Three kids have everything they need to solve the decades-old mystery of Idlewood Manor, in this middle grade novel full of real ciphers, puzzles, riddles, and codes that Kirkus Reviews calls "a worthy call to unravel a mystery." Idlewood Manor has been uninhabited for decades, until now . . . Math whiz Charlie won admission in a puzzle contest—and he's intrigued by the strange numbers he finds on Idlewood's walls. His restless sister Anna had to be dragged to the house—but then she discovers its hidden floor. Emily's parents brought her to the mansion on a secret mission—and she's determined to prove herself to them. All three kids soon unlock clues to Idlewood's mysterious past and the famous female explorer who's connected to it—and the secret treasure she left behind. But the adults around them are also hunting for the treasure. Charlie, Anna, and Emily will have to overcome their differences and work as a team to solve Idlewood's puzzles before it's too late, in Allison K. Hymas's The Explorer's Code. An Imprint Book

Readers trace their path through 22 mazes inspired by the great explorations of the last 400 years. Readers travel where few have been before, into tombs, through underground caves, and through an ancient Mayan temple, as well as across a rock-strewn moonscape and to the deep-sea treasures of the sunken Titanic. Explorers endured hunger, disease and danger--readers simply live the adventure. 47 illustrations.

*part in some of the most daring, courageous escapes of the twentieth century. You will need to muster your determination, keep your wits about you, and focus on small details in order to complete more than 20 challenging mazes. Forget the boring labyrinths of puzzle books and cereal boxes, these intricate adventures are drawn with striking detail and are all based on historic events. Put yourself in these death-defying situations: * Find your way off the sinking Titanic onto the iceberg. * Descend ropes to escape the burning Hindenburg. * Find a clear tunnel passage to help Allied soldiers break out of the German prisoner-of-war camp Stalag Luft III. * Help the Dalai Lama avoid capture by Chinese communist troops. * Guide the crew of the Apollo 13 moon mission back to earth. * Determine whether it was possible to escape from the prison on Alcatraz Island in San Francisco Bay. As you wend your way from disaster and doom to safety and freedom, you will learn what the real people faced with these situations had to overcome, from rocky terrain, strong ocean currents, and the forces of nature to invading armies, impenetrable fences, and exploding torpedoes. Of course, unlike the historic adventurers, you will have the solutions to the mazes at your fingertips at the back of the book. 64 pages, 58 b/w illus., 8 1/4 x 11.*

“Adkins’s insightful assessments are right on the mark . . . The historical references and insider’s tips made me want to pack my luggage immediately.”—Connie Yingling, Maryland Office of Tourism Development Maryland offers an abundance of natural and cultural riches. Limitless exploration and entertainment opportunities await travelers and residents alike, and this thoroughly revised edition of Explorer’s Guide Maryland is the perfect companion for every excursion. The best restaurants, places to stay, and activities for every budget and interest are laid out in an easy-to-navigate guide as useful on the bookshelf as it is in the glove compartment. Descriptions and listings cover the whole state, including the quiet Eastern Shore; picturesque, historic Annapolis; the heart of downtown Baltimore; the many historical sites dotting the southern region; and the scenic northwestern mountains. Detailed maps and a “What’s Where” subject guide will aid in travel planning. Author Leonard Adkins spent months traveling to research hundreds of inns, B&Bs, vacation cottages, museums, historic sites, special shops, fishing areas, and much more. Want to know where to find the quintessential crab feast? The finest five-star restaurant? All the Maryland reviews and recommendations you’ll ever need are right here. Features include: hundreds of dining and lodging reviews, from soft-shell crabs to four-star cuisine; opinionated listings of inns, B&Bs, hotels, and vacation cottages; up-to-date regional and downtown maps; an alphabetical "what's where" guide for trip planning; handy icons pointing out places that offer best value, cater to families, welcome pets, and provide handicapped access; calendar guides to annual events and celebrations.

The world's greatest explorers need your help through these amazing mazes! Marco Polo wants you to scout a path along the Great Wall of China, climbing up and down ladders and through tower openings to reach the camp of the famous conqueror Kubla Khan. Christopher Columbus needs you to plot a route across the unknown Atlantic to the New World. Coronado appoints you to lead the search for gold in a maze of abandoned cliff dwellings. Henry Hudson hopes you can discover a river route that connects the Atlantic and Pacific oceans. Captain Cook wants you to navigate his ship around the dangerous Cape Horn to find an ocean route from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Trace your path through all 22 mazes inspired by the great explorations of the last 400 years. You'll travel where few have been before, into snake-infested tombs, through terrifying underground caves, and through an ancient Mayan temple, as well as across a rock-strewn moonscape and to the deep-sea treasures of the sunken Titanic. Most of these adventures required the explorers to stay away from home for years and endure hunger, disease, and danger, not knowing if the end of their journey offered immortal fame or death in obscurity. Fortunately, your treks take only a pencil (or better, a marker, so you can repeat your journeys). And they take only a few hours or less to complete.
