Seven years ago, Alister and Samson watched everything they had ever loved or tried to protect burn. They'd been too young, too inexperienced to save their people, and so they'd ended up hiding, running away and leaving rather than face being killed with the rest. The shame of that haunts them still, but they don't talk about it. Instead, the twin brothers work as traders and explorers, finding rare things on far off planets and bringing them to people who are willing to pay high prices for them. When their business is slow, they sometimes accept bounties, hunting down criminals or rare animals and other creatures for those too lazy to hunt for themselves. When a bounty for more money than either of them has ever seen comes in, they can't turn it down, even when it turns out that the collector they'd be hunting for wants a human woman for his collection.
