

Hello Ocean Friends A High Contrast Book

Hello, sun. Good to see you, puppy. What's going on, butterfly? Hello, My World... Making connections between images on a page and the real world is an important building block for your baby’s communication skills—and this charming introduction to simple objects found around a baby's world, paired with friendly text and bold, basic patterns, provides an important high-contrast experience for young developing eyes. Using simple greetings like “Bonjour, flowers,” “What’s up, clouds?”, and “Hola, baby” alongside lovely black-and-white art by Jennie Ho (illustrator of TummyTime: Animal Parade), Hello, My World is the perfect board book for babies just beginning to look around and learn about their world. Also available: Hello, Baby Animals; Hello, Ocean Friends; and Hello, Garden Bugs.

One day, Red Bunny meets Yellow Bunny. They fall in love and have a cute little baby. What color will that baby be? And when that bunny has babies, what colors will they be? The high-contrast words and shapes are perfect for the youngest eyes and the fun story will keep kids engaged. This sweet board book is a great introduction to colors and the concept of diversity. Praise for Claire Garralon: “Little readers will adore the clean-cut illustrations and sharply contrasted compositions that burst with color at the book’s end. And who can’t love these little guys? They are adorable as they romp and play.”—Kirkus on Black Cat & White Cat

Groomed for a place at a Big Name School since their obsessed, status-conscious helicopter parents passed out cigars at the Stockstill General Hospital Neonatal Unit, the privileged students of Pembrocton College Preparatory are ratcheting up the stakes in the race to get into the nation’s most prestigious colleges.The PCP juniors are gloating, jubilant at the rumor that the valedictorian presumptive has received a B on her report card, a grade that will relegate her to in-state hell. Her heir apparent, a three-generation Yale legacy, is the sole mourner at the demise of her future—if only because her thoughtless academic lapse is going to derail his plans to attend MIT.Across town, in the graffiti-covered halls of Stockstill High School, the students slink to class, praying that they arrive without a knife wound—and dream of ivy-covered walls. And with the help of a take-no-prisoners principal and an enterprising parent, the students at SHS dare to encroach shamelessly on territory normally reserved for their wealthy private school rivals.?Join the fray as a memorable cast of characters engages in the latest rage in extracurricular activities: college admissions as a blood sport. ??Laugh out loud funny, The Applicants lampoons the heights we scale—and the depths to which we sink—to get into the “right” college. ?

(black & white) After swimming with wild dolphins, Adena Tryon began receiving messages from angelic dolphin beings called Stella Maris (Starlights of the Sea). This book shares their light messages, dolphin wisdom, the medicine of the divine feminine, and healing blessings for humanity.Stella Maris first speaks as a collective. They explain the concept of Starseeds and speak of the Stella Maris High Council, which also includes Mother Mary, Quan Yin, and Queen A Mara. Then, individual Stella Maris members share light messages, healing activations, and scrolls of affirmations. The book concludes with a Beauty Way invocation. Visionary art from Florencia Burton synchronizes with the words of Stella Maris, creating a truly transformative experience.

Ella is a naughty, fun-loving little girl - a little misunderstood by all, apart from her best friend. "My friend Ella," about loving and accepting ourselves for who we really are, is Angela Garry's first storybook for small children.

Making connections between images on a page and the real world is an important building block for your baby's communication skills—and this charming introduction to ten baby animals, paired with a friendly text, and bold basic patterns, provide a great high-contrast experience for young developing eyes. The perfect follow up to Hello, Ocean Friends.

At bedtime, a parent explains how animals, like humans, care for their young children and help them grow and thrive. On board pages,

Ghent-Fuller offers insights into emotional reactions and practical suggestions based on deep understanding of the way people with dementia view many situations. She explains the loss of various types of memory and other thinking processes, and describes how these losses affect the day to day life of people with dementia, their understanding of the world around them and their personal situations.

A Baseball Odyssey

"Me and E: A Baseball Odyssey is a reflection on parenting a highly skilled, nationally-ranked and difficult baseball prodigy, told through the author's eyes as he witnessed and participated in the successes and failures of his son playing baseball and growing up in Central Florida. It deals with the changing world of competitive youth sports, over-involved parents, fanatical coaches, the hypocrisies inherent in high school athletics, the college recruiting process and how we teach our kids to grow up and become decent human beings - despite ourselves. It involves well-known sports figures as well as local sports icons with traits and characteristics that everyone will recognize. It's a book about flawed parenting, about living vicariously through a gifted child and learning, finally, that being a good father is as much about letting go as it is about being there. Call it Moneyball meets Everything I Know I Learned in Kindergarten.

