The next in Alan Axelrod's engaging and popular CEO series spotlights a perfect leader: Napoleon, the brilliant military strategist who also laid the administrative and judicial foundations for much of Western Europe. Axelrod looks at this much-studied figure in a new way, exploring six areas that constitute the core of what made Napoleon a great leader: Audacity, Vision, Empathy, Strategy, Logistics, and Tactics. Within these areas, Axelrod formulates approximately 60 lessons framed in military analogies, valuable for anyone who aspires to leadership, whether in the boardroom or the Oval Office. Amon has seen it all in the thousands of years he's walked this earth. As a demon, he only ever wanted to live and feed unnoticed. But his need for blood always brought him trouble. Finally, he's devised a foolproof plan to meet his needs and the needs of other monsters like him. With the help of his demon son, a bloodthirsty vampire, a dark wizard, and two very feral sirens, they will hunt humans who have sinned in the vilest ways. This savage hunt will not only feed them but deliver revenge the humans so desire. His flawless plan won't ever shatter. He'd bet his existence on it.

Liar's Winter

My Nan

The Groomer

A cheeky account of a chubby law graduate, as he waddles through life and law text books, in his rather futile attempts at wooing his pretty Gujarati classmate. Ankur Palekar, a third year law student believes his life is quite sorted out, except that he does not want to become a lawyer, has a family history of lunacy and has actually fallen in love. Vyas, Ankur's room mate and best friend, has no such problems – only a girl friend who emerges from a grave yard of all places and who insists on visiting him in his boy's hostel. A Malayali friend, whose car never starts and vocal chords never stop, a college festival being organized without the college and an arranged marriage which is more deranged than arranged are some of the other highlights.

Funny, pacey, yet it has its moments, 'When a Lawyer falls in love....' Is the kind of book, that will make you laugh and cry, both for the same reasons!

Most people know that there are 70 million Baby Boomers in America today...but what is less known is that there are approximately 100 million people in America between the ages of 16 and 30. This generation has just entered, or will soon be entering the work force. And they have no idea how to invest, save, or handle their money. Young people today come out of school having had little or no formal education on the basics of money management. Many have large debts from student loans looming over their heads. And many feel confused and powerless when their pricey educations don't translate into high paying jobs. They feel that their $30,000-$40,000 salary is too meager to bother with investing, and they constantly fear that there will be "too much month left at the end of their money." Douglas R. Andrew has shown the parents of this generation a different pathway to financial freedom. Now Doug and his sons, Emron and Aaron - both of whom are in their mid-20s - show the under-30 crowd how they can break from traditional 401k investment plans and instead can find a better way by investing in real estate, budgeting effectively, avoiding unnecessary taxes and using life insurance to create tax-free income. With the principles outlined in Millionaire by Thirty, recent graduates will be earning enough interest on their savings to meet their basic living expenses by the time they're 30. And by the time they're 35, their investments will be earning more money than they are, guaranteeing them a happy, wealthy future.

Telling the story of the nineties through the TV that we watched and the people who made it, this is a kiss under the mistletoe with the shows that defined a nation and a fumble with the things that fell through the cracks. From "Bullseye" to "B*Witched", Ben Baker takes a nostalgic potter through the past whilst documenting its impact on the present. It's an era where we said "Eh-oh" to the Teletubbies and goodbye to the Trotters, Noel Edmonds was everywhere and people nervously waited out the Millennium and the end of times it would inevitably bring. A time where mobile phones, the internet and DVD were becoming an affordable reality yet co-existed in a world where Bamboozle on Teletext, the Funfax and VHS cassette labels marked in red ink "MUM'S TAPE - SOLDIER SOLDIER - DO NOT TOUCH" were still a regular sight in many homes. Programmes featured include "Bruce Forsyth's Generation Game", "Bernard and the Genie", "Des O' Connor Tonight", "Stella Street", "The Wrong Trousers", "Teletubbies", "Newman and Baddiel Christmas in Pieces", "The Ghosts of Oxford Street", "Maid Marian and Her Merry Men", "TFI Friday", "Men Behaving Badly", "Auntie's Bloomers", "2 Point 4 Children", "Stars In Their Eyes", "Light Lunch", "Walker, Texas Ranger", "Dinnerladies", "Beavis and Butt-Head", "Father Ted", "Gladiators", "The Tony Ferrino Phenomenon", "The Flint Street Nativity" and "The Wizard Of Oz...On Ice". No really. Plus star names including Take That, Madonna, Harry Hill, Quentin Crisp, Lenny Henry, Mrs Merton, Willie Carson,

Adam and Joe, Johnny Vegas, Rory Bremner, Edd The Duck, Mr Blobby, Lulu, Buffy the Vampire Slayer and the Spice Girls. It was the nineties and it feels like it happened only two minutes ago and simultaneously in another lifetime.

Opposites Attract...and can thrive in a marriage built on God. The book starts with the results of a survey detailing the ten most important qualities that each man or woman wants in a spouse, then teaches us how we can be the person who breeds that quality in our husband or wife. Throughout the book the authors use their own personalities and experience with marriage to demonstrate how to do marriage right.

As the tour progresses, Davey finds himself separated from the others, and inside an eerie chamber. Here he is drawn to a large and hazy-glassed mirror. In a moment, Davey's reflection blurs, and he finds himself back on the streets of the ancient city - but the residents are not of his time - they are ghosts, and some do not take kindly to those from 'the other side'. Davey encounters some friendly spirits, too - but they urge him to try to make it back to his own time, before an evil ghost crew discovers he is mortal. A frantic search for his own world begins, and Davey makes it just in time. But he senses there is unfinished business and, come Hallowe'en, the ghosts will be on the lookout for him - and this time they will be visiting his world . . .
