is the story of the search for a rocket propellant which could be trusted to take man into space. This search was a hazardous enterprise carried out by rival labs who worked against the known laws of nature, with no guarantee of success or safety.

Acclaimed scientist and sci-fi author John

Drury Clark writes

with irreverent and

eyewitness immediacy

about the development

strong enough to

negate the relentless

restraints of gravity.

The resulting volume

is as much a memoir

as a work of history, stocks skyrocketed throughout the 1920s, led by new technology stocks, such as Radio Corporation of America, or RCA, which made radios and owned broadcasters.

However, the rampant purchasing and rise
