Salado is an enigma
of the past. One of

Acces PDF Fet
Examination

the most spectacular
cultures of the ancient Southwest,
its brilliant
polychrome pottery
has been subjected to varied
interpretations, from religious cult to artistic horizon.
Stephen Lekson now
uses data from two

Acces PDF Fet
Examination

Salado sitesÑa large pueblo and a small farmsteadÑto clarify long-standing misconceptions about this culture. By combining analysis of the large whole-vessel collection at Dutch Ruin with the scientific excavation of Villareal II, a picture of Salado emerges that enables Lekson to evaluate previous competing theories and propose that Salado represents a major fourteenth-century migration of Pueblo peoples into the Chihuahuan deserts. Lekson demonstrates

Acces PDF Fet
Examination
Papers N6

Acces PDF Fet
Examination
Papers N6

that late, short-lived Salado farmsteadsÑ difficult to identify archaeologically in areas with larger Mimbres concentrationsÑ coexisted with larger Salado towns, and he argues that Salado in the Upper Gila region appears as a substantial in-migration of Mogollon Uplands

populations into what was a vacant
river valley.

Throughout the
fourteenth century,
Salado communities
in the Upper Gila
were integrated into the larger Salado horizon and were closely connected to Casas Grandes, as indicated by the export of serpentine to the city of PaquimŹ and the occurrence of Casas Grandes pottery at Upper Gila Salado sites. The book includes illustrations of 71 vessels from Dutch Ruin plus a full-color frontispiece.

Through analysis of these two sites,

Lekson has taken a
large step toward clearing up the mystery of Salado.

His work will be
