Initiation Into Hermetics Franz Bardon

Written in the form of a novel, Frabato is the spiritual autobiography of Franz Bardon. Set in Dresden in the early 1930's it chronicles Frabato's magical battles with the members of a powerful and dangerous black lodge. His escape from Germany during the final desperate days of the Weimar Republic and the beginning of his spiritual mission culminating with his classic books on Hermetic magic. More than an occult novel, Frabato the Magician is itself a work of magic which illuminates Bardon's other books as well as providing a revealing look into the dark occult forces which lay behind the rise of the Third Reich. Threaded throughout the true tale, and written between the lines, are many valuable and practical esoteric lessons.

The Realization Into Hermetics Initiation And Masters Part 1 2 And 3 books is united here for preparation for the new book who is coming. In Initiation Into Hermetics Franz Bardon presented a system of practices graded by degrees to accompany the Adept from the simplest level to the most complex state, yet both the practices and teachings contained in his book function only as tools that only in hand Of someone able to use them correctly come to their ultimate goal. How many people have practiced so dedicatedly and still practice these techniques and fall short of what they hoped to achieve? How many years have you dedicated to this goal? In order to carry out the Great Work an unshakable determination is always necessary, but if you continue to use the same techniques always you will unfortunately always get the same results, how much time do you still believe you have in this life to achieve what you set out to achieve? Using improved techniques in the right way and improving them always more is what will lead to the dreamed goal and we have no time to lose. Among the Alchemists it was said that the philosopher's stone is like a forgotten treasure in a pit and that the more one tried to catch more the gap deepened and more roots appeared between them and their objective. That is exactly what has happened and has plagued many of the dedicated students of Hermetic both today and in the past ages, and the hard truth is made present because the path that can be followed does not lead to the True Path because this is something that presents itself Himself in his own way and with his Absolute Power, unquestioning Authority, being The Strong Force of All Strength, to teach you the means of how to arrive in this state of Supreme Bliss where the Universe converges to bless you is the purpose of this book. The Path to the Great Work is unique in its direction but multiple in its strands. Hermeticism is to follow this path by obtaining the union of all powers and balancing them both in a Passive Receptive and Active Aggressive manner, the union of the Elements and their Absolute Control over the protection of the Law of Manifestation of Polarity is the Realization of the Scepter of the Power and the full consecration of the Master in this art. The human being in his conscious state supports only a tiny fraction of the Cosmic Consciousness thus making it impossible for him alone to touch and unite with the higher powers, only with the application of the Law of Polarity in its deepest strand is obtained So your success, both your Conscious and Perceptible as well as your Unconscious and Imperceptible, must be directed towards achieving such a noble goal. For the vast majority of the uninitiated, what they do not perceive and which can not be touched or conceivable by them is not part of their world, practically for them is something that "does not exist" yet it is precisely this inconceivable and unexpected part that when presented In their lives it assaults to him of surprise and of fatal way. When a Higher Power manifests itself in the world it is only perceptible and comprehensible in its totality to those who are on the same level, the lower levels only perceive fractions, and the lower ones have never been able to comprehend it, and these which are so are Adapted so much to their material physical state that they disconnected completely forgot the Grandiosity from which they came, from the Power of their Microcosm and from their Sacred counterpart The Macrocosm. The Initiate was already able to apply the Law of Polarity and thus obtain and fix his own reintegration with the flow of Divine Providence in this world strengthening him with blessing and power, making his life be watched over by Superior and Absolutely Holy Forces, And now to consecrate his masters he needs to reintegrate with the foundation of this power so deeply that they will become more than inseparable. When he came into this world his Being in the process of incarnation was "turned away" from the Holy Powers, Forces and Plans, his vibrational state equaled to this time and finally to the material, social and emotional environment, then reborn, yet his Spirit in his state Always imperative and present directed him again by the experiences of his life and by the love of his heart to reintegrate and rise again reconnecting to the Sacred Plans, Forces and Powers thus extinguishing their pendencies with this world and allowing their Ascension, the first step in this Sacred Way has already been given in the last Book with the True Initiation and now its Kingdom must be re-erected here in its fullness to obtain the Master, only from this conquest that can go forward and obtain Sacred Realization. The Universal Fire establishing itself in the Magus as it was shown in the practices of the last book, grants it abilities and powers that for many were unknown and sometimes unbelievable, make use of its forces and carry on with all its Power, we will still speak in the First part of this book how to stabilize and deepen still further in this force, there is nothing in the world that can be compared to it, this Force and this Power is the Foundation for your salvation and after the Realization you can obtain with it the Supreme Most Holy Sacred Sword, And in obtaining this Upper and Crushing Force his horizons widened beyond the barriers of the mortal world and at this point he could "Open the Way" to his beloved brethren who, still trapped, the chains of the world follow in the midst of great sufferings with unshakeable strength and will on the way Of the Great Work. When the time comes, just as I am doing to you, my holy brother, lift your Supreme Most Holy Sacred Sword and Walk the Path for them. For the Initiate who has already built the pillars of the Universal Elements, Fire and Air, their resources will be expanded here so that they can safely obtain the pillar of the Universal Water element. This is the next step. Fire is Strength and Power. Air is Wisdom and Water is Universal Love from which Blessing, Healing and Infinite Life is born, uniting Human Heart with Divine Heart, micro and macro, and the infinite power that is born from this state, being in the Now living consciously and unconsciously in the deepest center of All Powerful Superior loving deeply and generating strength and being deeply loved thus generating courage. By locating and accepting the love of the beings of the universe, accepting that there are forces and powers that through Divine Grace and its infinite power, mercy and strength, protect and bless you deeply, recognizing and reconnecting with this Supreme Power and feeling it fully. By maintaining this power and this state of receptivity, feel this active power deeply in your life, present, past and future, conscious and unconscious, Lucky Success and Well-Being, alive, permanent and real. This twelve-month manual brings the serious student of consciousness to an ongoing awareness of unity. Only the genuine initiate of the hermetics truly knows what the First Lesser Arcanum means for the beginning adept's magical development. Until now, the true symbolic meaning of this card was passed down from Master to the most gifted students. This arcanum has been unknown outside the circles of initiation until present day. Franz Bardon passed the knowledge of this arcanum to Ernst Quintscher, the son of Wilhelm Quintscher. This way there has been an unbroken disclosure of knowledge within the “Hermetic League”. Once the student practices this arcanum and the truths contained therein, he or she can be certain to absolve the course of Initiation into Hermetics all the way to the crowning goal.

