What happens when a barista with dreams of becoming a journalist meets a senator's daughter? Hayley Becker is a hard-working Midwestern girl who dreams of being a journalist and her goal is within reach. That is, until she falls for glamorous Veronica Stone-McClusky, a senator's daughter. As these unlikely opposites attract, Hayley can't deny the allure of Veronica's world, a world she soon discovers is at odds with her ambitions. Hayley learns that dreams aren't always what they seem and sometimes, like it or not, the least likely person is the one you fall in love with. With career aspirations pulling her one way and her love life pulling her in another direction, Hayley is forced to make a choice or risk losing what she values most.

Racing through life means love can pass you by. Billie Page. IndyCar racing's darling. To the outside world, she seems put together.

Determined. Serious. Only she and the ones close to her know the truth. Billie's a failure. She works every day to change that, to strengthen her mind and her body for the grueling demands of her job.

Everything is about racing. It has to be. It's all she has left. Then a woman makes her laugh. Krysta Ekert lives life on the whims of the wind. She doesn't know where her next paycheck will come from and doesn't care. She does what she wants, when she wants it, and asks for forgiveness rather than permission. The moment she meets Billie Page she knows whose bed she'll be sleeping in that night and it's not her own. When Krysta is hit by a car, her accident binds the women together in a way neither of them could have predicted. It's dangerous for both to stay—Billie may lose her career, Krysta her independence—but leaving becomes less and less of an option the longer they wait. Will they find a way to make it work? Can one really have it all? Heartwarming and often humorous, Rocky Road is an emotional look at two women searching for happiness in all the wrong places and discovering how much more life offers when you open your heart.

She was gorgeous, sexy as sin. We laughed together, kissed, made love day and night. But... time moves on. So did we. Now, though... I find myself wanting to meet her again. Wondering how she is. Wondering if time has been kinder to her than it has to me. It's silly, to dote on the possibility... the 'what if'. But what if we could rekindle that old flame again? What if this could be a second chance? Not just lust... not just fun. A second chance at love? I'm going to take that chance. I need to take that chance. * Rebound Kate thought she had it all — a successful career, a gorgeous girlfriend, and a well-organized life... until she didn't. One torrid night of steamy passion later, and Kate is left wondering if this new girl, Alex, is just a rebound, or if this is for real. The day gets brighter when she's around Alex. Her heart beats faster when she catches Alex's eyes. And heat rushes to her center when she touches Alex's lips. Could it be that this is more than just a rebound fling? And will their relationship survive Deb's returning into the fold and wreaking havoc? * Taste of Her After years of an unhappy marriage, stressed out Vicky Andrews was widowed before she could finalize the divorce. With too much happening all at once, she decides to go on a vacation with some friends, and friends of friends. It was supposed to be some time away from it all... to relax and reflect. To look upon her life, now, and figure out what she wanted. But what she never expected was to see the stunning, young Rachelle stumble through the door. The beautiful brunette stole Vicky's breath away, and she found herself immediately transfixed by the bubbly youth. Vicky had always known she could be attracted to women... but this, this was something else. Her attraction to Rachelle was so strong it left her a confused mess. What was happening to her? And why now? As she gets to know Rachelle better, Vicky comes to the startling realization that she might just be falling in love... **

*Library Journal Best Reference 2009 "An excellent gateway to further examination of any of the subdisciplines of relationship science, or as a research tool in its own right." —Library Journal Relationships are fundamental to nearly all domains of human activity, from birth to death. When people participate in healthy, satisfying relationships, they live, work, and learn more effectively. When relationships are distressed or dysfunctional, people are less happy, less healthy, and less productive. Few aspects of human experience have as broad or as deep effects on our lives. The Encyclopedia of Human Relationships offers an interdisciplinary view of all types of human associations—friends, lovers, spouses, roommates, coworkers, teammates, parents and children, cousins, siblings, acquaintances, neighbors, business associates, and so forth. Although each of these connections is unique in some respect, they share a common core of principles and processes. Sound Of Love: A Gay Romance Collection is the third bundle of 3 sensual and steamy M/M romances from authors Topher James, Raiden King, and Reya Karl, who previously brought you Journey Of Love: A Gay Romance Collection, and What The Heart Wants: A Gay Romance Collection. From sexy and sweet brand new experiences, to new self-discoveries and awakenings, to lusty first times, and to love that stands the test of time, these three gay romance stories will make you laugh, smile, cry, fan yourself, and leave you satisfied. Contained in this 350+ page box set anthology are the M/M romance books Where You Least Expect, The Young Nurse, and The Reunion. * Where You Least Expect Love is confusing. It intertwines with lust, with a base attraction so animal and powerful, it can make a man do things he shouldn't. It can make a man think things are one way... when they are the other. I thought I was in love with Terrence. He was everything I wanted in a man. But I slowly began to realize that I was just in love with the fantasy of him. Terrence in theory. And the person I was really falling in love with... the man who would stand by my side, love me, support me... Was someone I could never have imagined. Greg used to cruise for girls. Greg was the ladies man on campus, a star athlete back in the day. And here he was... his gorgeous eyes looking right through me. And he's telling me that he's falling for me... And that this could be the beginning of our happily ever after. * The Young Nurse My marriage to my wife ended once the kids left the house. All of a sudden, we didn't know each other. We divorced. It was amicable. It's not exactly a new story. Here I am, forty-three, and in shape. Not to get too cocky, but let's just say I'm the kind of man my age who is *very* eligible. The problem? Every woman I've dated I've had no interest in. What exactly is wrong with me? Then I got sick. I had to stay in the hospital. That's where I met Taden, my young, handsome male nurse... ...And everything in my life changed. He asked if I needed help getting into the shower, and he helped me undress. His touch lingered on my skin like electricity. But I'm not gay. I'm attracted to women! So why do I find myself thinking about Taden every waking minute? Why do I fantasize about him in my dreams? And why do I desperately want to tell him... ...so he can touch me again? * The Reunion It all started with a chance encounter. I bumped into Gary in St. Ives, the sea-salty air whipping past us. His deep brown eyes stopped time itself, and the coppery hair that lined his chest sparkled in the sun. Little did I know that we were schoolmates way back when. An impromptu reunion, you could say. But I had no idea what lay in store for me. Gary invited me onto his yacht. Gary flirted with me. And before I knew it, every inhibition I had was crumbling. This was supposed to be a relaxing holiday. Who could have expected it would turn into a torrid affair with a gorgeous man? Who could have expected that happily ever after might just be on the itinerary? ***