How many dinosaurs can your child name? Not that it's going to be graded or anything but such knowledge can contribute to your child's self-confidence. In the same way, this coloring book can improve self-esteem because it provides immediate satisfaction. There are other benefits to coloring. Discover all of them by making coloring a habit!

Every new parent purchases at least one high-contrast board book, and this one, with its bold, more abstract art, stands out from the crowd. Featuring graphic images that are perfect for infants, parents and babies will love exploring this book together. Infants can distinguish the colors black and white because of their high contrast. But what is the next color infants see? Red! The images in this book have been created based on decades of research and refinement and are accompanied by bouncy, rhyming text.

The Bo Bo says "Hello!" book series are truly enchanting books for young children, combining education with fun, sharing and kindness. The main character is Bo Bo, who is a blue and yellow teddy bear. He has three main friends, they all live in brightly coloured beach huts on the beach. Bo Bo lives in number 1, which is red. Next door lives Bella Bunny, a little blue bunny, who is very neat and tidy and is always wearing her little frilly apron. Her beach hut is blue and is number 2. Then there is Basil Bear, a green teddy bear, who lives in a green beach hut, number 3. He loves growing vegetables and flowers. Then there is Molly the Dolly, a cute ragdoll. She lives in number 4 which is pink, she likes home cooking. The ideas for the books are from childhood memories, cuddly toys my sisters and I had when we were young and the fun we had playing with them and taking them on holiday with us. Bo Bo was a teddy bear my younger sister had when she was two for Christmas - he was bigger than her. The first thing she said when she opened him Christmas morning was "Bo Bo!" She still has him to this day, he is now 46 years old! And is loved and cherished by her own children. The books contain traditional values, for example, growing fresh healthy food, home cooking, keeping clean and exercising, but also having fun and discovering new things. The books were a joy to write and will inspire any young child who is introduced to them.

Introducing SmartContrast Montessori Cards: Hello, Animals, a box set of 20 large-size high-contrast art cards perfect for your child's development. Studies show that babies see high-contrast shapes and patterns from the very first days of life, and our large (6" x 8"), contrasting art cards will aid your baby in the development of visual-spatial skills and in recognizing new objects. Featuring: 20 double-sided high-contrast cards Based on the principles developed by the educator Dr. Maria Montessori Guide for parents included Great quality and baby safe Printed with eco ink on sturdy, 100% recycled card stock Round corners for extra safety A great baby shower gift Focusing on contrasting images has a positive impact on developing brains, and since infants learn shapes and colors gradually, our art cards are designed for three levels of development so parents can use them at their baby's own pace. Our stage one cards present babies with black-and-white animals and patterns that are perfect for newborns up to 6 months. After black and white, babies 6 to 12 months old begin to recognize yellow and red, and the cards in stage two feature these colors to help babies focus on their new discoveries. And finally, older babies 12 to 16 months can recognize blue, orange, and green, and these colors are featured in the animals, plants, and objects in the cards in stage three that will get babies ready to continue their natural development. Our SmartContrast Montessori Cards: Hello, Animals have been developed by the same creative team and artists behind our best-selling series of high-contrast books: Hello, Baby Animals; Hello, Garden Bugs; Hello, Ocean Friends; and Hello, My World, which have more than 180,000 copies in print and thousands of five-star reviews by parents who purchased online and in brick-and-mortar stores.

Just Keep Rowing is a self-empowerment book written by Katie and co-author, Mark Bowles, with 70 life lessons that paralleled the number of days Katie spent alone at sea rowing across the Atlantic Ocean. The book is a personal conversation between you and Katie. During her journey she learned many vital life lessons from the Atlantic. As she found out, an ocean is a great teacher of the meaning of life. Katie became its student, sometimes reluctantly but of ten enthusiastically, and she wants to communicate these lessons because she believes they can be valuable for everyone. From students to business executives, and to people just wanting to find new ways to live life to the fullest, these lessons from the Atlantic will help you see the world from a new perspective.

A high-contrast book to improve focus

Based on decades of research and refinement, the art in this high-contrast board book is completely mesmerizing for newborns—helping them to focus. Babies as young as six weeks old can appreciate the bold shapes and colors in BABY LOOKS! and will benefit from hearing a parent's voice, and the bonding that naturally occurs when a loving adult reads to a baby. Receptive language skills develop right from the start, as babies soak in everything they hear, and eventually learn to associate particular sounds with familiar people and things. Hundreds of thousands of parents in Japan have already discovered the power of this little book, and now American parents can too!

