Even if you're not on vacation, you'll love filling in the blanks and creating your own stories about "Cave Exploring" and "Driving in the Car," among many others. Whether you're home by yourself, or spending the night at a friend's house, try playing Vacation Fun Mad Libs® for kicks.

Featuring make-your-own stories on a variety of subjects children know (but don't always love), from field trips and toys to school and parents, Kid Libs Mad Libs® brings youngsters hours of word-filled, grammar-packed fun. There's only one catch: players must know the parts of speech to play. Then again, if they don't, Kid Libs Mad Libs® will teach them. The idea is simple: someone asks for a part of speech--a noun, verb, adjective, or adverb--and players call out their ideas to fill in the blanks. The result is a story reeling from one silly sentence to another that makes no sense--but makes you laugh.

Celebrate the wisdom of the sandbox—the witty, innocent, surprising, and yet completely sensible things that kids say and do. A little book with a big heart, Really Important Stuff My Kids Have Taught Me combines deceptively simple life lessons with engaging images that together not only offer insight but inspire joy. Kids see the world in a way that adults don't, so glimpsing life through a child's eyes offers a fresh—and often funny—perspective. Kids encourage us to be open-minded: There are a lot of different ways to get to the top of the jungle gym. To be fearless: Jump right in or you may change your mind about swimming. To aim high:

Even babies grab for things just beyond their reach. To be kind to yourself: Sometimes you need a Saturday on a Wednesday. To follow your own path: If the flowers you draw don't look like anyone else's, that's good. And to stay young: Go barefoot! Tune in to the chatter on the playground, and remind yourself how simple everything really is.
