Your Ultimate Guide to Discerning, Evaluating, and Judging Prophecy! "I could have saved myself a lot of grief if I had read this book when I first started prophesying!" —Cindy Jacobs
“Twenty-five years ago, Dr. Hamon called me out of a crowd of 12,000 in Manila, Philippines, and prophesied that my face would be seen on television around the world. I have read and reread all of Bishop Hamon’s prophetic books. This one is the best. Read it and apply it to your life. You will be glad you did! —Gordon Robertson, 700 Club
“Bishop Hamon has charted a safe and faith-filled place for the global prophetic movement to navigate progressively forward.” —James W. Goll
“Bill Hamon writes books for a movement.” —Lance Wallinau
For nearly 70 years, Bishop Bill Hamon has been a leading voice in the church, recognized by many as the father of the modern prophetic movement. In an hour where praphetic ministry is being carefully scrutinized and prophets are being placed under the spiritual microscope, Hamon delivers a fresh presentation of his masterpiece on how to discern, judge and biblically evaluate prophecy and prophetic words. I have chosen not only to write my personal prophetic words but also to publish them because as we all watch them come to pass in my life, they would serve as testimonies of the goodness of the Lord. I hope that many will be encouraged and inspired as they read these prophecies so that they too will begin to take the Word of God spoken to them seriously. We are encouraged at Life Center Ministries to always write out our prophetic words so that we can understand them more accurately and thereby pray according to the words that were actually spoken and not what we thought was spoken to us. We are to take the Word of God spoken over our lives and war with them just like Paul instructed Timothy. When the devil tries to bring into your life something contrary to what God has spoken to you, you should stop, rebuke the devil and declare what God said instead. Personal Prophecy is one way that the Lord speaks to us. It is as important as having God speak directly to you. God’s Word is powerful and we have to treat it as such. Once we have judged a word of prophecy by the Word of God and determined that it is the Word of the Lord, we must come into agreement with the Lord concerning it, in order to see it come to pass in our lives. Many people are yet to come into agreement with the Lord concerning the prophetic words He gave them years ago and as a result, these words are yet to manifest in their lives. Agree with the Lord concerning your prophetic Words. The only “prophetic words” that you must reject are the ones that have been judged to be wrong prophecies by you and the leadership God has placed over you. Otherwise, believe that there is power in the personal prophetic words spoken by God’s prophets and ministers over your life. Amen.

God is restoring the prophetic ministry in the Church today. From believers learning how to flow in the gift of prophecy, to men and women being raised up as ministry gift prophets, there is a reviving of prophetic ministry in the Body of Christ all over the world. The prophetic is not only about hearing and speaking, it is about hearing and doing what God wants done here on earth. God is raising up prophetic believers who not only serve within the local church, but also prophetic believers who are affecting the marketplace through practical ideas and strategies they have received from God. God is raising up prophets like Joseph and Daniel who will represent Him and be His prophetic voice in the high places of the earth today. This training manual is designed to equip believers, stir up the prophetic in them and enable them to develop a strong prophetic ministry in whatever vocation they may be. For years, we have learned principles of individual spiritual warfare. Are yet to be sold and must be distributed freely.
For this next season, we as the church must up the Lord. For this next season, we as the church must up the ante and learn to fight on a higher level than we ever have, in corporate spiritual warfare. With wisdom, urgency, and keen prophetic insight, Hamon lays the biblical foundation for this final level of warfare and shows how we, as the church, can prepare to work in unity to become the army of the Lord. He lays out the weapons available to us in this new battle front and reveals a plan for destroying the works of the devil and advancing God’s kingdom on earth. Now is the time to rise up, fight back together, and secure the ultimate victory in Christ.

Prophets and Personal Prophecy

The Old Testament prophets spoke to Israel in times of historical and moral crisis. They saw themselves as being a part of a story that God was weaving throughout history--a story of repentance, encouragement, and a coming Messiah. In this updated introductory book, each major and minor prophet and his writing are clustered with the major historical events of their time. Our generational distance from the age of the prophets might seem to be a measureless chasm. Yet we dare not make the mistake of assuming that passing years have rendered irrelevant not only the Old Testament prophets, but also the God who comprehends, spans, and transcends all time. In these pages, C. Hassell Bullock presents a clear picture of some of history’s most profound spokesmen--the Old Testament prophets--and the God who shaped them.

