The following question bank is all about conceptual understanding. Go through all the questions and try to understand what the question is asking about. Most of the times the aspirants know the material but failed to understand the concept or question. That's why they face failure. Candidates must emphasize in these lines. Try to solve as many questions as they can in order to have deep understanding of the CFA material. First read the question and understand it. After that read the given options and select the most appropriate option. After selection of the answer, read the answer, given after each question. The answers are given just after each question so the reader feel comfortable and he does not need to go down in search of the answer and the reason of the answer.

Books description ● Summarize most vital concepts from each reading ● Key formulas and facts ● 25th Hour Notes can be used on a 'stand-alone' basis if you are time-constrained. The 25th HOUR NOTES is based on Pareto's 80-20 rule according to which 80% of the exam questions are likely to be based on 20% of the curriculum. Hence this course focuses on the 20% material which is most testable. We call this the "25th Hour Notes" because your investment (time and money) is low but the potential return (passing the exam) is high! Many candidates complain that they forget material covered earlier. The 25th HOUR NOTES addresses this problem by helping you to quickly revise key concepts. Condition ● All new and unused books. ● High quality material. ● 100% Money back guarantee if not satisfied with the quality.

Principles of Investments by Bodie, Drew, Basu, Kane and Marcus emphasises asset allocation while presenting the practical applications of investment theory. The authors concentrate on the intuition and insights that will be useful to students throughout their careers as new ideas and challenges emerge from the financial marketplace. It provides a good foundation to understand the basic types of securities and financial markets as well as how trading in those markets is conducted. The Portfolio Management section is discussed towards the end of the course and supported by a web-based portfolio simulation with a hypothetical $100,000 brokerage account to buy and sell stocks and mutual funds. Students get a chance to use real data found in the Wall Street Survivor simulation in conjunction with the chapters on investments. This site is powered by StockTrak, the leading provider of investment simulation services to the academic community. Principles of Investments includes increased attention to changes in market structure and trading technology. The theory is supported by a wide range of exercises, worksheets and problems.
