

End Time Events

It is the last hour! Have you ever given a deep thought about the end of our human civilization and the world? Have you ever asked if the end-time events predicted in the Bible will happen literally? Will hundreds of millions of Christians really disappear from the face of the earth one day at the same time? Will the deluge of cataclysmic upheavals resulting from the great tribulation happen literally? Will Jesus return to this earth and walk the streets of Jerusalem for the second time? How much time do we have left? Simplified end-time event map in chronological order. You will discover for yourself that the handwriting on the wall is unmistakable: this is the earths final moments. You will learn how to get on Christs ark of salvation and how to escape the coming judgment. As you read the pages of this book, God will speak to your heart and give you insight beyond what words can express. Your life will be radically changed.

The Return of The King (ROTK) is a detailed timeline of end-time events as prophesied in the Bible. Unlike some works of this nature, ROTK is written to a non-technical audience, providing full definitions of all theological terms used in the book. It is written by a minister of over 20 years who is accustomed to breaking complicated theological content down for its simplest digestion. ROTK is written from a premillennial perspective, which understands scripture to be literal in nature, and prophecy to be interpreted via symbols in its nature. ROTK is also written in conjunction with the ROTK Teacher's and Student's editions which can be obtained for teaching the biblical study of eschatology (end time events) in a classroom setting. For more information and excerpts from this work, visit the author's blog at www.returningking.com.

Many Bible teachers today are proclaiming that Christ will come at any moment to take the Christians to heaven, leaving the non-Christians behind to endure seven years of great tribulation. Others teach that Christ came spiritually in AD 70, when the city of Jerusalem was destroyed by the Romans. Is there any other view? Here is an older interpretation that was commonly held before those which prevail today. The first part of The Great Tribulation is a verse-by-verse commentary on Matthew 24 written in readable English. The second part of the book contains 100 articles related to the second coming of Christ and end-time events. The Great Tribulation provides insight on these questions: What does Matthew 24 really teach? Will Christ's coming be in two stages? Does Daniel teach that there will be a seven-year tribulation? Who is the antichrist, and will he appear in a rebuilt temple? What is the "abomination of desolation"? Was the kingdom of God postponed? Will there be a thousand-year period called the millennium? Will some be taken and others left behind? What is the end time? This book came through the leading of the Holy Spirit to equip the body of Christ, the Church, about the end time events. The book x-rayed the major points to know about the end time events. The devil is distracting the Church from the knowledge of the end time events. You need to know the time and the season that you are in for you to be in control (1Chronicles 12:32). The devil is seriously preparing for the end time. Also, we the children of God too need to be in tune with God concerning the end time. The he is equipped about the knowledge of the end time events. May the Lord reveal Himself to you as you read through this book.

In Search of Paul: Unleashing the Power of Legendary Mentors in Your Life

The rapture of the Church and the events of the end time is a classical teaching about the rapture which will occur after the rapture. The book tries to correct a lot of wrong teachings that has been taught by several Churches and pastors and handed over from one generation to another. It exposes in chronological order the events of the end time from the pre rapture signs discussing the different schools of thought about the pre tribulation, mid tribulation and post tribulation ideas, the manifestation of the man of lawlessness to the second coming (Parousia) of the Lord Jesus Christ, the arrest of Satan, his imprisonment, the millennium reign, the release of Satan for a short period of time till the event of the end of age. All these events are compared to the current world events and how the rapture is very close by.It is concluded with creation of the new heaven, the new earth and the new Jerusalem as three different and distinct entities. The book is based on several years of studies, research and teaching of the subject.

Stand on the shoulders of giants! Have you ever wished you could have a mentor like the Apostle Paul--someone trustworthy to guide your spiritual development and ministry? Tony Cooke, author, teacher, and student of church history, has assembled a panel of the greatest Christian spiritual leaders of all time, curating a profound, yet accessible, collection of their key thoughts and teachings. In Search of Paul shepherds you in the footsteps of spiritual giants like the Apostle Paul, Martin Luther, John Wesley, George Whitefield, Charles Haddon Spurgeon, and more. Discover... The values and priorities that create a successful life The power of living by example Timeless qualities of supernatural life and ministry Enduring wisdom on topics such as influence, delegation, discipline, prayer, evangelism, and preaching Pitfalls to avoid in life and ministry These men of God left an indelible footprint for the Kingdom of God on this world. Guided by their example, you can do the same!

