Austerity in Britain

File Type PDF

British General

Elections Since

1945 Making
is the first book to explore the entire

episode of

rationing, austerity,

and fair shares from 1939 until 1955.

These policies were

central to the British war effort

and to post-war reconstruction. The book analyses the

connections

between government policy,
consumption,
gender, and party
politics during and after the Second World War. The
economic background to austerity, the
policy's
administration, and changes in

standards are examined.

Rationing resulted in at times
extensive black markets and popular attitudes to the policy ranged from wartime
acquiescence to post-war
discontent.

Austerity in Britain
qualifies the myth
of common sacrifice
on the home front
and highlights the limitations of the fair-shares policy
which failed to achieve genuine equality between classes or between men and women.

The continuation of

Disaffection, particularly among
women,
undermined Labour's popularity
while the
