Case studies of private art collections recorded during the sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries in Mantua. This work seeks to show how the collectors' taste changed during this period and how these changes are reflected in the collections' display, and also seeks to contribute to the understanding of the original context of works of art in sixteenth and early seventeenth century private houses in a courtly city.

Niccolò Machiavelli (NM) è un'icona nazionale, viene pubblicamente lodato ma l'immagine che ne ha il grande pubblico è riduttiva, come di un grande mangiapreti, ideatore e consigliere di una politica luciferina e inventore del riprovevole machiavellismo. Ma non è così, questo non è il vero Machiavelli. Quest'idea limitata impedisce che si possano trarre dal suo insegnamento tutti quei vantaggi che ne potrebbero derivare. Se avessimo capito e seguito NM ci troveremo in una situazione migliore. Questo libro presenta una figura diversa di NM. Egli viene descritto come un grande patriota, una specie di profeta, che si esprime nel modo appassionato dei profeti, che come tutti i veri profeti non viene ascoltato e che ha elaborato un completo programma di salvezza, valido per il suo tempo ma che presenta aspetti interessanti anche per l'oggi. Mettiamo da parte i pregiudizi e vediamo com'è veramente: ci sorprenderà! Contribuire a far conoscere NM significa contribuire al bene dell'Italia. Questo è il grande ideale a cui si ispira questo piccolo libro.

Preistoria e protostoria delle civiltà antiche - Prehistory and protohistory of ancient civilizations

Origini - XXXIV 2012

First collected volume dealing with the use of Latin under Fascism This book deals with the use of Latin as a literary and epigraphic language under Italian Fascism (1922–1943). The myth of Rome lay at the heart of Italian Fascist ideology, and the ancient language of Rome, too, played an important role in the regime's cultural politics. This collection deepens our understanding of 'Fascist Latinity', presents a range of previously little-known material, and opens up a number of new avenues of research. The chapters explore the pivotal role of Latin in constructing a link between ancient Rome and Fascist Italy; the different social and cultural contexts in which Latin texts functioned in the ventennio fascista; and the way in which 'Fascist Latinity' relied on, and manipulated, the 'myth of Rome' of late nineteenth- and early twentieth-century Italy. Contributors: William Barton (Ludwig Boltzmann Institute for Neo-Latin Studies), Xavier van Binnebeke (KU Leuven), Paolo Fedeli (Università degli Studi di Bari Aldo Moro), Han Lamers (University of Oslo), Johanna Luggin (Ludwig Boltzmann Institute for Neo-Latin Studies), Antonino Nastasi (Rome), Bettina Reitz-Joosse (University of Groningen), Dirk Sacré (KU Leuven), Valerio Sanzotta (Ludwig Boltzmann Institute for Neo-Latin Studies), Wolfgang Stroh (Toblach).

"While recognizing its limitations, the present study ventures to present an analysis and a brief synthesis of some of the lines along which the complex problem of man's eschatological reality has been developed and a solution attempted. Our contact with certain elements of pre-Christian ffigur al and architectural funerary art will lead us to analyze elements of the burial customs of certain civilizations - the Egyptian and the Jewish, as well as the Etruscan - which influenced the Roman world and left traces in the Vatican Necropolis."

Agricultural biodiversity is a precious legacy which we have a moral duty to pass on intact to future generations. As farming systems modernise, these crucial resources risk being lost, unless effective conservation measures are put in place and sufficient recognition is given to the role of the farmer in food security and agricultural development. This publication contains a number of black and white photographs by Pablo Balbontn Arenas, which give an insight into the life and customs of small farmers who foster, maintain and use genetic diversity in traditional agricultural systems, deploying local techniques and knowledge accumulated over many centuries, focusing on four crops: wheat, rice, maize and potato. The accompanying text is written in English, Spanish and Italian. Private Collectors in Mantua, 1500-1630
