Giorgio como Feltrinelli was the most glamorous international publisher of his generation. A member of an ultra-left group, his death was the result of a botched terrorist attempt. In this work, his son reflects on his life.

Myths are the timeless expression of the imagination born out of the need to make sense of the universe. Moving across the centuries, they resonate with our deepest feelings about the fragility and grandeur of existence. Mythology is a comprehensive, richly illustrated survey of the mythic imagination in all its forms around the world, from the odysseys, quests and battles of ancient Greece and Rome to the living beliefs of indigenous cultures in the Americas, Africa and Oceania. Looking at each major myth-making culture in turn, this book retells some of the most significant and captivating stories in a lively, contemporary style. Generously illustrated with more than 700 color photographs, Mythology brings you the vibrant stories that echo time and again in our lives.

The Illustrated Anthology of World Myth and Storytelling

These twelve smart and beautiful princess stories are inspired by literature and folklore from around the world. In these stunning pages, readers will meet courageous rulers, inspired artists, fearless warriors and an evil sorceress. Through thrilling tales and Simona Bursi's beautiful artwork, readers will learn about extraordinary women including Nefertari, Pocahontas, Mulan, and Isabella. You'll never think of princesses the same way again!

In the 1930s, as her second marriage approaches, a brilliant and independent sculptor faces tensions between her art and everyday life in this novel by the author of The Good Earth. This Proud Heart narrates the experience of a gifted sculptor and her struggle to reconcile her absorbing career with society's domestic expectations. Susan Gaylord is talented, loving, equipped with a strong moral sense, and adept at anything she puts her hand to, from housework to playing the piano to working with marble and clay. But the intensity of her artistic calling comes at a price, isolating her from other people—at times, even from her own family. When her husband dies and she remarries, she finds herself once again comparing the sacrifice of solitude to that of commitment. With a heroine who is naturalistic yet compellingly larger than life, This Proud Heart is incomparable in its sympathetic study of character. This ebook features an illustrated biography of Pearl S. Buck including rare images from the author's estate.

Atlas Obscura says this lushly illustrated New York Times bestselling guide to dozens of dangerous, eerie, and infamous locations is the perfect gift for "those who believe the world is still full of mysteries to investigate." Pick up the acclaimed Atlas of Cursed Places and visit the world's most nerve-wracking locations. With pitily historical profiles, vintage full-color maps, and haunting tales that will color your perspective (and send tingles down your spine), this is a clever gift for the intrepid traveler or armchair adventurer who wants to explore destinations both remarkable and daunting. Visit: a coal town where twistsy sense of humor, Atlas of Cursed Places puts your quirky side on the map.

The International Bestseller A New York Times Editors' Choice SelectionA Winner of the 2020 Lannan Literary Awards Fellowship "[An] absorbing, stirring novel. . . . that, in more than one sense, remedies history." —The New York Times Book Review " A triumph, a novelistic rendition of one of the most difficult times in Vietnamese history. . . .Vast in scope and intimate in its telling. . . . Moving and riveting." —VNET THANH NGUYEN, author of The Sympathizer, winner of the Pulitzer Prize With the epic sweep of Min Jin Lee' s Pachinko or Yaa Gyasi' s Homegoing and the lyrical beauty of Vадdey Ratner' s In the Shadow of the Banyan, The Mountains Sing tells an enveloping, multigenerational tale of the Tr n family, set against the backdrop of the Vi t Nam War. Tr n

Di u Lan, who was born in 1920, was forced to flee her family farm with her six children during the Land Reform as the Communist government rose in the North. Years later in Hà N i, her young granddaughter, H ng, comes of age as her parents and uncles head off down the H Chi Minh Trail to fight in a conflict that tore apart not just her beloved country, but also her family. Vivid, gripping, and steeped in the language and traditions of Vi t Nam, The Mountains Sing brings to life the human costs of this conflict from the point of view of the Vietnamese people themselves, while showing us the true power of kindness and hope. The Mountains Sing is celebrated Vietnamese poet Nguy n Phan Qu Mai' s first novel in English.

The idea of "The Green Book" is to give the Motorist and Tourist a Guide not only of the Hotels and Tourist Homes in all of the large cities, but other classifications that will be found useful wherever he may be. Also facts and information that the Negro Motorist can use and depend upon. There are thousands of places that the public doesn't know about and aren't listed. Perhaps you know of some? If so send in their names and addresses and the kind of business, so that we might pass it along to the rest of your fellow Motorists. You will find it handy on your travels, whether at home or in some other state, and is up to date. Each year we are compiling new lists as some of these places move, or go out of business and new business places are started giving added employment to members of our race.