In this book “School Of The Prophets” you will learn how to develop your calling and increase the strengths of your gifts. Author Melvin Thompson takes you through basic training by revealing the core issues about prophets and prophetic ministry. You will be trained in the prophetic and learn the difference between:
‘ The office of the prophet
‘ The spirit of prophecy
‘ The gift of prophecy
‘ The prophecy of scripture
This is the student workbook that goes along with Prophets, Pitfalls and Principles by Dr. Bill Hamon. Prophets, Pitfalls and Principles shows you how to recognize your hidden “root” problems, and detect and correct character flaws and “weed seed” attitudes. It also can teach you how to discern true prophets using Dr. Hamon’s ten M’s.Jesus spent 30 years preparing for a 3 year ministry. God is more concerned with our preparation process--with us being made into the man or woman He desires us to be--than He is with our ministry status. These pitfalls and principles have been learned through 60+ years of ministry. They are common pitfalls prophetic people could succumb to, and the principles necessary to guard one’s heart and allow God to make the man or woman He wants the minister to be.

God has a glorious purpose for His people. And those who understand this will rule and reign with Jesus for eternity. God, in the eternal past, planned for mankind to live on the earth and fulfill a great purpose in the eternal future. Bishop Hamon, a pioneer of restoration in the Church, stands firmly on biblical truth as he explores that great purpose: being conformed to the likeness of Jesus. By tracking the eight major reasons God created human beings, Dr. Hamon tackles the hard issues believers face as the highest race in the universe—including the problem of pain. It is only as we understand the process through which God conforms us to the likeness of His Son that we accomplish our highest calling.

This is the student workbook to coincide with the book Prophets and Personal Prophecy by Dr. Bill Hamon. “Prophets and Personal Prophecy is not an abstract theological doctrinal statement but a practical, “how to” guide on what personal prophecy is and what you are supposed to do with it. This book is an absolute must for anyone who has ever heard (or even thought they heard) from God.” - Dr. John Gimenez

Throughout the Hebrew Bible, God guides and saves his people through the words of his prophets. When the prophets are silenced, the people easily lose their way. What happened after the incarnation, death and resurrection of Christ? Did God fall silent? The dominant position in Christian theology is that prophecy did indeed cease at some point in the past -if not with the Old Testament prophets, then with John the Baptist, with Jesus, with the last apostle, or with the closure of the canon of the New Testament. Nevertheless, throughout the history of Christianity there have always been acclaimed saints and mystics -most of them women-who displayed prophetic traits. In recent years, the charismatic revival in both Protestant and Catholic circles has once again raised the question of the place and function of prophecy in Christianity. Scholarly theological attitudes toward Christian prophecy range from modest recognition to contempt. Mainstream systematic theology, both Protestant and Catholic, has mostly marginalized or ignored the gift of prophecy. In this book, however, Niels Christian Hvidt argues that prophecy has persisted in Christianity as an inherent and continuous feature in the life of the church. Prophecy never died, he argues, but rather proved its dynamism by mutating to meet new historical conditions. He presents a comprehensive history of prophecy from ancient Israel to the present and closely examines the development of the theological discourse that surrounds it. Throughout, though, there is always an awareness of the critical discernment required when evaluating the charism of prophecy. The debate about prophecy, Hvidt shows, leads to some profound insights about the very nature of Christianity and the church.

For example, some have argued that Christianity is a perfect state and that all that is required for salvation is acceptance of its doctrines. Others have emphasized how God continues to intervene and guide his people onto the right path as the full implementation of God’s salvation in Christ is still far away. This is the position that Hvidt forcefully and persuasively defends and develops in this ambitious and important work.

