

Dear Zoo Colouring Pages

From the illustrator of the #1 smash hit The Day the Crayons Quit comes a humorous, resonant tale about the value of shared experiences. A penguin has wings for a reason . . . doesn't he? Having a best friend with his own airplane is one thing, but actually experiencing what it feels like to fly by himself? Here is one penguin who believes this is precisely what he needs to feel complete. Only . . . if flying by himself is so wonderful, then why does he feel so empty? Because some experiences are better shared. (And penguins are much happier on the ground.)

Oliver Jeffers delivers the perfect companion to his much-loved Lost and Found. Penguins everywhere will take flight in delight.

Illustrator Kameichido is unique in mixing huggable animal illustrations in a cute and huggable touch with intricate and somewhat magical patterns. This new coloring book presents more than 60 new animal drawings as they live in a zoo. You can enjoy this book in various ways:

Your eyes cannot avoid being drawn into the mix of cute animals with mandala-like patterns, even before you start coloring them. And of course you can surely have a lot of fun from coloring them. Also recommended is to add patterns on the original drawings and make your own zentangle-like illustrations. This unique title will surely too good to be missed by all the coloring book fans.

"One morning, an egg drops from the sky ζ down, down, into the deep, dark ocean." So begins Little Lost Dragon's journey through ocean, jungle, swamp and icy wasteland, to find his family and his home.

Discover the delights of nature with zoologist, poet and top children's book author, Nicola Davies. Learn how to draw animals of all shapes and sizes - some you'll know and some surprises.