Hermetics is a term given to the ancient Egyptian path of magic, self development and self enlightenment. Three Great Books on Magic Ray del Sole is a real mystic who is initiated into all virtues of the macrocosmic Deity. From his comprehensive experiences of more than twenty years of training, he offers a diversity of teachings for a deeper understanding of the mystical side of Franz Bardon's book, 'Initiation into Hermetics.' Bardon assumes that the student of hermetic has already a mystical attitude, which means to love God, to long for refinement and to wish to serve mankind. Only if the mystical attitude is given, the studies of metaphysics, the use of higher powers is safe and well-balanced. So for the beginner, there is more to consider than Bardon discusses in his first book. He gives only a few hints. For his own students, he has suggested to read the book of Dr. Lomer who wrote about mystical meditations and exercises. The crown of mystical training is described in Bardon's third book, 'The Key to the True Quabbalah' and only basic hints for character balancing can be found in his first book. So may this book serve the student of Bardon with further explanations, teachings and exercises for a safe journey on the holy path.

This book provides a deeper look into the magical use of the tepaphone, magic mirrors, magical dolls and living pictures for the students of magic. In the legends of magic there are many stories of magical tools that were used by witches and wizards. The number of tools mentioned is vast and would fill the garage of any modern-day magician to the full.This book is part of the Franz Bardon series and the magical tools covered in it are those specifically referred to in detail by Franz Bardon. What makes the book special is that it also provide readers with insights to related practices as described by those who influenced Bardon or were his peers.The tepaphone is a magical instrument used to transmit magical vibrations over distances. Although feared for its use in magical attacks, this book indicates its potential use for healing and doing good. The book describes its working and construction in detail.The use of magic mirrors for purposes of ritual magic has, up to now, been scarcely recommended in books on magic, as initiates have kept it a great secret. It is a very powerful magical tool that Bardon used as a great instrument of communication and to "look in on friends".The use of magic dolls and magic pictures is a long lost art in magical circles and this book provides a unique description of their construction and use.Finally it is pointed out that the book emphasise the fact that the use of these tools are dependent on the magical ability of its operator and creator. The book therefore contain the basic exercises needed to develop the required skills.

