Somethin' 'bout Love

The Evolution of Gospel Music

This is a story about a man that has dreams . . . lives that dream, meets his dream, and is blessed with a dream. He is in a place that he has always dreamed of--the lights, the recognition, and the stardom . . . everything that he has always wanted. He had the money, the fame, the cars, and the attention of every woman that crossed his path. All this and still unhappy . . . What's the problem? Could God be trying to tell him something more, and is he willing to listen? One night, while performing, he meets a woman--a woman that would help shape the course of his life, a woman that had him from the very moment he laid eyes on her. He never imagined that, from that very moment, he would have to make choices that would change his life forever.

Educational Leadership and Music

Dance Into Destiny

Speak Those Things: Pol

In this book we considered new territory for educational leadership by looking to music for lessons and inspiration that may inform the next generation of schools leaders. Each chapter focuses on an artist or group whose work serves to refine, extend, and challenge our thinking in regards to educational leadership. You will find a vast array of musical forms of expression analyzed and described by an equally diverse collection of educational leadership scholars and practitioners. There may be some who question the academic appropriateness or relevance of a text such as this one. Our response is that part of our ongoing mission should be to break ourselves out of academic silos and forge meaningful connections between seemingly disparate disciplines. Furthermore, educational leadership stands to gain more by drawing from the arts and specifically musical influences. Finally, music is an obvious part of most of our lives; why not explore the ways in which it impacts us on an academic level and not just a personal level? In sum, we ask that as you read the chapters of this book, you reflect on your own musical tastes and favorite artists.