Those who read this book will be blessed with a clear understanding of Revelation and end time events as well as drawn into a closer relationship with Jesus Christ and the Father. They will see clearly the great love the Father and Jesus Christ has for the saved and the lost. You will be changed and will come to understand Revelation as never before. It is my desire, you as the reader will read and be made ready to meet the Lord and have a complete understanding of Revelation as God intended.

A personal relationship with Jesus Christ and the leading of the Holy Spirit are required as first steps in understanding the Bible. God then requires that believers diligently study His Word with open hearts and minds as they seek His truth. This book is intended as a study aid in understanding Bible prophecy. Questions addressed include:How will victory over world terrorism lead to something even more horrifying? What can we deduce about the personality and cultural background of Antichrist? What part does the ancient Wailing Wall in Jerusalem play in prophecy? Why do so many people believe in a seven-year "Tribulation" when the Bible teaches that the first half of this period is a time of peace? How will religious freedom lead to the outlawing of true Christianity? Why will God allow His people to suffer at the hands of Antichrist? Why do so many people believe in the imminent return of Christ when the Bible clearly indicates that certain events must happen first? Why will most of the earth's population look to Satan as the world's hope of salvation and see Jesus Christ as the super villain of the universe?

What is the relationship between natural disasters, earthquakes, and wars, and their significance in Bible prophecy? In this series we will look at the prophecies given in Matthew 24 and other passages that speak of activities similar to what we see today. We cover topics like: What are the signs of the end times? Do recent earthquakes foreshadow the great earthquakes of Scripture? Are the numerous wars in the Middle East and around the world starting to align nations against Israel? And much more.

Bible prophecy expert Ron Rhodes offers an easy-to-understand yet detailed chronology and explanation of end-times events. The chapters are arranged around the major end-times themes: the rapture, the tribulation, the millennial kingdom, and the eternal state. Each chapter begins with a list of the specific events it covers, making this an extremely user-friendly chronological guide to end-times biblical prophecy. Rhodes allows for various interpretations among Christians. Yet the sequence he describes is faithful to the biblical text, based on a literal approach to prophecy, and held by many Bible scholars. As readers discover that they really can understand Bible prophecy, they will come to love and trust the Scriptures like never before.

This book invites you to embark on a detailed scriptural journey of the sequence and time frames of the end time events from the gathering together to the new heavens and earth with the climax of the coming of the Son of Man. You will travel through biblical prophecies that reveal what can be clearly understood.

The Bible is no small book! If clearing up some of the confusion about the Bible is on your bucket list, this Report is a shortcut and a jump start. You will gain clear understanding of what every inquiring mind should know concerning the proper Sequence of End Time Events. It also gathers critical Scriptures that present us with a clear picture of our future before and after the End of Time. It can be read in a few hours but the knowledge gained will last a lifetime. This Report was written to serve multiple purposes for both Christians and non-Christians: It is intended to be "Open for Critique" on whether the Prophecies given us in the Bible are the truth. Regardless of your faith or lack thereof, this Report is an introduction into the mind of the God of the Bible awaiting your validation or rejection. It is designed to advise non-Christians about their right to exercise "free-will" to make a decision about what is the truth. It provides them with insight into the real reasons for God's judgment upon the world. Those who claim the Bible is riddled with errors will be able to determine whether it is error in Scripture or error in interpretation.

This Report summarizes for you our Creator God's plan for all humanity with no exceptions! Regardless of where you are coming from in faith today, you will come to fully understand this God's judgment upon nonbelievers and His reasons why. You will see what will be given up and you will clearly understand why the God of the Bible must separate Himself from those who ignore or reject Him. For non-Christians, you will have a clear-cut tangible and logical understanding of the God of the Bible to compare to your own religious ideology. This is what the God of the Bible intended for us - to make our own choices, and your choices have lasting eternal effects.

The Book of Revelation is a record (unveiling) of events which were shown to the Apostle John by Jesus Christ. The revelation given to John spanned a period of time from approximately 93 AD until a new heaven and new earth is put into place after the Tribulation Period. Perhaps the greatest problem in properly understanding and interpreting the Revelation Record is that the Book of Revelation is not written in a time-sequenced, chronological narrative. General descriptions of things to come are presented and then later followed by details. In addition, parenthetical passages are inserted to describe or clarify main events. While the Book of Revelation is not presented in a chronological sequence, it is clearly divided into three main divisions: (1) Things which thou (John) hast seen, (2) Things which are (7 letters to 7 churches in Asia Minor and visions of God's Throne) and (3) Things which must be hereafter (The tribulation period, the 1000 year milliennial kingdom and New Heavens and New Earth). This book arranges all 22 chapters, 404 verses and 12,000 words in the order in which they occur, with descriptive narratives and cross-references to

"The Book of Revelation: Mysteries Revealed" by Don T. Phillips.

