Water-loving goslings Ruby and Rufus play at the pond every day, no matter what the weather is.

For the over-scheduled generation, the illustrator of the popular BabyLit books explores the joy found in wildness, following in the footsteps of beloved bestsellers The Night Gardener and Mr. Tiger Goes Wild. Like many children, Moon leads a busy life. School, homework, music lessons, sports, and the next day it begins again. She wonders if things could be different. Then, one night, she meets a wolf. The wolf takes Moon deep into the dark, fantastical forest and there she learns to howl, how to hide, how to be still, and how to be wild. And in that, she learns what it's like to be free. This simply worded and stunningly illustrated story reveals the joy to be found in play, nature, and, most of all, embracing the wild in us all.

This gorgeous picture book is based on the inspirational story of Lemon the Pekin duck (as seen on MSNBC in TIME for Kids), who was born in an elementary school classroom. Neurological issues make Lemon unable to walk, but with the support of a compassionate teacher and her students, Lemon is still able to become one happy duck! In the story, Ms. Lake's class conducts an egg-hatching project in school. On the big day, welcome four little ducklings into the world. The students soon realize that the soft yellow one they named Lemon looks like a duck, quacks like a duck, but can't stand up or walk like a duck. They worry that Lemon won't be happy if she can't do all the things ducks love to do, so they work together to help Lemon thrive. Through caring for Lemon, the students learn that acceptance, love, and extra special care can go a long way. They also come to understand that her difference doesn't make Lemon any less special. To learn more about Lemon.

Brilliantly funny, Merry Christmas, Gus will appeal to everyone who loves Christmas . . . and to all those Scrooges who don't!
