It's Time 4 CHANGE from the heart of Royce Moore I hate the devil! But I love God and His people! I'm here for you and we must change our focus. We're off point, because the devil has blinded and deceived many of us. You just don't know it. This book is my personal campaign to motivate and influence us all to get back on track. Let's get our focus back on what's really important about life. This book is not some religious book. It's a book about relevant issues about life and our focus. What hindrances and distractions have you bound? My questions are: What's on your mind? Where's your focus? What are your motives? What's of most importance to you in life? Who are you associating with? Who are they associated with? What voices are you listening too? Where are you really headed in life and why are you headed there? Is God, your Creator, happy with your lifestyle?

I love you all with the love and passion of Jesus Christ . . .
