overcoming trials is one of the most important lessons we can learn. It took me a long time to figure this out and I am grateful for what I have learned. But those lessons did not come without a price. In this little book, I will humbly share some of what I have learned.

Imagine a class of disenchanted, turned-off teens, mostly males. Then imagine those same students feeling poorly about themselves - feeling they are dumb because they have not been told it takes time to learn a second language.

Imagine adults passing through their lives and finally one sticks around to show them they are loved. They are safe.

They are good. Just imagine.

I Am Safe. I Am Good. I Am Loved.

Sun Tzu, author of 'The Art of War', believed that the acme of leadership consists in figuring out how to subdue the enemy with the least amount of fighting a fact that America's Founders also understood, and practiced with astonishing success. For it to work, however, a people must possess both the ability and the willingness to use all available instruments of power in peace as much as in war. US foreign policy has increasingly neglected the instruments of civilian power and become overly dependent on lethal solutions to conflict. The steep rise in unconventional conflict has increased the need for diplomatic and other non-hard power tools of statecraft. The United States can no longer afford to sit on the proverbial three-legged national security stool ("military, diplomacy, development"), where one leg is a lot longer than either of the other two, almost forgetting altogether the fourth leg—information, especially strategic communication and public diplomacy. The United States isn't so much becoming militarized as de-civilianized. According to Sun Tzu, self-knowledge is as important as knowledge of one's enemy: "if you know neither yourself nor the enemy, you will succumb in every battle." Alarming, the United States is deficient on both counts. And though we can stand to lose a few battles, the stakes of losing the war itself in this age of nuclear proliferation are too high to contemplate.

This revealing memoir from a 34-year veteran of the CIA who worked as a case officer and recruiter of foreign agents before and after 9/11 provides an invaluable perspective on the state of modern spy craft, how the CIA has developed, and how it must continue to evolve. If you've ever wondered what it's like to be a modern-day spy, Douglas London is here to explain. London's overseas work involved spotting and identifying targets, building relationships over weeks or months, and then pitching them to work for the CIA—all the while maintaining various identities, a day job, and a very real wife and kids at home. The Recruiter: Spying and the Lost Art of American Intelligence captures the best stories from London's life as a spy, his insights into the challenges and failures of intelligence work, and the complicated relationships he developed with agents and colleagues. In the end, London presents a highly readable insider's tale about the state of espionage, a warning about the decline of American intelligence since 9/11 and Iraq, and what can be done to recover.

Is that a shell? A pile of rocks? Waves, leaves, clouds? A stained glass window? Or just an inviting group of lines and shapes? And what do you want to do with it? It's all up to you, and it doesn't matter what you decide. This coloring book is a no-pressure invitation - to play, explore, focus, dream, or rest. These abstract, mosaic-style doodles can stimulate your imagination, free you from constraints, and pull you into a whimsical world of color. Color the shapes, color the spaces between the shapes, or color both. Emphasize patterns or fill spaces randomly. Use ninety-six colors or six, or just one! Get out a fine-tip pen and add to the designs - draw in borders, or shapes within or around the given shapes. There are even some blank pages at the end to fill with your own completely original doodles. This is a story of Robert Bagley's biography - his: family, faith, entrepreneurship, corporate sales experience, and then diving into being a full time reseller on Amazon and back to corporate America (due to "Lessons Learned") - putting his Amazon business back to part time. This is not a "how-to" book for how to sell on Amazon and Ebay, just sharing my story and a few best practices I learned along the way. Please don't purchase this book if you want a step-by-step tutorial on how to be a re-seller on Amazon and Ebay. As a young professional, Robert Bagley climbed and overcame many corporate mountains eventually earning a high six-figure income with several Fortune 500 companies. Still, something was missing from his vocational career and he knew that he needed to add a small business to his lifestyle. This would bring a change that not only involved a lot of personal risks, but a good amount of faith as well. And, not just faith in himself. And so he embarked on what would prove to be the most incredible game-changing season of his life. You'll be inspired, motivated, challenged, and moved-to-action by Robert's life-story and how selling on Amazon and eBay pulled his career toward a whole new path of becoming an eCommerce entrepreneur.