The study reported in this volume grew out of some theoretical work, one phase of which bore specifically on the behavior of individuals in social movements that made specific (and unfulfilled) prophecies. We had been forced to depend chiefly on historical records to judge the adequacy of our theoretical ideas until we by chance discovered the social movement that we report in this book. At the time we learned of it, the movement was in mid-career but the prophecy about which it was centered had not yet been disconfirmed. We were understandably eager to undertake a study that could test our theoretical ideas under natural conditions. That we were able to do this study was in great measure due to the support obtained through the Laboratory for Research in Social Relations of the University of Minnesota. This study is a project of the Laboratory and was carried out while we were all members of its staff. We should also like to acknowledge the help we received through a grant-in-aid from the Ford Foundation to one of the authors, a grant that made preliminary exploration of the field situation possible.

How can you know you are making the right choices in life? How can you know you’re doing God’s will? These are the questions of the ages that are examined and answered by Dr. Craig von Buseck in Seven Keys to Hearing God’s Voice. If you ever thought it is impossible to hear God speaking to you, rest assured, He created you with the ability to hear Him. You have at your disposal seven key indicators to aid you in having daily communication with God. No, it’s not crazy to hear the voice of God - it’s a promise from the Bible that we can claim as our birthright of faith. Jesus declared: “My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me” (John 10:27, ESV). Life is a never-ending series of choices, but you can know whether you are making the right decisions. How? By learning to use the Seven Keys to Hearing God’s Voice.

The Bible teaches us that we are to be filled with God’s Spirit and that God’s presence and grace is manifested among his people as they serve, love, and minister to one another. Yet some of the gifts that God offers to his people aren’t commonly seen in many churches today. Gifts of prophecy, healing, tongues, and other supernatural gifts of God seem to be absent, and many Christians are unsure how to cultivate an atmosphere where God’s Spirit can work while remaining committed to the foundational truth of God’s Word. How can Christians pursue and implement the miraculous gifts of the Spirit without falling into fanatical excess and splitting the church in the process? In Practicing the Power, pastor and author Sam Storms offers practical steps to understanding and exercising spiritual gifts in a way that remains grounded in the word and centered in the gospel. With examples drawn from his forty years of ministry as a pastor and teachers, Storms offers a guidebook that can help pastors, elders, and church members understand what changes are needed to see God move in supernatural power and to guard against excess and abuse of the spiritual gifts. If you long to see God’s Spirit move in your church and life, and aren’t sure why that isn’t happening or where to begin, this book is for you.

This book defines the role of a prophet or prophetess and gives the reader strategic guidelines for judging prophecy. Many of the stories included are taken from Dr. Bill’s ministry and add that hands on practicality that is quickly making this book a best-seller.

Danger: Prophecy Without Permission Prophets should avoid low-level prophetic utterance and seek the safer high-levels of spiritual accuracy. Some prophets violate holy living and open themselves up to idolatry, merchandising and prophetic error. Presumptuous prophets prophesy because they can, but should they? Does a prophet need permission to prophesy? If one prophesies by faith alone is he or she in danger of tapping into a spirit of divination? If a prophet that has not been granted permission to prophesy and yet does, is he guilty of sin?

If one heeds its principles, it will give greater understanding and produce higher levels of maturity in prophetic ministry."--Stacey Campbell, founder, Canadian Prophetic Council; author, Ecstatic Prophecy "This is a must-read for all ministries. As an apostolic ministry, we recognize the gifts and callings that God has placed on the lives of those we pastor. Reading School of the Prophets has given us greater insight and understanding of how to help develop and prepare others to walk in their divine assignment. Kris Vallotton brings much clarity in what it means to be called in the office of a prophet and eliminates the fear of giving and receiving the prophetic."--Tony and Cynthia Brazelton, founders and pastors, Victory Christian Ministries International "Kris Vallotton's book reminds us that the heart of prophecy should be God's heart to build up, encourage and speak life. Kris goes through strategic and important teaching about prophecy versus the office of prophet, specifically in the context of the Church. I highly recommend this book and pray that it helps you to understand the prophetic and to 'call the gold' out of those around you."--Heidi Baker, Ph.D.; co-founder and director, Iris Global "As I read this book, I could hear the sound of an entire generation of voices emerge that will transform culture. Kris Vallotton is a father to these voices. School of the Prophets presents a practical methodology for prophetic community and a powerful manifesto for prophetic transformation in this generation."--Bob Hazlett, author, The Roar: God's Sound in a Raging World; Future Perspectives, New Haven, Connecticut
