The Historic U.S. Documents Cursive Handwriting Series will introduce students to the text of some of the most important documents in United States history. Teachers and parents can introduce historic documents in conjunction with the cursive handwriting workbooks during social studies and history lessons. Before using the Cursive Handwriting Copybook: U.S. Historic Documents, students should be able to understand the difference between capital and lowercase cursive letters. To use this workbook successfully students should have already learned to write individual upper and lowercase cursive letters and be ready to move on to copying cursive text without tracing. Practicing cursive handwriting on a daily basis will expand a student's understanding for the concepts of written language. When cursive handwriting is practiced daily, spacing between words becomes more consistent. Teachers and parents can use the Cursive Handwriting Copybook: Historic U.S. Documents to utilize hand-over-hand guidance techniques that will help students make correct cursive letter strokes. Guided lines have been provided in this handwriting copybook to quickly teach correct cursive letter formation and word spacing. Cursive handwriting practice doesn't have to take place on paper only. Everyday objects can be used to help students create cursive letters. Students should be encouraged to write cursive letters in the air, sand, clay, shaving cream, etc. to make learning cursive fun. There are no cursive tracing letters in this workbook. It is for Level 2 writers who can recognize upper and lowercase cursive letters and are beginning to write in cursive on their own without tracing. Why is this cursive handwriting workbook an important addition to your student's curriculum? A 2013 New York Times article states that, "Learning to write in cursive is shown to improve brain development in the areas of thinking, language and working memory. Cursive handwriting stimulates brain synapses and synchronicity between the left and right hemispheres, something absent from printing and typing. As a result, the physical act of writing in cursive leads to increased comprehension and participation. The College Board found that students who wrote in cursive for the essay portion of the SAT scored slightly higher than those who printed." This handwriting book is perfect for improving cursive penmanship. The Cursive Handwriting Copybook is a great resource for the homeschool classroom as well as public and private kindergarten, 1st grade, and 2nd grade classrooms. It's a great companion to printed alphabet handwriting programs such as Zaner-Bloser and Kumon. It's superior to one-page online cursive penmanship worksheets because it gives students a chance to get used to using the workbook format-the same type used in classrooms.

As you are reading this, you are obviously interested in how Marketing actually works and what is actually effective. You already have been through the wringer with all these online marketers who use the same copy-paste template of a sales page, with mailing lists which send you unwanted traffic several times a week and insist that you are stupid enough to believe their hype, over and over and over. The Masters of Marketing Secrets series brings you these classics so that you can make up your own mind. All that has been done with these books is to give you modern versions of them which have been (mostly) cleaned up of typo's and poor editing - and also made available in ebook and paperback so you can study them at your leisure. J. George Frederick lived in those times and wrote about the people and principles of advertising they discovered. His book has been handed around for years, and as you study the other books in this series it starts pulling the pieces together for you.

The book that started a movement! Do you hate the way sales and marketing copy makes you feel? Sales-y? Inauthentic? Hype-y? Just plain icky? You're not alone ... and there's a reason you feel that way. It's because traditional sales and marketing copy (also known as direct response copy) sells by tapping into fear. And when you do that, you stop manipulating and twisting arms to get buyers, and instead start attracting, inspiring and inviting your ideal clients into your business. Ahhh -- doesn't that sound wonderful? In this book, love-based copywriting and marketing expert Michele PW (Pariza Wacek) teaches you the philosophy and the foundational principles behind selling with love versus fear – the same proven principles she's used to help her clients sell nearly $50 Million worth of products and services over eight years. Christopher Sherrod The superstars and leading professionals in the business of writing ads In 1995, the D&AD published a book on the art of writing for advertising. Though now outdated, the best-selling book remains an important reference work today--a bible for creative directors. D&AD and TASCHEN have joined forces to bring you an updated and redesigned edition of the publication, including works from the last 15 years. Regarded as the most challenging field in advertising, copywriting is usually left to the most talented professionals--often agency leaders or owners themselves. The book features a work selection and essays by 48 leading professionals in the world, including copywriting superstars such as David Abbott, Lionel Hunt, Steve Hayden, Dan Wieden, Neil French, Mike Lescarbeau, Adrian Holmes, and Barbara Nokes. Looking for the clues to well-written, effective, and compelling stories that make great advertising? Look no further.

How to Write Copy That SellsThe Step-By-Step System For More Sales, to More Customers, More OftenMorgan James Publishing

In our visually dominated age, there is an even greater reason for copy to be beautifully and sharply written, to have impact and immediacy. Dominic Gettins spent many years writing copy and training others to do so. In this slim elegantly written guide, he clearly demonstrates his ability to get his message across and shows readers how to do the same. He articulates the uncodified knowledge copywriters and art directors use when writing ads for readers to apply to any communications they have to produce. The techniques and principles can be applied to any form of promotional writing, in national press, newsletters, press releases, direct mail shots, posters, TV, radio, and even internal reports and memos. He presents these in the form of 8 essential rules: 1. Know your target market; 2. Do research; 3. Answer the brief; 4. Be relevant; 5. Be objective; 6. Keep it simple; 7. Know your medium; 8. Be ambitious. Imagine doing a $1.8 Million product launch in as little as seven days. Imagine easily getting a new affluent customer and having them gladly pay you month after month. Imagine your current and past customers frequently sending you their friends and family members to become your new clients. If getting and keeping new customers are the biggest problems in your business, solving that problem has never been easier. Whether your dream is profiting from the boom in mobile and internet sales, selling high priced products, creating predictable monthly revenue, or learning the secrets to keep customers buying from you for decades, this book is your blueprint. Order a copy now and watch your business quickly go through a period of rapid, transformational growth. Everything you desire can be yours, you simply have to take this first step.