Bond with baby with the picture book created for their developing vision Newborn and very young babies have only limited vision. But they are able to see bold shapes, particularly in strongly contrasting colors. They also love looking at faces. Show them the carefully designed images in the High Contrast Baby Book and you will notice they start to react and respond. They often develop a favorite page or shape. This paperback book is filled with engaging patterns, shapes as well as images of faces, animals, plants and much more. Create a life-long love for books, learning and exploration with High Contrast Baby Book. 6" x 9" paperback - perfect versatile size for home or travel. 26 unique images. High-quality white paper - 60gm. Thick softback cover.

Tummy time is important for babies' physical development. It builds strength in their necks and upper bodies, eventually enabling them to roll over, sit, and crawl. Keep their brains busy too with this two-sided panorama of images designed to attract and keep their attention from birth to 12 months.

When young Ricardo leaves the Brazilian town of Recife on an important mission, and sets sail on MV Castle to Ecuador, little does the crew on board know what the journey has in store for them. In a shocking turn of events, the Castle disappears with the Master on board, Captain Rajan Murthy, while the crew is sent back home. Has the ship been hijacked, stolen or simply gone down in the high seas? Inspector Jose Carlos sets out with his international team of ace sleuths to get to the bottom of the Castle's disappearance. As the plot unravels between Rio, Rizhao, Curacao and Montserrat, the International Marine and the UN Security Council prepare for an eventuality beyond their imagination - a page-turner!

The prayers of 6-year old Amy to her very best friend, God. God really is Amy's best friend and she treats Him that way. She brings Him a cupcake for his birthday, helps Him out with His problems, asks to become His assistant, and even takes objection to the creation. Why is fun so important? Because it is an avenue to God that is so very, very natural to small children. It gives small children (age 3-6) spirituality with a smile, a great big smile through the practice of nighttime prayer. "Amy's Best Friend, Prayers of a Child" comprises a personal introduction from Amy followed by 14 illustrated prayers, and finally special pages to record a child's own prayers. The book is non-denominational. "Amy's Best Friend" is accompanied by two fun books to support your child's practice of prayer. First, there is a coloring book giving your child hours of fun coloring in the same prayers you have read to him/her. Second, after all the pages at the end of "Amy's Best Friend, Prayers Of A Child" have been been filled with your child's own prayers, a prayer journal is available under the name "Amy's Best Friend, Prayers of A Child: My Prayers." All books plus the Kindle ebook are available from my authors page: <http://www.amazon.com/author/amyamos>.

It's right! Even babies can do an artwork with colors! Get this A Day at the Zoo with Animal Friends coloring book for your babies and toddlers alike to know what I'm saying. Dive into this playful poem about the draw of the shore and the effect the ocean has on all five senses. Relive a day at the beach with this lovely book of memories. You can almost feel the salt spray on your face and smell the musky scent of ocean in the cool morning air. Remember how the sand squishes between your toes as the tide rushes to shore and taste the tang of the ocean on your lips. Spirited language evokes a sense of closeness and nostalgia for an old friend. The inspiration of the ocean will make learning the five senses as easy as a day at the beach. Crisp, realistic illustrations fill the pages with the rush of surf and the warmth of sun-baked sand. The sights and smells and sensations of the sea become vividly clear in these beautifully rendered paintings.

Living Beyond the Waves is a poetry collection unlike any other It contains poems that are part memoir and part journey towards acceptance. They are Wolf's attempt to find a life beyond disease or disability. The poems contained within deal with Wolf accepting all part of himself, even those he has no control over. They are a testament to the strength of the human spirit. The poems show us that whatever life throws at us, with courage anything is possible. With unflinching honesty, Wolf talks about disease, sexuality, physical disability and the healing power of love.

Do you remember your mother telling you when you were little that you'd never meet Mr. Right if you were spending all your time and energy with Mr. Wrong? And what about the book out a few years ago that created such a hoopla with the single crowd – He's Just Not That Into You? The two main characters in Winter Interlude either didn't heed their mother's advice or haven't read the book.

Now, add into the plot that the two in question are enemies who regularly run into each other, given their current relationships. Paul Morrison, a hunky, blond, financial planner, has been putting time and energy into winning the heart of Kate Winter's best friend for almost as long as Kate, a strong willed antiques dealer, has been dating James Morrison, Paul's brother. The sparks start to fly when the two get stuck together for a three-hour drive to the mountains and years of misconceptions about each other are slowly being wiped out. It is in the confines of the BMW that the two begin their journey, taking them from being mortal enemies to lovers. Winter Interlude tells the story of their adventure – of how they finally find love. Kate and Paul's story is the first one in a series of four friends caught in a time warp. They can't move on because they are stuck on their idea of their perfect dreams. But sometimes life works in mysterious ways and they are all forced by circumstances to change.Show More Show Less
