This book embodies a collection of recipes celebrating and commemorating the rich history of family and friends who make up the foundation and fabric of the Macedonia Baptist Church family of Midland, Texas. Together, we celebrate "90 years of feeding souls and bodies" and remember those who have paved the way for our organization's very existence. What makes an ordinary man, husband, coach, or restaurant owner suddenly wake up one morning and wonder about God.

David Stevens was just a regular guy making a living and providing for his wife and family and who loved to spend his weekends with friends having drinks, dancing, and sleeping in on Sunday morning. Dave figured he had plenty of time left to get things right, until the night he had the dream that made him realize that his life could end at any moment before he got things right with God. Dave's search brought him to the realization that his life was not about Dave, but it was about God. Dave discovered that God had not just a plan for him but a calling on Dave's life to go and tell people about the saving grace of Jesus Christ. Dave went from just an ordinary man to an extraordinary man of God who preaches and teaches about the salvation we can all receive through Jesus Christ. Through the incredible teachings of Christ in the Bible and the testimonies of other godly men, Dave's life was transformed from a man centered on what the world said was acceptable to a man who desired on what God said was acceptable. He met men and women whose lives had been changed because of their interaction with Christ through dreams, through life experiences, or through the revelation of Christ. Pastor Dave, as he is now known, shares his journey of coming to Christ through his own experience of meeting the Savior. As he was mentored by other men of God, Pastor Dave began to see the urgent need to share the love, mercy, and grace of surrendering one's life to Christ and sharing that message with his friends and family and finally to others.

besides R.K. are school supplies that come to life in a fun-filled story that will entertain you and teach you a few valuable lessons. The story is about a young boy named R.K. that will be starting school as a fourth grader and he is so excited. His mother told him to make sure that he packs his book bag with all of his school supplies so that he can be fully prepared for school.

The school supplies become real-life characters in a nicely written story that will capture your heart and blow your mind. This is a fun, upbeat, and engaging story for young readers of all ages. So make sure to read it and then tell others about it. This book is dedicated to the loving memory of my parents Elvin "Chico" Turnbull and Delores "De" Mae Turnbull. Spiritual Warfare for Women

Bermudian Landing Baptist Church History: Memories of Friends from the Church, School, and Community is an illustrated book with a story for young and old. Sixty years of adventure with captioned photographs fill its pages. We see a community of Christians wholeheartedly living for the Lord Jesus Christ in the River Valley Region of Belize. We observe how village Christians pooled limited personal resources for maximum community benefit. The solidarity of these church members, combined with their desire to nurture Valley Region transition well from colony to nationhood in 1981. Organizational rules and practices in their churches also helped prepare them for leadership responsibilities in their communities, work places, and government. Appendices I, II, and III reveal that Baptists sought and still seek to structure their lives in community on Biblical principles. In 1822 when Baptists first arrived in the colony that became British Honduras/Belize, they were convinced that Galatians 3:26-29 meant that everyone was to be included in joint worship. Whether slave or free, whether black, white, or brown, whether their origin was African, Creole, European, Garifuna, Hispanic, Mayan, or East Indian, all were welcome and invited to share the good news of salvation and wholeness in Christ to everyone. Appendix IV encourages the readers to add their faith stories that happened in relation to Bermudian Landing and its Baptist church. The authors hope that the book will stimulate others to write the histories of their churches.

Open the pages and take part in a special journey based on a true story, recounting one man's experience during the last year of his life while battling acute myelogenous leukemia. In doing so, your tears and laughter will intertwine as you discover how one family finds moments of joy during periods of great pain and gains personal insight during the most difficult of times. The overall experience, though gentle in its presentation, offers a profound message to live life fully, love wholeheartedly, and always be grateful for the blessings in life.

A sweet story that helps children ages 3-7 recognize that potential friends are all around them, while reinforcing that Jesus is the best friend of all. For any adult who ever wanted to introduce kids to the friendship of Jesus, Noël Piper's sequel to Most of All, Jesus Loves You! is a wonderful choice. The story begins with a little boy whose family has just moved to a new place. As he sits on his front steps calling out for friends, he is surrounded by a diversity of would-be friends-up and down the street, in windows, around corners; he just can't see them yet. Before long, though, he finds them and they find him. Then the story broadens: "Do you want a friend too?"-"a friend who... loves you? comforts you when you are sad or sick? helps you know God? makes you happy? forgives you when you do something wrong? will save you from danger?" Pointing to Jesus as the only one who cares for us in all these ways, all the time, this colorfully illustrated book helps three- to seven-year-olds recognize Jesus as the best friend of all.

Emerging from the high rise buildings on Schroeder Street and the Third Avenue apartments of Mount Vernon N.Y., from "H'mm, looking at us down in their ghettos..." to the deep South of Bay St. Louis "Ehry Sunday we went to church," each writer is capturing what he or she believes to be a glimpse of realism in prose and verse to be heard like the ringing of gospel music through a southern Baptist church. Sadie's Book to the Glory of God "A Call for Missions" By: Pearline P. Burns, North American Missionary (Retired) Sadie's Book to the Glory of God was written to share God's love and grace for all His people. Pearline P. Burns knows He has promised to never leave or forsake us - and she has witnessed this promise. Burns is in total awe of the miraculous answers to prayers that only God could do. She writes in Sadie's Book to the Glory of God, that she experienced God's faithfulness in meeting the needs of the poor with no resources available, to the rich with resources they will never use. However, the emotional and spiritual pain hurts both. During the thirteen years Burns served at Windsor

Forest Baptist Church's Life Care Ministry and her seven years at Savannah Baptist Center as a North American Missionary, she felt God pour out His power and love in miraculous ways.

In this life we can know the love of God. When we do have a relationship with our Lord we are responsible to share the great gift that was freely given to us. As a Christian you will find this book to be inspirational and instructional on how to pray for revival of faith for those who are without hope and knowledge of God. We are called from bondage into mission: "You shall be to Me a kingdom of Priests"

Exodus.19:5,6. This book will provide instruction on prayer for the Holy Spirit to come upon your city, your country and virtually the world. You will become familiar with a historical perspective of past revivals when men and who have prayed for revival saw the miraculous growth in numbers of people who wanted, and needed to know about God's grace. This book teaches that success requires commitment and prayer as you must be committed to God and to revival. Pastor Longstaff has witnessed significant church growth in South Africa as a result of prayer and caring for others. We are commissioned under the Kings call, Matthew 28: 18-20. We are called to pray, to fast, to intercede for others and to stand firm on God's promises. Matthew 13:37, 38 "The field is the world." Go now and sow.

The poetry in this collection was written by Darius Mitteer Ratcliff and included in letters written to his daughter, Elizabeth Louise Ratcliff Downs, during the 1940s. His writing reflects his total commitment to Christ in every season of life and his love of his family, friends, and the churches and the town that he devoted his life to.
