soapmaking into action but believe me, your skin will thank you! Years from now you will look back and think "I'm so glad I made that change".