This book constituting a review on the event of Falklands War in 1982, is trying to reveal the facts that the occurrence of such a war was caused by the political and military miscalculations. General Leopoldo Galtieri had a strategic assumption that he was so confident about, namely that the military force planned to seize Falklands would not make British mobilize its military power, but it would settle it down at the negotiation. And the quick response of British becomes the main factor determining its victory in Falklands.

Forward. Giving You "Clean Slate" To Obtain, Health, Wealth And Most Importantly... Peace of Mind! Let me introduce myself. My name is Dr. Mark Tong and I am a Spiritual Healer and Teacher that has developed a "Process" to identify the "Life Lessons" each individual is dealing with. Let's face it, we are all here learning and dealing with Spiritual lessons. The challenge with these lessons is having the awareness and knowing what these lessons are and what is needed to complete the lesson(s). As you know, by looking back at your own life, these "lessons" continue to repeat and seem to get harder and harder until we learn what we need to learn from them. You find them in your struggles with relationships, abundance, physical conditions and other various aspects of your life. BUT NOW YOU CAN DO SOMETHING... Seeing and understanding your own "Life Lessons" is difficult, and it can be challenging to identify and understand, let alone learn from them. HERE'S WHERE I COME IN... I have developed a special online audio and video program, where you will hear all about "Life Lessons" and how to identify, and more importantly, learn from the lessons so they will never repeat. AND IF THAT'S NOT ENOUGH... As part of the program you will receive an "Emotional Inventory Worksheet" along with the "Answer Key" that will lead you through your life events and associate each event with specific "Life Lessons" for that event. Not only is this a valuable resource for your Spiritual growth, but you will learn how to begin helping others with their own "Life Lessons" (priceless). This online program will help you identify: Your remaining "Life

Lessons" Who is involved How many times it's repeated The Spiritual concepts tied to the "lessons" Plus: You will receive the tools to begin to "walk through" those "lessons."

In this book we look at the history of the South African Nuclear Weapons Program, long denied but always winked about, an open secret to many although the details were always vague with rumours of Israeli assistance in designing the bombs. In fact, the Israeli input was negligible as the South African nuclear weapons worked in an entirely unique way, yielding about what the Hiroshima bomb did and considered "sufficient" as a deterrent against a Soviet Union originated and supported conventional attack. This attack almost came to be in 1988 - 1989 via Angola into what was then South West Africa and today Namibia. Masses of conventional forces were gathered, and plans were made - in history the same as the attack on South Vietnam by North Vietnamese Forces the decade before. History always repeats itself. A brilliant South African "Maskirovka" from the Chief of Staff in Pretoria stopped the planned invasion as well as the very public mobilising order of 400,000 men from the Army Reserves. South Africa also had the means to deliver nuclear bombs accurately, all discussed in this book and may even have done so, although, we don't know. It is one of the big "ifs" in history. As said, the invasion never took place and in no small way due to the Battle of Cuito Cuanavale which is often written about in GMJ Books. It was the largest tank battle in Africa since the Second World War and South African Forces won hands down. It is beyond maddening to the author that no Western "Expert" today knows that in 1978, South Africa produced working nuclear weapons. They either don't know, forgot history, or are incompetent, or more probably, both. Just before Mr. Mandela took office as the newly democratically elected president, the atomic devices were handed over to the US Government for dismantling. That act was until now the only time in the world where a country willingly got rid of its nuclear arsenal. Everyone applauded. Yet, the means to manufacture such weapons did not disappear with the weapons, something no one in the West realises. If a place like Iran wants a nuclear weapon, they merely need to ask the South Africans that have the know-how and proven capability to produce them in record time. It is old technology. In Code Name Angel we deal with nuclear weapons and the risk of such weapons in the hands of terrorists using them against the West. You should not doubt that terrorists will use nuclear devices if they have them - they stated their intentions to do so many times in the past. The normal rules of MAD, retaliation, do not apply to them. There is no reason to doubt that they would flatten a Western city if given the opportunity and such opportunities can be created easily enough as this book explains.

