By Mikiko

provides

summaries of the law of 50 countries
and of over 270
films that depict
criminal procedure
in action in those countries. The traditional tools of comparative

analysis include
the inquisitorial-

dichotomy. In addition,
differences in
criminal procedure
can be examined

legal traditions and through the evolving international legal regimes. The tools of comparative
legal analysis are applied to examine the adjudicative

process through film, beginning with police contact with a crime suspect
and ending either
with a judge or jury's acquittal or
with execution of sentence. The law
summaries
describe the

of each country
within those traditions. For each country, the film summaries
describe
