Dans son entreprise de fondation de la psychanalyse, Freud a voilé les liens qui l'unissaient à la religion juive. Pourtant certaines de ces intuitions ne sont compréhensibles qu'à la lumière des textes hébraïques. Tel est le point de départ de Gérard Haddad, qui l'entraînera au-delà de Freud à émettre une hypothèse très neuve, déchiffrée dans les rites alimentaires juifs : l'acte originel qui détermine l'intégration de l'individu dans le groupe est un acte de dévoration très particulier puisqu'il s'agit de manger des mots organisés en Livre. Manger le Livre, voilà l'acte fondamental. De surprenantes passerelles apparaissent entre l'Eucharistie et les mythes culinaires bororos, ou la dyslexie et les techniques publicitaires. Mais Gérard Haddad nous permet aussi de comprendre pourquoi et comment l'alcool souvent intervient dans la création littéraire. Ibsen, Lowry et tant d'autres nous révèlent le secret connu et masqué depuis qu'il y a des hommes : nous sommes tous des mangeurs de Livre.

Se maquiller, se démaquiller : Vie et mort d'un visage. Offrir un visage aux autres, à soi même. Que permet cette voie de la découverte de nous-mêmes lorsqu'on travaille avec des enfants comme avec des adultes ?

Where is reality to be found: at the surface of things or behind it? Max Willem, a young art student in Montreal at the end of the 1960s, becomes obsessed with outward appearances - with makeup, costume, and masks of all kinds. For him, outward reality, and in particular that of the opposite sex, is composed of many veils of illusion and artifice through which he must see if he is to feel fully alive. At the same time, Max discovers his exceptional talent for art forgery. Moving to New York, he becomes a tool in the hands of a powerful international ring dealing in forged art, and suffers from the loss of his own artistic integrity. Himself seduced as much a seducer, how can Max escape and redeem his artistic soul? In The Art of Deception, Sergio Kokis has written a novel about mystification and illusion. His exuberant narrative provides a caustic insight into the undersides of art and of love.

From François Nars, one of the most respected and imitated cosmetics designers in fashion today, comes a totally new, revolutionary instruction manual on makeup for today's woman. Established in 1994 by renowned cosmetics designer François Nars, NARS Cosmetics is one of the most recognizable and coveted cosmetics and skin-care brands, with a huge international following. Nars's visionary approach to makeup and innovation within the industry has forever changed the face of beauty. Here Nars combines his expertise in makeup and photography to create a makeover manual that transforms the application of makeup into the ultimate form of self-expression. The book celebrates Nars's unrivaled vision as a makeup artist, providing visual and textual narratives of his cosmetic process, inspiring readers to re-create his lessons on their own, and featuring examples of the newest, freshest looks and color palettes popular today. Employing Nars's own before and after makeover photographs of a variety of models of all different ages, races, and skin tones—and combining these images with the designer's instructional sketches on transparent overlays—this volume is the definitive do-it-yourself guide for anyone interested in the transformative power of cosmetics.

A single model is used to showcase sixty different makeup looks. Some of the looks uses stencils, Swarovski crystals, temporary tattoos, and glitter as accessories.

This volume consists of 16 papers selected from the 22nd Southeast Conference on Foreign Languages, Literatures and Films held on February 25-27, 2016 on the campus of Stetson University in Celebration, Florida. The shared focus of the essays is to examine how writers, filmmakers and language educators address stereotypes in their representations of diverse cultural paradigms by using, deconstructing or displacing these stereotypes. The fourth section of this publication includes 4 experimental poems by the artist Susanne Eules.
