Explores what “fair” really means - it’s not as simple as it seems; hilarious and accessible; easy to relate to and understand; and beautifully simple.When Bear and Hare try to reach some juicy pears, they realize they need some help. Hare finds three chairs, but Bear only has two chairs and Bear only one? But when they each use one chair, Hare still can’t reach the pears! So a little friend teaches them that fair isn’t always everyone getting the same thing ... with hilarious results! A beautifully simple picture book that considers, what always as simple as you’d think!
