While driving with your friends or family someplace far from home, your radiator starts steaming. You manage to find a gas station in a town where they can fix your car, but it's going to take a few hours. You ask the mechanic if there's any place to get something to eat. You find a gas station that has a few points across the road to Moe's Cafe, a real dump. You don't have much choice, so you head inside and take a seat at the first booth on the left. So begins Moe's Cafe, one of 48 innovative and intriguing prompts for student writing. These classroom-tested prompts put students in a place or in front of a character and ask them to describe what they see. The thinking, writing, and scribbling they do for the prompts inspire them to create their own stories and poems. After writing 90-word mini-stories, students read a short story or watch a film scene to expand on their own creative works. A section of longer readings models writing strategies. The lessons and activities reinforce and develop the skills defined by the National Council of Teachers of English as appropriate for students in grades 6-12. Good Year.

Here are the ideas, experiments, and inspiration to unfold your imagination and get your writing to flow off the page! This is the every-thing-you-need guide to spark new poems and unstuck old stories, including lists of big, small, gross-out, and favorite words; adventurous and creative prompts to leap from; dares and double dares to help you mash up truths and lies into outrageous paragraphs; and letters of encouragement written directly to you from famous authors, including: Annie Barrows, Naomi Shihab Nye, Lemony Snicket, C. M. Mayo, Elizabeth Singer Hunt, Moira Egan, Gary Soto, Lucille Clifton, Avi, Betsy Franco, Carol Edgarian, Karen Cushman, Patricia Polacco, Prartho Sereno, Lewis Buzbee, and C. B. Follett. This is your journal for inward-bound adventures—use it to write, brainstorm, explore, imagine—and even rip! To make writing more exciting for fifth and sixth grade students, you need to give them a chance to grow their creativity and imagination. "Creative Writing Prompts Workbook" is a collection of imaginative situations and questions that will get your students and children using their brains. They will come up with wildly creative ideas when they begin to put pen to paper. Bryan Cohen, the author of "1,000 Creative Writing Prompts" and "500 Writing Prompts for Kids," has compiled 200 of some of his best prompts for first and second graders in this workbook. Use them in journals, assignments, poems, conversations, songs and more.

Some students just don't want to share intimate details about their thoughts, feelings and lives—at least, not with others in a class or school. That's where Unjournaling comes in. All the writing prompts in this book are entirely impersonal but completely engaging for both kids and adults. Two examples of the 200 writing prompts include: Write a paragraph about a girl named Dot, but use no letters with a dot (in other words, no i or j). Why on earth would Yankee Doodle stick a feather in his cap and call it "macaroni"? Come up with a plausible explanation. The book includes sample responses to all of the questions—a helpful tool for anyone who gets stuck with a topic and wants to see how it can be done! Grade 7-Adult

I Wish My Teacher Knew

Eve

In a future where the Population Police enforce the law limiting a family to only two children, Luke, an illegal third child, has lived all his twelve years in isolation and fear on his family's farm in this start to the Shadow Children series from Margaret Peterson Haddix. Luke has never been to school. He's never had a birthday party, or gone to a friend's house for an overnight. In fact, Luke has never had a friend. Luke is one of the shadow children, a third child forbidden by the Population Police. He's lived his entire life in hiding, and now, with a new housing development replacing the woods next to his family's farm, he is no longer even allowed to go outside. Then, one day Luke sees a girl's face in the window of a house where he knows two other children already live. Finally, he's met a shadow child like himself. Jen is willing to risk everything to come out of the shadows—does Luke dare to become involved in her dangerous plan? Can he afford not to?

Janet Burroway's bestselling Imaginative Writing: The Elements of Craft explores the craft of creative writing in four genres: Fiction, Poetry, Drama, and Creative Nonfiction. A trade author as well as a professor of creative writing, Burroway brings her years of teaching and writing to this book. "Try-This" exercises appear throughout each chapter. Provocative and fun, these exercises help writers develop the specific writing skills discussed within the text. "Working toward a draft" exercises encourage writers to develop their ideas into complete drafts. In response to reviewer requests, the preface "Invitation to the Writer" has been expanded into a full chapter. This new chapter introduces writers to important skills such as reading like a writer, journaling, and participating in the writer's workshop. This book offers lots of ideas and encouragement at a great price!

