In this instant New York Times bestseller, Angela Duckworth shows anyone striving to succeed that the secret to outstanding achievement is not talent, but a special blend of passion and persistence she calls “grit.”

“Inspiration for non-genius everywhere” (People). The daughter of a scientist who frequently noted her lack of “genius,” Angela Duckworth is now a celebrated researcher and professor. It was her early eye-opening stints in teaching, business consulting, and neuroscience that led to her hypothesis about what really drives success: not genius, but a unique combination of passion and long-term perseverance. In Grit, she takes us into the field to visit cadets struggling through their first days at West Point, teachers working in some of the toughest schools, and young finalists in the National Spelling Bee. She also mines fascinating insights from history and shows what can be gleaned from modern experiments in peak performance. Finally, she shares what she’s learned from interviewing dozens of high achievers—from JP Morgan CEO Jamie Dimon to New Yorker cartoon editor Bob Mankoff to Seattle Seahawks Coach Pete Carroll. “Duckworth’s ideas about the cultivation of tenacity have clearly changed some lives for the better” (The New York Times Book Review). Among Grit’s most valuable insights: any effort you make ultimately counts twice toward your goal; grit can be learned, regardless of IQ or circumstances; when it comes to child-rearing, neither a warm embrace nor high standards will work by themselves; how to trigger lifelong interest; the magic of the Hard Thing Rule; and so much more. Winningly personal, insightful, and even life-changing, Grit is a book about what goes through your head when you fall down, and how that—not talent or luck—makes all the difference. This is “a fascinating tour of the psychological research on success” (The Wall Street Journal).

The project that captured a nation's imagination. The instructions were simple, but the results were extraordinary. "You are invited to anonymously contribute a secret to a group art project. Your secret can be a regret, fear, betrayal, desire, confession, or childhood humiliation. Reveal anything -- as long as it is true and you have never shared it with anyone before. Be brief. Be legible. Be creative." It all began with an idea Frank Warren had for a community art project. He began handing out postcards to strangers and leaving them in public places -- asking people to write down a secret they had never told anyone and mail it to him, anonymously. The response was overwhelming. The secrets were both provocative and profound, and the cards themselves were works of art -- carefully and creatively constructed by hand. Additively compelling, the cards reveal our deepest fears, desires, regrets, and obsessions. Frank calls them "graphic haiku," beautiful, elegant, and small in structure but powerfully emotional. As Frank began posting the cards on his website, PostSecret took on a life of its own, becoming much more than a simple art project. It has grown into a global phenomenon, exposing our individual aspirations, fantasies, and frailties -- our common humanity. Every day dozens of postcards still make their way to Frank, with postmarks from around the world, touching on every aspect of human experience. This extraordinary collection brings together the most powerful, personal, and beautifully intimate secrets Frank Warren has received -- and brilliantly illuminates that human emotions can be unique and universal at the same time.

Are you are an aspiring, a practicing or a struggling Real Estate agent? When starting out as an agent, there are many challenges you come across. You may have great ideas blowing up in your mind but before long, you realize that nothing has worked. If you are at this stage, don't worry, you are not alone. The main reason why over 80 percent of the beginner agents quit is that they do not know how to differentiate the REALITY from the REAL ESTATE. I feel like I wasted my first 2 years an agent. I did not make any progress in my career. I made unnecessary mistakes and my personal and professional life was full of struggles. I can't remember how many times I felt like quitting. But then I also learned a few secrets that I want to pass out to all aspiring and beginner agents. My Name is Chastin J. Miles and I'm an award-winning and accomplished real estate agent. I started off in Dallas, TX and had to struggle like most agents. Through the many years of my career, I have managed to turn things around and now I sit among the best. I have won over 10 awards in this short period including being named Best Real Estate Agent by D Magazine and the 2018 Top Social Media Expert Texas by Top Agent Magazine. My work has been featured in over 8 magazines and even TV shows. I could go on and on about my success but this is not about me. This is about you and what you need to break through. The Real Before The Estate is a book I wrote specifically to help those trying to scale up the ladder in the industry. The Real Before The Estate takes you away from the theories you learn in school and the ideas you have in your mind by introducing you to the real world of real estate.
