Imagine a company

whose top executives,
in a quest to create
the most "fun"

obliterate labor-

divisions and push
decision-making responsibility down to the plant floor. Could such a company
compete in today's bottom-line corporate world? Could it even turn a profit? Well, People Love

imagine no more. In

Richard Sheridan
Joy at Work, Dennis

W. Bakke tells the true story of this

extraordinary

company--and how,

as its co-founder and

longtime CEO, he

challenged the

business

establishment with

revolutionary ideas

that could remake

Online Library Joy Inc How We Built A Workplace

America's
organizations. It is the story of AES, whose business model and
operating ethos -"let's have fun"-were conceived during a 90-minute car ride
from Annapolis, Maryland, to Washington, D.C. In
the next two decades,
it became a worldwide
energy giant with

Online Library Joy

Inc How We Built

40,000 employees in 31 countries and

revenues of $8.6

billion. It's a remarkable tale told

by a remarkable man:

Bakke, a farm boy

who was shaped by his religious faith, his

years at Harvard

Business School, and

his experience

working for the

Federal Energy

Online Library Joy Inc How We Built A Workplace

Administration. He rejects workplace drudgery as a noxious remnant of the Industrial Revolution. He believes work should be fun, and at AES he set out to prove it could be. Bakke sought not the empty "fun" of the Friday beer blast but the joy of a workplace where every person,

from custodian to CEO, has the power
to use his or her God-
given talents free of needless corporate bureaucracy. In Joy at Work, Bakke tells how he helped create a
company where every decision made at the top was lamented as a lost chance to delegate
responsibility--and

Online Library Joy

Inc How We Built

A Workplace

where all employees
were encouraged to take the "game-

winning shot," even

when it wasn't a slam-

dunk. Perhaps

Bakke's most radical

stand was his struggle

to break the

stranglehold of

"creating shareholder

value" on the

corporate mind-set

and replace it with

more timeless values:
integrity, fairness,
social responsibility,
and a sense of fun.
