In today's busy world, it is so important to stay grounded in the Word of God. With our busy schedules and hectic lives, we can sometimes reason with ourselves that we don't have time to do a devotional or read the Bible. But this couldn't be further from the truth.Destination Heartland: 183 Devotionals to Plant in 365 Days is an inspiring collection of succinct devotionals by author Demario Rollins. Written out of years of experience and his personal relationship with God, Demario has created a devotional that poses scriptures to meditate on each day and challenges readers with applications to put the scriptures into practice. Each entry is brief enough to be done in a few minutes while still allowing readers to devote time to hearing the Word of God and creating the mental and spiritual framework to "do" the scripture during the day and following days, all while underscoring the truth that the entire Bible is God-breathed and inspired.Inspired by his time as a small group leader and seeing the fruit produced by sharing his devotionals with its members, Demario is now bringing the same opportunity to the world, inviting readers to come along on the journey with each devotional able to be reflected on and applied twice in the 365 days. If you are ready for spiritual transformation and want to be a doer, not just a hearer, of the Word, this book is for you! Make this next year your spiritually best yet! Demario Rollins has regularly enjoyed serving in numerous roles of ministry including teacher, jail minister and youth group leader to name a few. He has a doctorate degree in Pharmacy from Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University and is a practicing pharmacist. Demario's inspiration for this book was a deep desire to provide the reader a succinct publication to pursue God through daily devotion. This unique presentation provides a daily "Scripture" and a daily "Application" to be covered twice in one year. Demario and his wife and three children make their home near Little Rock, Arkansas.

The line began forming after eight o'clock. Sal, short and heavy-set, kept everyone busy. Neat, in a white shirt and sports jacket, with his grey fedora cocked to the side, his crooked grin made you smile. Without warning the heavy door would swing open and the waiters would come outside to join him. They were dressed in pajamas or prison garb, with hats and horns, and were there to warm up the crowd. Some in line expected this, others were shocked. The pink polka dot building should have been a warning. Complete strangers in line became chummy, exchanging stories they had heard; toilet seat covers to serve drinks on, microphones in the ladies room, toilet paper for napkins. Most had brought their friends there to be roasted. The line of people varied in age. They all dressed casually because they'd heard you could get a pie in the face or a squirt in the eye. The club's routines were blue in color, but harmless. If you were lucky you might see a "Balls for the Queen" or a "Singing beer." The price was always right for a good time and Warm Beer and Lousy Food was the place to be.

The author of Negotiating the Impossible "tackles our assumptions about business and life with humor, zest, and wisdom in this delightful fable" (Daniel H. Pink, New York Times-bestselling author). If you were a mouse trapped in a maze and someone kept moving the cheese, what would you do? In a world where most mice dutifully accept their circumstances, ask no questions, and keep chasing the cheese, Deepak Malhotra tells an inspiring story about three unique and adventurous mice—Max, Big, and Zed—who refuse to accept their reality as given. I Moved Your Cheese reveals what is possible when we finally discard long-held and widely accepted assumptions about how we should live our lives. After all, achieving extraordinary success, personal or professional, has always depended on the ability to challenge assumptions, reshape the environment, and play by a different set of rules—our own. But rejecting deeply ingrained beliefs is not easy. As Zed explains, "You see, Max, the problem is not that the mouse is in the maze, but that the maze is in the mouse." "Deepak Malhotra allows you to glimpse a world of your own making without the limits and barriers that others create." —Stephen R. Covey, New York Times-bestselling author of The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People "A magnificent story with a powerful message. As someone who has encouraged scores of professionals into breaking through the maze and defining their own pursuits, I find this to be a gem of a book." —Vinod Khosla, cofounder, former CEO and Chairman, Sun Microsystems, and founder, Khosla Ventures "This book's message is both profound and durable. Malhotra has left the maze, and so can we." —Foreword Reviews

This book presents a vivid description of the solutions that researchers have discovered for ethical dilemmas that pose themselves at studying disadvantaged, vulnerable and victimized populations. Ethical codes prescribe that the scholar should in all circumstances avoid potential harm, that informed consent is necessary and that the limits of confidentiality should always be respected. However, in the practice of research among women involved in prostitution, illegal immigrant workers, enslaved children, people who sell their organs and all the traffickers thereof, the ethical rules cannot always be followed. This book shows that there is a surprising variety of arguable possibilities in dealing with ethical dilemmas in the field. Authors reflect on concrete experiences from their own fieldwork in a wide variety of settings such as the USA, Singapore, Kosovo and The Netherlands. Some choose to work on the basis of conscientious partiality, others negotiate the rules with their informants and still others purposely break the rules in order to disclose and damage the exploiters. Researchers may find themselves in a vulnerable position. Their experiences, as presented in this volume, will help field workers, university administrators, representatives of vulnerable groups, philosophers of ethics and most of all students to go into the field well-prepared. This is a book that every researcher planning to do fieldwork in the difficult field of hidden, illicit and victimized people should read in advance. Dr. Frank Bovenkerk, Professor (Emeritus), Willem Pompe Institute for Criminal Law and Criminology, Universiteit Utrecht, The Netherlands This book allows a peek in the kitchen of empirical fieldwork, going into not only "best practices," but mistakes made, in a frank, courageous and honest way.
