

He That Hath Dag Heward Mills Podcast

These warnings by Jesus Christ have not deterred the millions who simply respond to His awesome love. Millions love Jesus Christ in spite of the difficult conditions that He has set for following Him. Somehow, knowing the living God and His Son Jesus Christ is more than enough compensation for any difficulties we must experience. Don't listen to anyone who claims that following Jesus is all about getting blessed, rich and successful. That is not Christianity. Christianity is about losing, sacrificing, suffering and dying. Jesus Christ reveals the shocking principle that governs prosperity and wealth. He that hath shall have more! How unfair it sounds! And yet, that is the reality that is played out in front of us every day. This book seeks to explain this little understood Scripture. You will receive great insights into the mysteries of prosperity as you study this new book by Dag Heward-Mills.

Most people are conscious about the "big four" sins: lying, stealing, fornication and murder. If you were to ask people for a list of sins they are not likely to mention the sin of forgetting. But God's Word is clear on the subject. Forgetting is unrighteousness! To forget, to fail to acknowledge, to fail to remember are sins before God. Find out more in this latest addition to the Loyalty and Disloyalty series by Dag Heward-Mills.

Most people spend many hours working with just one aim – to be rich! Unfortunately, riches elude many people as they vehemently seek riches. Why? because they want to be rich but this there is a higher purpose, other than riches, why God wants you to labour. This book seeks to explain the things the Bible says you must give your life to. Instead of merely labouring to be rich, you will learn to labour for higher things! Receive a new vision to be a blessing to others as you study this new and absorbing book by Dag Heward-Mills! Some are born leaders. Some develop into leaders. In this classic book, Bishop Dag Heward-Mills teaches on how this ingredient of loyalty consolidates a leader's performance.

John 10:1 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. Jesus describes a thief as one who does not use the door but climbs up some other way. Already, we know the devil comes as a thief and his aim is to steal, kill and destroy. (John 10:10). This book shows the way in which the enemy comes. It reveals the friendly enemy who knocks on your door, come in to your life to steal, kill and destroy. You would identify the enemy and all his evil strategies in this book. If all friends were really friends there wouldn't be betrayal and disloyalty. Walk gently through this book and receive the wisdom of God against friendly enemies in your life.

For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath. –Mark 4:25 "What a seemingly unfair Scripture! Why should those who have money be the ones to get even more money? Why should those who have little be the ones to lose even what they have? Why is it that in real life, it is those who have, who get even more? Why is it that things are the exact opposite of what we expect? – Even though this Scripture sounds unfair, it is true for two reasons. It is true because Jesus said it. Heaven and earth will pass away but His words will not pass away (Matthew 24:35). The words of Jesus are the most powerful words ever spoken." So opens this book which examines one of the most heartfelt cries of the human heart: why is that fair? In this work Dag Heward-Mills, founder of a charismatic denomination with now well over a thousand planted churches worldwide, illuminates the Biblical truths that bear up what Christ declared and helps us overcome the perceived unfairness of the concept. This profound statement "one of you is a devil" was made by Jesus Christ to His little group of twelve disciples. Many of us are maltreated by the devil because we do not know how to unveil him or identify his handiwork. In this blessed book, you will discover the devil's sins and resolve never to walk in them. May the phrase "one of you is a devil" never apply to you!

Though a primary requirement of God for leaders, very little has been written on this subject. In this book, Dag Heward-Mills outlines very important principles with the intention of increasing the stability of churches. So relevant and practical is the content of this book that it has become an indispensable tool for many church leaders.

The Bible speaks of many types of blood: the blood of goats, the blood of sheep, the blood of pigeons! The Bible also speaks very categorically that without the shedding of blood there is no remission of sins. So can any one of these different types of blood take away our sins? The answer is an emphatic "No!" So what can wash away our sins? Nothing, but the blood of Jesus! Only the blood of Jesus.
