Make Your Own Magic: Secrets, Stories and Tricks from My World

Heather Sutherland brings us a joyful and enchanted tale about a family of children who discover an abandoned garage and embark on an adventure that is literally out of this world. The garage is no ordinary place. Home to a lonely car called Lizzy and a rather grumpy spider, they find magic, music and secrets within its walls. As a special friendship develops the children find that Lizzy needs their help and when the owner of the garage returns at last, an amazing journey begins. The owner, a funny, strange old man called Old Sutho has discovered some ancient magic. When the garage reveals its ultimate secret they realise they're going to need that magic if they are to make it to the North Pole and back in time. After all, millions of children are relying on them to make the most important delivery of their lives. If only old Sutho had realised that old friends are the best friends! Now it's all up to Lizzy.....

Shows how to turn conflict and disappointment in a relationship into opportunities for learning, mutual growth, and intimacy

The world of magic is making way for old clothes and radishes. That may sound odd, but this book is all about taking ordinary objects and transforming them into the mesmerizing devices of magic. Craft enthusiasts will be creating magnificent disguises and tools used for unbelievable tricks. Colorful illustrations and easy-to-follow instructions guide readers into mastering the art of disguise and illusion. Fun facts are shared along the way.

ABOUT BOOK FIVE: Daniel Light and the EXILE OF ARADON What if the person you came to care for most was the only one who stood between you and what you wanted most? The conquest for the eradication of the Dark has been taken up by the second generation. Daniel's children, and the children of his associates are now embroiled in the great quest to rid the Realms of the Darkness. Daniel's eighteen-year-old daughter, Caelith, is on a quest: to distance herself from the ways of her father. On this quest she meets an outcast, a slightly younger man near her own age, who is magically prevented from going home. Together they form a union and Caelith is slowly turned back to the life, and politics and cause of her father, Daniel Gregoryson: The Prophecy. And also to securing the return of her companion, Evermon, to his homeland. But not before she is called upon to endure the trials that the Dark has in store for her friend and herself. A Kingdom in peril would fall to the youngest of three brothers, as the older Princes are off on quests of their own. The new Queen, the King's second wife, has other plans; promoting the rise of her own, foreign-born son to the Kingship. Unknown to the Queen, the Queen she replaced is being sought for secretly; as is the true identity of the new Queen. There is something not quite right about her. The Princess of Mirador, Daniel's daughter, self-exiled, seeks freedom from her impending royal responsibilities - for she is to be Queen there. Will it be exile for one Prince of Aradon, or will all three face replacement and banishment by an insanely jealous Queen? ABOUT THE SERIES: THE CHILDREN OF THE ORB A long time ago on a planet far away there lived The Race of Enchanters, beings of Light. As is ever the situation when Light is present, so, also, is Darkness. These Sorcerors, close kin to the Enchanters, seek to influence and destroy all that had been protected and created by the Light. Other magical beings and creatures inhabit these realms and are torn and divided by this constant battle between Light and Dark; events and prophecies are ignored by the Light, The Dark, and the neutral; allegiances change and shift; power over all being the end result, for some. Then comes word of The Prophecy of Light: a being to come in the median of time to lead the Forces of Light to victory. Thus the stage is set in Colabos for Daniel Light and the Children of the Orb. STORY NOTES: The stories of Two Black Birds and The Waters Of Life (Brothers Grimm) loosely provide a basic framework on which to hang this re-imagined tale about The Children Of The Orb, which also alludes to the origin of the stories we know and love on Planet Earth as having possibly come from beyond our own Earthly experience. Kids love magic. They love to see it, and they love to do it. Enter Joshua Jay, who started doing magic when he was 7 and was named champion at the World Magic Seminar (the Olympics of magic) by the time he was 16. His Big Magic for Little Hands is packed with 25 astonishing illusions for kids ages 7 and up. In other words, it's sleight of hand for the small of hand. These are tricks that require little prep time and dexterity yet are guaranteed to deliver a big payoff. The large format, oversized ext, and black-and-white vintage-style illustrations make Big Magic particularly easy to follow and kid-friendly. Here's how to levitate your sibling several feet off a bed. Escape Houdini-like from tightly bound ropes. There are also impromptu effects that can be performed anytime, anywhere, like Spook-Key, in which an antique key mysteriously rotates in your hand. Each easy-to-perform feat is clearly illustrated with step-by-step drawings and accompanied by insider tips. Joshua Jay is a master who guides his apprentices through every aspect of the magician's art, from the first step—taking the Magician's Oath—to how to minimize nervousness (Rule #1: Rehearse. A lot).

Magora is about to fall to the hordes of ravenous Unfinished camped right beneath its walls when Holly O'Flanigan returns to the parallel world for the fourth time. To save the place they have come to love, Holly and her friends Brian, Rufus, and Amanda risk everything on a perilous journey through the dark realm ruled by the evil Duke of Cuspidor. There they find the hidden city of the Woodspeople and a mysterious link to Holly's Grandpa Nikolas. When they return to the island of Magora, Holly has some big questions to answer. Will she accept the power the High Councilor Krah offers her? Can she find a way to defeat the Unfinished and save Magora? And most of all, where does she really belong—in the real world or a fantasy one? Holly is torn between the two, and as the surprises mount higher, and an instructor is killed, Holly learns that nothing is what it seems, either in Donkleywood or Magora.

Argues that reading aloud to children is a vital part of their educational development, exploring how and where to read to achieve the best effects.

Max is the smartest boy in his class. He learns so quickly that he is frequently bored to death. One day a weird creature appears next to him in school. It is Magic Boy. MB comes from Somewhere Else. He is the strangest looking person, boy or adult, Max has ever seen. The boy has no shoes on and has purple toes and purple fingers, are all twice as long as Max's. His hair is bright orange and is standing straight up on top. He looks cheerful and has two large front teeth. Like Bugs Bunny. MB is dressed rather strangely, which is OK since he is a very strange boy to start with. MB has no shirt, just shorts with a sort of strap that goes across his chest. MB is somewhat hairy all over his body which is kind of odd since he appears to be about 11 years old. Max and his friends go on strange adventures involving giant pigeons, kids who are surgeons; kids who are lawyers and judges; and kids riding in a rodeo. MB needs Max to help him to bring something from Earth to his Home. But wait until you read the Prologue!