Great writing prompt journal for kids between the 3rd and 5th grade. Perhaps you have a child who loves writing and wants to develop their skills. Or perhaps your child is a reluctant writer who needs to practice writing essays and stories to keep up with their peers. Whatever the case may be, you'll find this journal filled with writing prompts is perfect for improving children's imagination, creativity, reading skills, vocabulary and comprehension. The writing prompts in this book are ideal for children in the 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th grade, but older students will also enjoy the interesting topics and fun story-starters. This is an ideal book for parents looking for a way to extend their child at home. What's more, the finished journal makes a fantastic keep-sake. If you homeschool or tutor a child, this is a great way to get their creative juices flowing.

Teachers will love this brilliant book of prompts with a topic for every occasion. You'll never run out of creative writing ideas and interesting story starters. This book is a great gift for aspiring writers. Here are a few examples of great prompts in the book: You blow out your birthday candles and make a wish. Immediately the wish comes true. What did you wish for? What happens? Your dad is a scientist. One of his top-secret projects is to bring the dinosaurs back to life. He's brought a baby dinosaur home from the lab. How do you look after it? What type of transportation will people have in the future? A strange little door appears in your bedroom. You can squeeze through the door if you try. What do you find on the other side?

Writing prompts include interesting story starters, but also 'would you rather' questions (like would you rather be able to fly or be incredibly strong) and persuasive essay topics to improve debating skills.

A town full of fun, creative journal writing prompts. A meteor rains down on the town, some town residents loose their houses and property, or watch it fall. A wild pack of bunnies hop through town, eating property, causing problems and even becoming pets. The town hosts a marathon, who ran, won or watched? The town elects officials, town residents hold and loose jobs, receive salaries, celebrate national and odd holidays and experience other normal town activities. Sixty-three event and holiday journal prompts, including ten town milestones and experiences that should be repeated throughout the year, combine for many days of creative writing for all town residents. Each non-holiday event includes an event announcement page and individual event cards that give each town resident a differing writing prompt. Holidays are whole-town events with announcement pages for all to write from. This book also contains town buildings, houses and a setup guide as well as journal pages and teacher recording charts.

A daily writing practice requires constant feeding of new ideas to draw from deep inside your writing well. Eve is an outcast. A chimera. After years of abuse and rejection, 19-year-old Evelyn Kingston is ready for a fresh start in a new city, where no one knows her name. The esteemed Billington University in Southern California seems like the perfect place to reinvent herself-to live the life of an ordinary human. But things at Billington aren't as they seem. In a school filled with prodigies, socialites, and the leaders of tomorrow, Eve finds that the complex social hierarchy makes passing as a human much harder than she had anticipated. Even worse, Billington is harboring a secret of its own: Interlopers have infiltrated the university, and their sinister plans are targeted at chimeras-like Eve. Instantly, Eve's new life takes a drastic turn. In a time filled with chaos, is the world focusing on the wrong enemy? And when the situation at Billington shifts from hostile to dangerous, will Eve remain in the shadows, or rise up and fight?

Unjournaling

This book has been written with the fiction writer in mind. It teaches writers, through writing each day of the year on a subject of their choice, how to use description, narrative and character development. Each of the exercises is simple to follow and gives scope to the writer to follow their own style. Writers are encouraged to use their imagination to enjoy the challenge of writing stories on given topics. There is a good variety of subjects and much is speculative, thus leaving the writer free to tackle the story in the manner he/she wants, although one section does encourage the use of first person narrative. Through the different subjects, writers are encouraged to use adjectives and to close their eyes and imagine the characters of their stories, so that they can present them in full color and with atmosphere to readers. Throughout the book, different interests are covered and writers don't have to take the obvious route. We encourage writers to take it a step further and conjure up their own ideas and make these come to life on the page. As they progress, they will learn about how to incorporate: -Descriptions -Colors -Words that sound alike -Narrative -Atmospheres Since each page allows writers the space to write out their story in journal format, we would suggest that writers use a notebook to gather together ideas before writing, thus having a direction for the story. This is particularly relevant in Twist in the Tail stories which lead to a surprising conclusion. Fiction strategy includes the following elements: -Character development using familiar people as models for their characters -Twists and turns to surprise readers -Excitement and tense drama The writing prompts give writers sufficient information to be able to come up with stories and the angle that they approach their story writing from should always be left to the writer as an individual choice. The writing prompts help the writer to create atmosphere, tension and twists and turns in their plot construction, all of which are important to writers in the fiction area. The book also contains popular genres such as erotica, mystery and suspense, murder, romance and love and all of the styles that are currently being sought by publishing companies. It's a good idea to practice because this highlights a writer's strengths and weaknesses and will usually dictate the kind of genre that a writer will choose as his trademark to success.