With more than thirty books to his credit, Dr. John Walvoord has been hailed as the world's foremost authority on Bible prophecy and coming world events. In his lifelong study of the Bible, Walvoord has deciphered the puzzling language of prophecy and helped millions of people to understand end times teachings. By examining all of the prophetic passages in the Bible as they relate to contemporary events, Walvoord shows how God's prophecy will be as reliable in the future as it has been in the past.

End Time Events and the Last Generation

The Explosive 1950s

It has been a great concern to mankind, especially Christians, to know the events that mark the end-time. This curiosity was sparked by ancient writings and prophecies that spoke of a time when this present world we live in would come to an end. As unpleasant as it seems, because of the beautiful memories we've gathered in this age, it is certain to happen.Major religions on earth hold the same belief that this world will one day come to an end. The Christian faith is not silent on this reality. We are, in every sense, major proponents of this event; especially, because it concerns our citizenship which is not earthly - God's Kingdom.In this book, I will be explaining details regarding end-time events as prophesied by Jesus Christ. It will be helpful in preparing your heart in faith as you watch biblical prophecies unfold.

The final book of the Bible, Revelation prophesies the ultimate judgement of mankind in a series of allegorical visions, grisly images and numerical predictions. According to these, empires will fall, the "Beast" will be destroyed and Christ will rule a new Jerusalem. With an introduction by Will Self.

Biblical Prophecy and its relevance to our world!Are we living in the End Time? Is the result of over thirty years of intense research and study of the Bible and undergraduate work in theological studies. It also draws on secular histories, world news, and current affairs analysis in the light of Bibl prophecy through the years. The Word of God is the foundation of all knowledge, understanding, and hope. It is a guide to living and provides a worldview that will become our future reality. Many societal trends and world events predicted to arise are taking form and shape today.The objective research and writing style has evolved from a broadcast television news journalism background and achieving a masters degree in international management.This book contains thorough research and documentation, both secular and Biblical, to support its major tenants.

THE LAST GENERATION is a well-documented overview and resource manual that shows how current and historical events have unfolded, consistent with biblical prophecy, logically revealing how and why we are in our last days. We are not looking at a day, an hour, or a year, but a generation the last generation, which began with the birth of Israel in 1948. According to Matthew 24:34, this generation will not pass away until all these things take place. Addressed are the final pieces of the prophetic puzzle that have been falling into place at an unprecedented pace since that time. The depiction of the Doomsday Clock on the front cover with midnight as doomsday represents the consensus of the Bulletin of Atomic Scientists. With a newspaper in one hand and a Bible in the other, it is easy to see God's Word being fulfilled in this generation as current events coincide with prophecies made over 2,500 years ago.

Prophecy & End Time Events

God's Prophetic Plan for the Ages is Unlocked in the Revelation! In the final book of the Bible, God reveals the future. Yet we are often unsure about what keys unlock this Revelation to mankind. Bible teacher, Bob Kollin, takes the reader through the door of understanding and addresses key questions such as... What is the purpose for the Rapture? . How can we identify the Antichrist? . What will the Tribulation be like? . What is the Day of the Lord? . Where will Armageddon take place? . What will happen during the Millennium? . Will the human race survive eternity?