Please note: This is a companion version & not the original book. Sample Book Insights: #1 The elements are the fundamental forces that make everything in the universe exist. They are the foundation of all things. The sequence of the tattvas in accordance with the Hindu system is as follows: Akasha, Tejas, Vayu, Apas, and Prithivi. #2 The four coarser tattvas came forth from the fifth tattva, the Akasha principle. The Akasha is the causal principle and, as the fifth energy, it is to be acknowledged as the quintessence. #3 The first element to come out of the Akasha is Tejas, the principle of Fire. The Fiery principle is active and latent in everything created in the entire universe, from the smallest grain of sand to the highest that is visible. #4 The element of Water, unlike Fire, has entirely opposite attributes. It is cold and contractive. The magnetic fluid came forth from this element. Water as well as Fire are active in all regions.

Most of us know of gifted people: Van Gogh, Einstein, Bach, Hawking, mathematicians, psychics and so on. But did you know other abilities are possible? With spiritual training one can achieve abilities far beyond anything we can comprehend right now: with the right training. This book is an introduction to the subject of genuine magic, designed to empower the reader and to aid in their transformation. This book also gives magical instructions not found anywhere else on how to bring abundance, success and how to bring happiness through spiritual growth into ones life. A genuine sea-change on new age techniques. The second part of the book is about one such person who trained with some of these spiritual exercises and techniques daily for 30 years. Eventually he became a genuine magician going through a "Transformation" which increased his powers 1000 times or more. After this extraordinary effort, this Magician was capable of creating earthquakes, 360 degree vision and could even stop time itself. Impossible? "We are a thought created moment by moment containing all that is, was and ever shall be: the reflection within the reflection" With the help of his "teacher", he not only made it to the first great transformation, to the second but on to the third great transformation where the ability to speak thought into being is conferred. Cast in the form of conversations between the Author and this magician, this book is set at the turn of the 21st century. Astonishing, deceptive in it's unassuming easy style, this book itself is a work of magic designed to bring transformation to the reader in a most subtle way so that we- ordinary people ! Are be inspired to use magic in their daily life. "As like attracts like, when you begin to achieve positive results, you will find every part of your life changing. The uncommon becomes the familiar, what you never imagined could be, suddenly is all around you. And that is just the beginning".

In reality, magic is a sacred science, it is, in the very true sense the sum of all knowledge because it teaches how to know and utilize the sovereign rules. There is no difference between magic and mystic or any other conception of the name. Wherever authentic initiation is at stake, one has to proceed on the same basis, according to the same rules, irrespective of the name given by this or that creed. Considering the universal polarity rules of good and evil, active and passive, light and shadow, each science can serve good as well as bad purposes. Let us take the example of a knife, an object that virtually ought to be used for cutting bread only, which, however, can become a dangerous weapon in the hands of a murderer. All depends on the character of the individual. This principle goes just as well for all the spheres of theoccult sciences. In my book I have chosen the term of "magician" for all of my disciples, it being a symbol of the deepest initiation and the highest wisdom.

Seila Orienta wrote this description of the 4th Tarot Card according to the system of Franz Bardon. For the first time in the history of occult literature, this 4th Tarot Card of the great Hermes Trismegistos is being described and revealed. Included are unknown concentration and meditation exercises. Furthermore, there is a reference to the difference of magic and mysticism, as well as the dangers of a one-sided path. Ultimately, upon completion of the 4th Tarot Card, there will be a technique of unification with the universal God, who is the master of the sun sphere. In Qabbalah, this master is called 'Metatron'.

A Practical Companion for the Student of Franz Bardon's System of Hermetic Initiation

Companion to the feature-length documentary, The Kybalion, starring occult scholar Mitch Horowitz and directed by award-winning filmmaker Ronni Thomas.

For decades, members of the esoteric community have considered anyone with magical skills and abilities to be a magician. As a result, there are few magical training systems designed to turn students into magicians, and many magical training systems designed to turn students into people with magical skills and abilities. The magical training system developed by the Czech adept Franz Bardon and contained in his three books – Initiation into Hermetics, The Practice of Magical Evocation, and The Key to the True Quabbalah – is designed to turn students into magicians. Unfortunately, many students of the system seek only to become people with magical skills and abilities rather than genuine magicians. For this reason, they often spend years stuck on the system's basic exercises. In this book, Virgil discusses some key components of magical training that are hinted at but not expounded upon in the text of Bardon's books. Completion of these components is what distinguishes people who are magicians from people who merely possess magical skills and abilities. In the process of discussing these components, Virgil also elaborates on magical principles explained in his previous books, offers helpful advice for common problems magicians will encounter during their training, and elucidates one of the most misunderstood exercises of Bardon's training system.