A Book about Friendship

Berne & Levy Physiology has long been respected for its scientifically rigorous approach - one that leads to an in-depth understanding of the body's dynamic processes. The South Asia Edition by Drs. Bruce M. Koeppen and Bruce A. Stanton, continues this tradition of excellence. With integrated coverage of biophysics and neurophysiology, key experimental observations and examples, and full-color design and artwork, this mid-size text is "just right" for a strong understanding of this complex field. An organ system-based approach clearly describes all of the mechanisms that control and regulate bodily function. Key experimental observations and examples provide a rich understanding of the body's dynamic processes.

Those long summer days and weekends spent with our best friends can be among the happiest memories of childhood. But the art of making friends isn't a skill that is taught in most schools. Teaching children how to be good friends and cultivate healthy friendships is the work of parents, teachers, coaches, ministers, and caring adults. In How to Be a Friend: A Book about Friendship . . . Just for Me!, author, Molly Wigand, introduces children to those values that make for good friendships—loyalty, trust, and honesty—and to how they can become a good friend to others.

Addressing the issue of artificial intelligence, this book explores what it is, what it can do for us and whether we should be worried about it. Scientists are now building robots which can think. If we build machines that can learn, rather than just take instructions, what are the implications?

*È possibile, in Italia, divertirsi con poco? Certo, ed è anche possibile farlo gratis! Nel nostro Paese sono davvero molte le occasioni di distrazione di cui godere senza "tirar fuori un euro". E vale la pena approfittarne. Per farvi riscoprire il meraviglioso mondo del "divertimento a costo zero", questa insolita guida vi propone luoghi poco conosciuti ed esperienze emozionanti, sagre e manifestazioni, chiese e palazzi, musei ed eventi, percorsi e itinerari, tutti unici e liberamente fruibili. Ci si può immergere nella magia della Death Valley lucana o respirare l'atmosfera lunare del Parco delle Biancane. Seguire le orme di san Francesco o essere un ospite illustre al matrimonio tra il tronco e la cima. Suonare un enorme campanaccio o scatenarsi al ritmo frenetico della Taranta. Ritornare bambini viaggiando tra cavalli giocattolo e figurine. E ancora, inseguire la fortuna provando a sfiorare il cappello di uno gnomo, portando via un pezzo di carro benedetto, fino a cimentarsi nella ricerca dell'oro. È vero, ci sono cose che non si possono comprare, ma ce ne sono almeno centuno che si possono avere gratuitamente! «Idee originali e di natura diversa per una gita o per un weekend.» La Repubblica «È qualcosa di più di una trovata divertente o di una guida ben fatta e originale: corrisponde a una filosofia di vita. Curiosa, positiva, creativa e soprattutto sobria. Quindi molto, ma molto cool.» Daria Bignardi Divertirsi senza spendere un euro Isa Grassano 38 anni, giornalista professionista, si occupa prevalentemente di turismo e di enogastronomia. In a gripping thriller with a hint of Oliver Twist, a street kid and his dog are chasing an unlikely fortune – and dodging the thugs who would steal it. Twelve-year-old Bully has lost his mum and his old life. Living rough on the streets of London with his dog, Jack, he can't imagine a future. But one day he finds, tucked inside his most cherished possession—the last birthday card his mother ever gave him—a lottery ticket he bought her. And it's a winner. A big winner. Suddenly there's hope, if only he can get to his prize on time! But just as Bully's prospects open up, peril closes in. Now ruthless gangsters are in hot *pursuit, and everyone wants a piece of him. Whom can he trust to help him retrieve what's his? And even if Bully does claim all that money, will he really be winning what he needs most? In the 1970s and 1980s, the Disney animation studio redefined its creative vision in the wake of Walt Disney's death. This latest volume from renowned Disney historian Didier Ghez profiles Ken Anderson and Mel Shaw, whose work defined beloved classic Disney characters from films like The Jungle Book, The Aristocats, Robin Hood, and The Rescuers. With vivid descriptions of passages from the artists' autobiographies and interviews, accompanied by never-before-seen images of their art and process, this visually rich collection offers a rare view of the Disney legends whose work helped shape the nature of character and story

Relationships fall apart, marriages fail, couples break up – it happens to us all. Time corrodes passion and the routines of daily life kill the excitement that surrounds the emotion of the first encounter. The difficulty of uniting sexual pleasure with love, which Freud considered to be the most common neurosis in any love life, has become emblematic of a truth that seems undeniable: desire is destined to die if its object is not constantly renewed, if we do not change partner, if it is closed for too long in the restrictive chamber of the same bond. And yet what happens to these bonds when one of the two partners betrays the other, when the promise fails, when there is another emotional experience cloaked in secrecy and deceit? What happens if the traitor then begs forgiveness? Are they asking to be loved again and, having declared that it is not like it used to be, now want everything to go back to how it was? Should we make fun of lovers in their attempts to make love last? Or should we try to face up to the experience of betrayal, with the offence caused by the person we love most? Should we not perhaps attempt to praise forgiveness in love?
