PEARSON history has been specifically developed and written for the Australian Curriculum. This series uses the inquiry process to underpin the study of History, providing full coverage of the two strands of historical skills and historical understanding and knowledge. PEARSON history encourages 'big picture' thinking enabling students and teachers to make connections with society and cultures both past and present. The student book is at the centre of an integrated package designed to help students, whether at school or at home, to learn and understand the content and the skills required for the study of History. Full-colour presentation of primary and secondary sources and an exciting design make the student book engaging and accessible for all students. The student book at each year level is written specifically to meet the requirements of the Australian Curriculum. The content and activities it contains will enhance students' and teachers' understanding of the History curriculum's two interrelated strands: historical skills, and historical understanding and knowledge.

Give Me Liberty! is the #1 book in the U.S. history survey course because it works in the classroom. The Cambridge History of the Book in Britain is an authoritative series which surveys the history of publishing, bookselling, authorship and reading in Britain. This seventh and final volume surveys the twentieth and twenty-first centuries from a range of perspectives in order to create a comprehensive guide, from growing professionalisation at the beginning of the twentieth century, to the impact of digital technologies at the end. Its multi-authored focus on the material book and its manufacture broadens to a study of the book's authorship and readership, and its production and dissemination via publishing and bookselling. It examines in detail key market sectors over the course of the period, and concludes with a series of essays concentrating on aspects of book history: the book in wartime; class, democracy and value; books and other media; intellectual property and copyright; and imperialism and post-imperialism.

This title includes the following features: Suggestions for evaluation, co-operative learning, and dealing with different learning styles in the classroom; Teaching Notes and additional activities for each chapter; Numerous reproducible student worksheets; Convenient 3-ring

When a meteorite lands in Surrey, the locals don't know what to make of it. But as Martians emerge and begin killing bystanders, it quickly becomes clear—England is under attack. Armed soldiers converge on the scene to ward off the invaders, but meanwhile, more Martian cylinders land on Earth, bringing reinforcements. As war breaks out across England, the locals must fight for their lives, but life on Earth will never be the same. This is an unabridged version of one of the first fictional accounts of extraterrestrial invasion.

student, focus on essential topics, and help make learning more memorable. Experiences and contributions of ethnic groups and women in history are integrated in this course model. The framework is divided into 11 units: (1) Connecting with Past Learnings: Uncovering the Remote Past; (2) Connecting with Past Learnings: the Fall of Rome; (3) Growth of Islam; (4) African States in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Times; (5) Civilizations of the Americas; (6) China; (7) Japan; (8) Medieval Societies: Europe and Japan; (9) Europe During the Renaissance, the Reformation, and the Scientific Revolution; (10) Early Modern Europe: The Age of Exploration to the Enlightenment; and (11) Linking Past to Present. Six of the 11 units delineated in the framework's 7th grade course description are developed in these course models. All units follow the same format. Each begins with a rationale and overview. Ways are suggested for teachers to coordinate the model with the state-adopted textbook for 7th grade. A presentation of activities to introduce and continue the sample topic are suggested to encourage students to apply what they have studied through projects. Each unit ends with an extensive annotated list of sample resources. (DK)
