What is a family? Once, it was said to be a father, mother, boy, girl, cat and dog living in a house with a garden. But as times have changed, families have changed too, and now there are almost as many kinds of families as colours of the rainbow - from a mum and dad or single parent to two mums or two dads, from a mixed-race family to children with different mums and dads, to families with a disabled member. Mary Hoffman takes a look through children's eyes at the wide varieties of family life: from homes, food, ways of celebrating, schools and holidays to getting around, jobs and housework, from extended families, languages and hobbies to pets and family trees - and she concludes that, for most people, their own family is the best one of all! With Ros Asquith's delightful pictures,

Jack Hanna Big Book of Why Animals answers the why and did you know questions about all kinds of animals that kids commonly ask, but adults can rarely answer. What's the difference between a crocodile and an alligator? Why do animals' eyes glow in the dark? Why do cats purr? Written in an informative, engaging manner, each answer is accompanied by either a photo or an illustration to show the reasons why. Of course, Jack goes beyond answering the question, and dips into a combination of science, history and humor to further explain the answer in an easy-to-follow, straightforward manner. Jack Hanna Big Book of Why is a must-have book to satisfy the most curious of kids.

This biggest-ever Maisy book is full to bursting with first words and pictures. Sixty-four pages, 25 fantastic flaps and over 300 wonderful words combine in this colourful collection. All of Maisy's favourite places and activities are featured:

After Bart King interviewed hundreds of the wisest guys and smartest alecks for The Big Book of Boy Stuff, something awesome happened: the book became a classic! Hailed by critics and kids alike, it has sold hundreds of thousands of copies, and even won awards. In this updated and redesigned tenth anniversary edition, hijinks and hilarity are still front and center. Within these pages, boys can find a myriad of things to do, things to laugh at, and things they didn't know. Bart King, the veteran of many water balloon wars, taught middle school for many years. He's written other cool books, including The Big Book of Superheroes, The Pocket Guide to Girl Stuff, and The Big Book of Gross Stuff.