This book was written with one purpose in mind - to share the knowledge and wisdom the author has acquired since he began working with the system of magic designed by the Czech adept Franz Bardon. The contents of this book contain: - Reflections about the nature of magic made after over a decade of studying and practicing the art in its most genuine and pure form - Helpful comments on important technical exercises and basic theoretical teachings - An assessment of the inner inspiration that lies at the heart of magic and brings the art to life. 'The Spirit of Magic' contains anecdotes and stories to illustrate important aspects of magical training. The author's engaging and straightforward approach offers a serious, yet enjoyable and easily understandable guide for those seeking balanced and steady magical advancement. This book is unique in its approach since it draws upon the full spectrum of life in order to illustrate the most basic and important principles of the sacred art. Hardback copies are also available on the Falcon Books Publishing website: www.falconbookspublishing.com.

In order to carry out the Great Work an unshakable determination is always necessary, but if you continue to use the same techniques always you will unfortunately always get the same results, how much time do you still believe you have in this life to achieve what you set out to achieve? The mysticism of letters and numbers - the true Kabbalah - is a universal teaching of great antiquity and depth. Throughout the ages, adepts have achieved the highest levels of magical attainment through the understanding of sound, colour, number and vibration as embodied in the Kabbalah. This third of Franz Bardon's remarkable texts, is nothing less than a practical guide to such attainment. Though intended as a working text for those who have completed the first two volumes (Initiation into Hermetics and The Practice of Magical Evocation), this text stands adequately on its own. Even for those without the requisite background in practical Hermetics, the reader will find it a fascinating intellectual journey through the mysticism of Tantric India, Tibet, the Hebrew Kabbalah and more.

This volume contains all three books of theoretical and practical use by Franz Bardon. Franz Bardon needs no introduction in the field of Magic, Evocation, occultism, practical use of the first three tarot cards, use of magical words and letters. A Course of Instruction of Theory & Practice of Magic+ Magical Evocation + Magical Words Anyone who should believe to find in this work nothing else but a collection of recipes, with the aid of which he can easily and without any effort attain to honor and glory, riches and power and aim at the annihilation of his enemies, might be told from the very inception, that he will put aside this book, being very disappointed. Numerous sects and religions do not understand the expression of "magic" otherwise than black art, witchcraft or conspiracy with evil powers. It is therefore not astonishing that many people are frightened by a certain horror, whenever the word "magic" is pronounced. Jugglers, conjurers, and charlatans have discredited this term and, considering this circumstance, there is no surprise that magic knowledge has always been looked upon with a slight disregard. Even in the remotest times the MAGUS has been regarded as one of the highest adepts and it might be of interest to learn that, as a matter of fact, the word "magic" is derived from this word. The so called "sorcerers" are by no means initiates but only imitators o the mysteries, who counting partly on the ignorance and partly on the credulity of the individuality or a whole nation in order to reach their selfish aims by, lies and fraud. The true magician will always despise such practices. In reality, magic is a sacred science, it is, in the very true sense the sum of all knowledge because it teaches how to know and utilize the sovereign rules. There is no difference between magic and mystic or any other conception of the name. Let us take the example of a knife, an object that virtually ought to be used for cutting bread only, which, however, can become a dangerous weapon in the hands of a murderer. All depends on the character of the individual. This principle goes just as well for all the spheres of the occult sciences. In my book I have chosen the term of "magician" for all of my disciples, it being a symbol of the deepest initiation and the highest wisdom. Many of the readers will know, of course, that the word "tarot" does not mean a game of cards, serving mantical purposes, but a symbolic book of initiation which contains the greatest secrets in a symbolic form. The first tablet of this book introduces the magician representing him as the master of the elements and offering the key to the first Arcanum, the secret of the ineffable name of Tetragrammaton*, the quabbalistic Yod-He-Vau-He. Here we will, therefore, find the gate to the magician's initiation. The reader will easily realize, how significant and how manifold the application of this tablet is. Not one of the books published up to date does describe the true sense of the first Tarot card so distinctly as I have done in my book. It is - let it be noted - born from the own practice and destined for the practical use of a lot of other people, and all my disciples have found it to be the best and most serviceable system. *Tetragrammaton literally means "the four-letter word". It was a subterfuge to avoid the sin of uttering the sacred name YHVH (Yahveh) or Jehova as it later became when the vowels of another word were combined with the consonants of YHVH. But I would never dare to say that my book describes or deals with all the magic or mystic problems.
