Prized for their feathers or eggs, raised for their meat or their beauty or simply for fun, poultry of a dazzling array of sorts and sizes have a place in the heart of farmers, ranchers, and bird fanciers alike. If you want to raise fowl--of whatever kind and for whatever reason--this book is the perfect place to begin. Poultry expert Christine Heinrichs lays out the distinctions between waterfowl (ducks, geese, and swans), turkeys, gamebirds (peafowl, pheasants, quail, and others), ratites (ostriches, emus, and rheas), and pigeons. She then clearly details the very different requirements for raising each species, from feeding and housing to husbandry and health, to showing and marketing and legal concerns. Whether you're thinking of starting a flock or acquiring a few feathered friends, this handy guide tells you everything you need to know to raise healthy poultry for pleasure or profit--or both. 22 intricate drawings of the most famous Dutch paintings to colour in. In Colour Your Own Dutch Masters, 22 paintings have been included from the rich and glorious Golden Age period in the Netherlands, the period that took up the largest part of the seventeenth century. Colour Your Own Dutch Masters provides you with an opportunity of lending your own colours to works of art by Rembrandt van Rijn, Johannes Vermeer, Frans Hals, Jan Steen, Anthony van Dyck, Peter Paul Rubens, and many others. Alternatively, refer to the full-colour gallery in the book to match your colours and follow the paintings in every detail to Girl with A Pearl Earring or The Goldfinch. The excellent quality paper offers the possibility of colouring the plates with all kinds of materials, such as wasco crayons, colour pencils, or watercolours. Discover the magic of the Dutch Masters with this colouring book, and let them inspire you.