Description: Spymaster extraordinaire, Angelique Dawson and her team must recover lost or roguery manufactured South African nukes on their way to Iran or Al-Qaeda or both for all we know. The warheads are escorted by Zimbabwean Intelligence operatives in cahoots with Iranian Intelligence. This was one of the first major Egg Breaker operations that never made the newspapers and took place mostly in southern Mozambique, the chosen exfiltration point for the weapons. Major Geoffrey Foxtrot, under command of his handler, Angelique Dawson, later his wife and soul, tracks the weapons down in a combined operation with Mossad Agents but that is only the first step. Disarming the devices is another story as Angelique insists on doing so herself, plus the Zimbabweans are also around to prevent the bombs from being intercepted in the first place. A clash between the two groups is unavoidable. If you wish to read about Covert and Special Forces Operations in sub-Saharan Africa, the GMJ Books are the place to start. You will learn about covert operations, Special Forces techniques, and military history not known outside the select few. Code Name Angel is the 7th book of the popular GMJ Series. Become Emotionally Smarter with a Practical Approach! Emotional intelligence has been a buzzword in the personal growth industry and in high-level corporate recruitment strategies since 1995, when Daniel Goleman used the term for his book title and topic. As we would say today, his use of it "went viral" immediately, in the world of business and mental health in particular. Often abbreviated as "EQ", emotional intelligence is the personal ability you have to recognize and label your own emotions and feelings, and to use this information to steer your thinking and behavior in the desired direction. Whether you are looking to climb the career ladder with ease, thrive during social events or simply feel more at peace with yourself, a well-developed EQ is absolutely critical. During the course of this book, we will take a look at the current knowledge surrounding the subject, as well as how you can vastly improve your own emotional intelligence with a series of simple, practical exercises. You will learn about: - How to observe and analyze your emotions at any given moment. - How to connect more easily with people and build strong and lasting relationships. - How your body reacts to your various emotional states. - How to release unwanted and potentially destructive emotions. - "Thought traps" and how to deal with them. - Mindfulness and its role in developing EQ. - How to improve your EQ in everyday environments. - How having a higher emotional intelligence will

to inspire children of all ages with the belief that with meaningful learning tools, they have the power to meet their personal challenges and goals with courage and purpose. Shine In Your Life's Journey is a simply formatted, straightforward guide/workbook to help students learn the important values and behaviors that build and sustain a strong character. Containing concise, thought-provoking, and enjoyable lessons, this easy-to-use guide encourages its student users to discover their own innate strengths as well as improve areas of lesser strengths that will help them achieve their hopes, dreams, and goals in their lives. The lessons are divided into three sections: Being an Honorable Person, Self-Discovery, and Self-Empowerment, and are a result of the curriculum the author has developed for the children he teaches and mentors at Jasper Mountain Center in Jasper, Oregon, an internationally renowned residential facility that addresses the significant needs of children and their families who have suffered the trauma of abuse. Author Greg Ahlijian has been a volunteer at the Jasper Mountain facility since 2008, teaching and mentoring children from ages 8-14 about character development, nature, and poetry. Inspired by the children, he has written two books that contain life lessons: The Large Rock and the Little Yew teaches the virtues of courage, perseverance, self-respect, and hope; and An Elephant Would Be Wonderful, a book about self-discovery. He says, "To be able to provide a smile on a child's face, a bit of joy or inspiration, is what my book projects are all about!"

Henry's rushed approach to life creates problems at every turn. Readers will enjoy following Henry through his day to see if he discovers the importance of doing things carefully.

from happening - or is there? A gritty novel extrapolated from real world events, this fast-paced, riveting thriller will leave you alarmed, angry, and awestruck at America's unpreparedness for the next wave of terror attacks. Some might refer to it as death by a thousand cuts, but the counterterrorism community calls it Small Ball. Small Ball is an indictment of our woefully wrongheaded security infrastructure and a testament to the resilience, resourcefulness, and integrity of the average American. You'll wonder why it hasn't happened already. Perhaps it's happening right now...

