One of the keys to getting rich and building wealth is to understand the different ways in which income can be generated. It's often said that the lower and middle-class work for money while the rich have money work for them. The key to wealth creation lies within this simple statement. Imagine, rather than you working for money that you instead made every dollar you work for you 40 hours a week. Better yet, imagine each and every dollar you're working for you 24/7 i.e. 168 hours/week. Figuring out the best ways you can make money work for you is an important step in the road to wealth creation.
One of the reasons people find it difficult to make the leap from earned income to more passive sources of income is that the entire entire system is actually not much designed to teach you to do a job and then rely on your income. However, to become rich and create wealth you will be required to cross that chasm from relying on earned income only. If you are looking for that "passive income", you may find a definition or two, but mostly, what you find is what's being tried to sell you on that passive-income-flavor-of-the-day.

It's frustrating, I know. I don't know about you, but before I jumped into any opportunity or investment I took a trip, I like to do my research. That being said, there are a lot of good opportunities out there. But before you start investing money, This

You're About To Discover The #1 Secret To Generate Passive Income Streams With This Step-By-Step Tutorial And Proven Business Models, Ideas

A passive income is any income you earn without actively engaging in work-related activities. However, a passive income is still work. A major misconception on the subject is that you can set up a passive income today and start making money on autopilot tomorrow.

That rarely happens. Most passive income streams, especially those whose nature concentrates on the online space, require that you put in the work now so that later, you may stop working full time. That does not mean you will not work at all; you will. All worthwhile passive income streams require some form of maintenance. With that said, it's easy to understand why many people believe that a passive income means no work at all: because well set up passive income streams can require as little as a few hours of maintenance work per week or month to continue generating revenue. Take the example of a well set up blog. If you put in the time now into creating great, search engine friendly, evergreen content-say about 100-200 pieces of genuinely good and valuable content which would take a year or more-in a year or two, you can stop actively working on the website or blog every day. You can monetize the traffic coming to the website through various strategies such as affiliate marketing and advertising so that you can generate an income even as you post once or twice per week-some blogs continue to earn a passive income each month even without any maintenance work. As you can see from the above, setting up an online passive income does not mean not working; it simply means putting in the work upfront so that later, you can work less and still generate an income. This passive
