Four months later, his

Into the Wild.

Immediately after

McCandless had roamed through the West and Southwest
on a vision quest like those made by his heroes Jack London and John Muir. In the Mojave Desert he abandoned his car,
stripped it of its license plates, and
burned all of his cash.
He would give himself

Alexander

Supertramp, and,

unencumbered by money and

belongings, he would be free to wallow in the raw, unfiltered
experiences that nature presented.

Craving a blank spot
on the map,

McCandless simply
threw the maps away.

Leaving behind his desperate parents and sister, he vanished into the wild.

Jon Krakauer
constructs a clarifying prism through which he reassembles the
disquieting facts of McCandless's short life. Admitting an interest that borders on obsession, he
searches for the clues