A look at why we are interested in what we see in art. Are we born with aesthetic preferences that are shaped by cultural influences? Is our natural attraction to Beauty another weapon in our arsenal of species' survival? This book examines many so-called rules of composition in the visual arts to find natural reasons for their existence. It is designed to aide the visual artist and those who appreciate their work by bringing attention to subtle cues of attraction cultivated by our ancient and immediate ancestors. It calls upon recent work in neuroaesthetics and other scientific disciplines to back up its speculative claims, and asks the reader to contribute opinions of their own on the books' website at naturallycomposed.com. There are many examples of photos in the book, and the reader is again asked to insert their own examples to enforce or refute the claims.

PROFESSOR M.S. RAO, PhD Father of "Soft Leadership" and the author of 30 books "This book shows you the workings of your unconscious mind!" A short interview with Artho Wittemann - author of The Intelligence of the Psyche You developed Individual Systemics. What characterizes it? Artho S. Wittemann: Individual Systemics recognizes the psyche as a self-organizing system of autonomous units which possess a personal nature. The key now is to experience the individual "Inner Persons" in direct contact and to recognize their deeper nature. How did you come up with this concept? Artho S. Wittemann: Mainly through our experiences gained in practice. It is a very special event, when one is allowed to encounter the essential qualities of an Inner Person directly. One can experience the Inner Person with great clarity, depth and unambiguity. Often it is the Inner Persons themselves, which describe their character as female, male, childlike, instinctive or transcendent. It is a great relief for them to understand and see themselves so clearly. Of what benefit is your work to interested laypeople? Artho S. Wittemann: Everyone knows from personal experience, how confusing and frustrating the movements of the psyche can be. We are simply not the master of our own house, as Freud once so rightly said. We find ourselves to be a certain person who we neither know the internal structure of nor the deeper motives nor the original nature. Just the fact that our inner world has a meaningful and understandable architecture is very relieving news for many people. What is the foundation of the "Five Continents" you have described which form the archetypal primary field of the psyche? Artho S. Wittemann: The Five Continents of the Psyche - Man, Woman, Child, Animal and God - are the five archetypes of human existence. If you have gotten to know an Inner Person to the extent of their essence-like depth, they can be clearly assigned to one of the Five Continents. The profoundest values of human existence are associated with them: female relatedness, male structure, childlike sensitivity, instinctual survival power and divine transcendence. In infinite manifestations, the Inner Persons foster these qualities in our lives. However - in a state of opposition - they hide and protect these qualities, often beyond recognition. How does your model enrich therapeutic practice? Artho S. Wittemann: Individual Systemics has mainly three gifts for therapeutic practice. Radical distinction between content and source - what someone says and who in him is saying it - quickly leads to the heart of things. Talking about things turns into a direct in-depth encounter. At the same time this encounter is conducted by a very clear meta-model. The therapist knows where he is and where not. The precision of his movements increases by a multiple. The high precision in turn means that the Inner Persons are no longer able to avoid direct contact as easily. Their evasive movements are detected and identified as a result of being in a "like-to-like" contact and named - which allows exploring in further depth. Why is resistance no hurdle for deep psychological insights, but on the contrary, the gateway to the psyche? Artho S. Wittemann: One of the basic principles of the psyche is to protect its depths against hostile or perceived hostile influences. This protective reaction is called resistance. If there are several Inner Persons and each of them protects itself in his own way and based on its own motives, then I can already see on the basis of the resistance "who" I am dealing with here. So I don't have to overcome the resistance in order to get at the truth; the resistance itself is an expression of "truth". If I am sincerely interested in this truth, respect it and recognize it, it will become a door into deeper layers of the Inner Person.