Since the beginning, Seventh-day Adventists have developed a high interest in Bible prophecy. In addition to studying end-time events, early Seventh-day Adventists also focused on studying and teaching distinguished doctrines such as the Second Coming, the sanctuary, the state of the dead, the three angels' messages, the Sabbath, and the Ten Commandments. Only after the 1888 Minneapolis General Conference did Seventh-day Adventists start to give attention to the important truth of righteousness by faith. This very teaching, which almost split the church in 1888, has been a reason for debate and Adventist controversy. This book was written because understanding righteousness by faith and the end-time events are essential for every believer. Pastor Leonard Tolhurst devotes several chapters to clearly outline what righteousness by faith is and what it is not. He also addresses some difficult topics that will come upon the people of God at the beginning of the day of the Lord shall not be the same as the affliction that came upon her when Jesus came the first time. The end of the age of grace will not be as dark as the end of the age of the law because the (Gentile) people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; those that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them has the light shined. Yes, it's true that great apostasy has engulfed much of Western Europe and seems to be making quite a bit of headway in North America. But what about places (to name a few) such as China, Iran, Egypt, Venezuela, Cuba, Brazil, Colombia, Africa, and even India, where the gospel is surging? Most of the end-time harvest is taking place under great adversity and persecution. So, for now it can be said, As thou hast multiplied the nation [the people of God], thou hast not increased the joy. But the day of the Lord will be the biggest game-changer ever seen in human history. For those among the people of God who have clean hearts when Jesus returns, they shall rejoice before then as they rejoice in the harvest and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil, even as all the kingdoms of this world crumble and come down. The vision of Isaiah is a prophetic hub placed in the middle of the Scriptures with ties to almost every book in the Bible (most are footnoted in this work). There are living parables of events that actually happened during the lifetime of Isaiah, prophecies regarding Judah and Jerusalem with both a near and a far fulfillment, all interwoven with messianic prophecy depicting events surrounding the first and second comings of Jesus Christ, the final judgment, and the new creation with new heavens and a new earth. A central theme of Isaiah relates to the day of the LORD (as does the book of Revelation). We know there is a special blessing on the seventh day (Genesis 2:3). Scripture also defines what some call a "prophetic day" mentioned in both the unique Psalm attributed to Moses: For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past and as a watch in the night (Psalm 90:4), and by Simon Peter: But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day before the Lord is as a thousand years, and a thousand years are as one day (2 Peter 3:8). Human history has now entered into the beginning of the seventh millennium since the creation of Adam, according to the years and generations meticulously recorded in Scripture. There is, however, the possibility of two distinct timelines – one dating from the creation of Adam and the other dating from the fall of man when the present world system founded on lies devised by Satan began. Scripture does not specify exactly when the curse was pronounced, and Adam and Eve were expelled from the Garden of Eden. The original world created by God (and founded on truth) was pronounced "very good." It's clear, however, that Satan subverted the authority God had placed on Adam, and this sorry situation will not be corrected until the day of the Lord (the seventh millennium). We now appear to be in an ambiguous period in which it's clear (no matter what relatively minor discrepancies there may be in our calendar) that more than six thousand years have passed since the creation of Adam. However, it does not appear that six thousand years have gone by since the fall of man. If the seventh prophetic day begins with the demise of Satan and the promise he will be bound for a thousand years, the first resurrection of those who will reign and rule with Christ for a thousand years, and the return of Jesus Christ, then it's also clear that the prophesied day of the Lord has not yet begun – although it may be very close. This is when religion that has been contaminated by man (by humanism) and manipulated by the devil will all come down. The pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their tribulation and to keep thyself unspotted by the world (James 1:27). As we enter the end-time events described by Isaiah, it's good to keep in mind that there is a substantial godly remnant containing true ministers (servants) of God who, like Isaiah, have been cleansed by the fire of God and commissioned from the throne, and who have authority to represent God according to his will. They desire to see the people entrusted to their care joined to the Lord Jesus, so that all of God's people may have intimate communion with him and with the Father, by the Holy Spirit. This is the only covering that will provide secure protection. How much time do we have left? I think we probably do have a little time, but not a lot. The world situation around us is not improving. It is, in fact, degenerating rapidly (even though some countries are experiencing spiritual revival). We can expect things to continue to polarize as the bride of Christ is cleansed and purified and as Babylon the Great continues to degenerate. The evil in the world will soon pass a threshold that will trigger the indignation and wrath of God the Father, and Jesus will soon return for a bride without spot or wrinkle or any such thing. These two things seem to happen in very close succession on the day of the Lord. There are other prophetic markers that may bear watching. The two thousandth anniversaries of the beginning of the ministry of Jesus, of his death and resurrection, of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost, and of the destruction of Jerusalem and the temple are all coming up within what many of us can expect to be our lifetime. Even if the coming of the Lord should be delayed (so that more people can be given the opportunity to be saved), we are told to always be ready. None of us knows when our own death will take place and when we could be suddenly thrust into the presence of God. Russell M. Stensel December 17, 2020 Bogotá, Colombia
