Father John is the parish priest of Our Lady of Sorrows in Westonville, but when the ordered tranquillity of his life is shattered by a stranger walking into the confessional on Ash Wednesday, he finds himself on a Lenten journey of increasing dread and horror. And when he is confronted with memories of his historic abuse, John discovers that what he thought to be forgiven and forgotten still lurks deep in his memory. A pattern of murders unveils terrifying associations between the stranger's appearances, John's own past, and the murders. Could the stranger be the cardinal who abused him during his time in Rome, and who is rumoured to have died in the 9/11 attacks? Is he a ghost emanating from the same world as Sarah, the ghost of a little girl whose benign appearances are a protective presence in John's life? Or is the man in the confessional not really dead? Through the increasing traumas of Lent, John struggles with the temptations and fears that begin to assail him wherever he turns. The Good Priest is a story of faith and doubt, of real and imagined hauntings, of the epic dramas that lurk beneath the surface of an ordinary Catholic parish, and of the devastating power of violence and terror to rip apart relationships, friendships and loyalties. At once a thriller and a theological exploration, the book takes the reader into a world of altered realities where nothing is quite what it seems...

The Lord Strengthens Our Faith, Our Hearing, Our Prayers, & Our Decisions By: Allen Bachoroski This author's journey towards faith is candidly shared, starting with his unbelief and traveling through in search of answers to business decisions, overcoming addictions, hearing God's voice and being healed from cancer. Mr. Bachoroski's scripturally based book is filled with personal and Biblical examples that the reader will find their faith growing as they explore areas of unbelief and learn how The Lord Strengthens Our Faith, Our Hearing, Our Prayers and Our Decisions. The first section about faith makes an interesting read when Hebrew names are used to describe Bachoroski's personal experiences with faith. The next section is about hearing from God by exploring 21 different ways to hear Him. The promises from Jesus that can be used in prayer. Bachoroski reviews events in the life of Jesus in which the promises are taught. Finally, a section that uses Bachoroski's 35 years in school administration and scripture that helped in his decisions-making. One hard decision was believing in healing so he shares 19 passages that lead to healing. The four areas where The Lord Strengthens are faith, hearing, prayer, and decisions. The appendix reviews 150 scriptural passages that are described in the book to help with personal research and group discussions.
