In this fascinating autobiography, Billye Brim tells the story of her family's Pentecostal roots and how a God-given directive led her to build Prayer Mountain in the Ozarks.She also shares about:-The roots of Pentacost in America at the beginning of the prophetic 20th century.-What made Tulsa such a spiritual city.-The importance place of prayer in these last days.

"Lewis struck me as the most thoroughly converted man I ever met," observes Walter Hooper in the preface to this collection of essays by C.S. Lewis. "His whole vision of life was such that the natural and the supernatural seemed inseparably combined. "It is precisely this pervasive Christianity which is demonstrated in the forty-eight essays comprising God in the Dock. Here Lewis addresses himself both to theological questions and to those which Hooper terms "semi-theological," or ethical. But whether he is discussing "Evil and God," "Miracles," "The Decline of Religion," or "The Humanitarian Theory of Punishment," his insight and observations are thoroughly and profoundly Christian. Drawn from a variety of sources, the essays were designed to meet a variety of needs, and among other accomplishments they serve to illustrate the many different angles from which we are able to view the Christian religion. They range from relatively popular pieces written for newspapers to more learned defenses of the faith which first appeared in The Socratic Digest. Characterized by Lewis's honesty and realism, his insight and conviction, and above all his thoroughgoing commitments to Christianity, these essays make God in the Dock very much a book for our time.--Amazon.com.

This is a valuable resource book through the Bible, explaining many customs practiced in Bible times. Not only is it easy to understand, but it is also filled with many helpful illustrations.

Authority is delegated power.Jesus delegated the authority on the earth to His body on the earth. Understanding this authority is of top importance in working with God in prayer in the end of days.Christians have the authority to keep Satan from having high carnival in their homes and families. Wherever demon forces are the culprits, we have the authority to keep them at bay. But believers must know about it. And they must know how to operate in it.In the 1980s, Kenneth E. Hagin told Billye Brim, 'As long as you are in this world, you can't keep weapons from being formed against you, but you can keep them from prospering.' Since then, she has studied the subject of the authority of the believer and learned to use it in her own life, family, and ministry.In this special edition mini-book, Dr. Billye Brim gives practical instructions from the Word of God on how we can rise up in the authority and power that is ours to do the work that God intended we should do in the earth.

Standing at the crossroads of psychology and religion, this catalyzing work applied the scientific method to a field abounding in abstract theory. William James believed that individual religious experiences, rather than the precepts of organized religions, were the backbone of the world's religious life. His discussions of conversion, repentance, mysticism and saintliness, and his observations on actual, personal religious experiences – all support this thesis. In his introduction, Martin E. Marty discusses how James's pluralistic view of religion led to his remarkable tolerance of extreme forms of religious behaviour, his challenging, highly original theories, and his welcome lack of pretension in all of his observations on the individual and the divine.

In Your Spiritual Authority Capps focuses his teaching on the believers identity in Christ. Readers will learn that the name of Jesus gives believers authority in three worldsbeings in earth, beings under the earth, and beings in heaven. God has restored the believers authority in the earth through the rebirth of the human spirit and has given back that which Satan stole from Adam. This newly packaged version of this breakthrough teaching will unleash new life and faith in the lives of believers.

Israel in the Plan of God

The Authority of the Believer urges the faithful Christian to take utmost cognizance in their deeds and words, that their closeness to the Lord be soundly affirmed each day. A sublime series of reflections upon what it is to be a good Christian, ‘ The Authority of the Believer ’ allows the reader to deeply contemplate. Reflecting on many of the greatest lessons and deeds depicted in the Bible, together with experiences in his own life, John MacMillan shows us just how powerful and capable a true believer in God can be. Faith, purely held and defended against the temptations and distractions of life, is a tool of immense use—the power of Christ and the Heavenly Lord can serve as a great support. John A. MacMillan was a Canadian politician and a preacher who spent his younger years as an emissary to the Chinese and Asian communities of Western Canada, spending time in both Asia and North America where he spread the good word of Christ.

In this collection of spiritual warfare prayers that correspond with each piece of armor, you'll find hope for your struggles with... fear and anxiety broken relationships financial issues negative habits and addictions pain and illness Satan's influence is not the final word for those who, through Jesus, overcome the world. The rapidly approaching end of the age is witnessing a tremendous increase in the activity of the powers of darkness. These conditions are reacting strongly upon the great ministry of Christ's Church. No longer are these concerned about the lost souls which wander in darkness; their thought is centered on raising their social status and meeting their intellectual and physical needs. They seek, in their own jargon, to "build a better world." But the world they envision is one without a Savior. There are few subjects relating to the Christian life concerning which there is so little exact knowledge as that of the Authority of the Believer. This is not because such authority is the property only of a few elect souls. On the contrary, it is the possession of every true child of God. It is one of the "all things received in Christ." Its reception dates from the soul's contact with Calvary. John MacMillan was a Canadian Presbyterian businessman who became involved with ministry to Chinese and Jewish people in Toronto. Ordained at the age of 49, MacMillan and his wife traveled to China as missionaries with The Christian and Missionary Alliance. He later became Field Director of the Christian and Missionary Alliance in the Philippines.