Conquer that blank page staring back at you! 301 Writing Ideas is a guided journal designed to get you writing right away, so you spend less time pondering and more time expressing your true thoughts and feelings. Massively inspirational, creativity-catalyzing, and just the right dose of self-help. That's what this book is! We're living through a distraction contagion because of technology (namely social media) and busy work schedules and it's becoming harder than ever to find space for ourselves. Don't believe me? A recent study claimed that only 25% of people are living up to their potential to be creative. We're living in a time where creativity and self-knowledge are becoming more and more scarce. Here's my solution: Writing Prompts: The Ultimate Self-Exploration Journal is a beautifully-designed journal made to work your creative muscles, pencraft, and help you find some enlightenment along the way. Super charge your imagination and reflective abilities because we're about to go deep. Let me explain. In this book we will: Find questions that will instigate massive self-reflection. Write to see yourself from your eyes and the eyes of others. Narrate short stories about the values, beliefs, and concepts we hold closest to our hearts. Write away problems, difficulties and all kinds of negativity. Let go, forgive, and forget. Write to attract happiness, gratitude, and bliss into our lives. Write our future(s) and understand our past. And much, much more! Who is this book for? Students, corporate folk, and just about everyone else with a hunger for creativity. Scribes of all kinds looking to improve their penmanship. Writers in need of a creativity pill. Pursuers of the truth and other new age spirituality junkies (I know who you are, I am one too!). Anyone who gets excited at the sight of a pen and a blank piece of paper. Get this book today at a special new release discount! You're one click away from an amazing writing journey!

Don't limit your fiction - LIBERATE IT All too often, following the "rules" of writing can constrict rather than inspire you. With Story Trumps Structure, you can shed those rules - about three-act structure, rising action, outlining, and more - to craft your most powerful, emotional, and gripping stories. Award-winning novelist Steven James explains how to trust the narrative process to make your story believable, compelling, and engaging, and debunks the common myths that hold writers back from creating their best work.

- Ditch your outline and learn to write organically.
- Set up promises for readers - and deliver on them.
- Discover how to craft a satisfying climax.
- Master the subtleties of characterization.
- Add mind-blowing twists to your fiction.

When you focus on what lies at the heart of story - tension, desire, crisis, escalation, struggle, discovery - rather than plot templates and formulas, you'll begin to break out of the box and write fiction that resonates with your readers. Story Trumps Structure will transform the way you think about stories and the way you write them, forever.

101+ Creative Journaling Prompts is an inspiring collection of writing prompts (that you'll actually want to use!) designed to help you dig deeper to discover more of your true self and to inspire you on those days where you aren't quite sure what to write about. #1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER "[A] poetic reckoning of the importance of love in a child's life . . . eloquent and moving."—People "Everything that can be called love -- from shared joy to comfort in the darkness -- is gathered in the pages of this reassuring, refreshingly honest picture book."—The New York Times Book Review, Editors' Choice / Staff Picks From the Book Review "Lyrical and sensitive, 'Love' is the sort of book likely to leave readers of all ages a little tremulous, and brimming with feeling."—The Wall Street Journal From Newbery Medal-winning author Matt de la Peña and bestselling illustrator Loren Long comes a story about the strongest bond there is and the diverse and powerful ways it connects us all. "In the beginning there is light and two wide-eyed figures standing near the foot of your bed and the sound of their voices is love. ... A cab driver plays love softly on his radio while you bounce in back with the bumps of the city and everything smells new, and it smells like life." In this heartfelt celebration of love, Newbery Medal-winning author Matt de la Peña and bestselling illustrator Loren Long depict the many ways we experience this universal bond, which carries us from the day we are born throughout the years of our childhood and beyond. With a lyrical text that's soothing and inspiring, this tender tale is a needed comfort and a new classic that will resonate with readers of every age.
