Paint By Sticker Kids Zoo Animals

Paint by Sticker Kids just gets stronger and stronger, with the last three titles—Unicorns & Magic, Halloween, and Christmas—on fire. With over 1.7 million copies in print, and with sales increasing every season, it is the phenomenal activity book series that marries the joy of paint by number and coloring with every kid's favorite thing—stickers. And now add dinosaurs—what could be better? Kids will have a blast "painting" an armored Ankylosaurus, and an agile Velociraptor, now known to have been covered in feathers. And don't forget about the king of them all: a ferocious T-Rex, which could eat 500 pounds of meat in one bite! New to the series, on the back of each image is a paragraph of lively text packed with facts about the dinosaur pictured, how it lived, and how to pronounce its name. Designed especially for children and their smaller hands, the Paint by Sticker Kids series offers a quiet, completely absorbing, no-mess activity that—bonus!—encourages kids to practice number recognition without them even thinking they're doing math. The way it works is simple: Find the numbered sticker, peel it, and place it in the right space. Add the next, and the next—and see the images come to life in the "low-poly" style that uses geometric shapes. The card-stock pages are perforated, allowing the artwork to be easily removed so kids can hang them up as decorations or proudly display them on the fridge. In other words, hours and hours of artistic fun with none of the hassle or cleanup!

A personal bestseller that begins with a warning: Proceed with caution. This book is only for those with a twisted imagination. Be prepared to leave conventional thought behind and join the ranks of the demented and insane. Previously published as Would You Rather . . .?, with 356,000 copies in print, Damned If You Do . . . is an addictive game in a book that challenges readers to ask—and attempt to answer—more than 400 questions that range from the heinous to the nauseating to the downright disturbing. Each is a field-tested conversation starter guaranteed to provoke ridiculous fun, break the ice at any party, and, like some kind of sick Rorschach test, open a unique window into the minds of friends and family. Some questions delight in their own grossness: Would you rather . . . Eat three earthworms—OR—wear a necklace made of them on your wedding day? Be trapped in an elevator with wet dogs—OR—three fat men with bad breath? Some force you to reveal values: Would you rather . . . Age only from the neck up—OR—age only from the neck down? Be stupid and rich—OR—smart and poor? Some create that squirming sensation: Would you rather . . . Get a bad case of poison ivy way up inside your nose—OR—inside your inner ear? And some are just deliciously absurd. Each question also features related, often off-the-wall information, from quotes to dumb jokes to delightfully odd trivia (326-pound President William Howard Taft once got stuck in the White House bathroom).

A beautifully illustrated workbook that helps women slow down and enjoy life rather than pushing for perfection. Most women today are frantic, lost in an endless cycle of busyness caused by constant pressure to perform up to unrealistic expectations of perfection, many of which are self-imposed. This journal cuts to the heart of the problem by showing women how to reconnect with their inner selves through solitude, introspection, and contemplation of what's truly important to them as individuals and family members. Give yourself permission to be Present, Not Perfect.