Space and Irish Lesbian Fiction offers an original and much needed study of Irish Lesbian fiction. Evaluating a wide body of Irish lesbian fiction ranging from the Victorian era to the contemporary age, this book advocates for women writers who have been largely ignored in Irish literary history and criticism. This volume examines the use and applications of space in Irish lesbian fiction. In recent years it can be argued that Irish society has created a new 'space' for LGBT or queer people. The concept of space is thus important both symbolically and physically for lesbian literature. In asking, if Irish women writers have moved 'out of the shadows' so to speak, what space is open to the Irish lesbian author? How is spatiality reflected in lesbian representation throughout Irish literary history? Space and Irish Lesbian Fiction examines a diverse range of writers from the nineteenth century to the contemporary age, evaluating the contributions of largely unknown authors who have been overlooked alongside more established voices within Irish literature. The concept of liminality that this volume takes as its theme and focus engages with notions of intersectionality, thresholds, crossings and transitions. In suggesting the overlap between the indeterminate threshold of the liminal space and its ambiguously queer potentiality to examine the dynamics of space and its relationship to lesbianism, this ground-breaking project both locates and charts spaces of queer liminality in Irish lesbian fiction. They're there--they're just invisible. An the present hostile state of school systems is to blame for their seeming disappearance. In School Experiences of Gay and Lesbian Youth, readers will get an eye-opening look at the heterosexist blindness that has make it nearly impossible for gay, lesbian, and bisexual youth to enjoy a supportive, celebratory, and welcome environment in schools. This proactive collection features the viewpoints of youth advocates, school teachers, administrators, and academic researchers who are currently seeking to break down the walls of discrimination, harassment, and brutality that continue to make sexual minorities vulnerable at school.

Romance novels have attracted considerable attention since their mass market debut in 1939, yet seldom has the industry itself been analyzed. Founded in 1949, Harlequin quickly gained market domination with their contemporary romances. Other publishers countered with historical romances, leading to the rise of "bodice-ripper" romances in the 1970s. The liberation of the romance novel's content during the 1980s brought a vitality to the market that was dubbed a revolution, but the real romance revolution began in the 1990s with developments in the mainstream publishing industry and continues today. This book traces the history and evolution of the romance industry, covering successful (and not so successful) trends and describing changes in romance publishing that paved the way for the many popular subgenres flooding the market in the 21st century.

Pregnant and disgraced, soap opera star Laura Munro's life is in shambles. After ten years of working her butt off in TV and movies, a rage-filled incident with an intrusive paparazzo threatens not only her career, but her dreams of becoming a documentary filmmaker. Hoping people will forget, Laura takes leave from her soap opera role and escapes to the small Catskill Mountain town of Love Falls. The public needs a break from her, and she needs a safe place to have her baby. She just didn't expect that "safe place" to be on the side of a deserted mountain road. Dylan Wilson exists only to help others. Three years ago, a car accident stole Dylan's wife and her joy. Her job as a 9-1-1 operator is the only thing that drags her out of bed in the morning. When she meets Laura, she feels a spark of something she hasn't in years. And later, when she responds to Laura's emergency call, that spark fans into a flame she can't resist reaching for.

Dylan knows all too well the pain of loss. Falling for Laura, someone who doesn't belong in her small-town world or her small-town life, could be a sure path to heartache. But despite her misgivings, she flutters to Laura's luminescence, unable to turn away. Has Dylan found the one who will burn her to cinders or the one who can finally melt the ice around her heart? Don't miss the sexy, sensual, joyous first novel in the Catskill Crew lesbian romance series, complete with a progressive and artistic small town, fun side characters, and a deep romance that will tick all your boxes.

In recent years, dating and romantic partners have been recognized as important peer relations within adolescence and research in this area is just emerging. Peer groups and peer pressure are more well established areas of research into adolescence, with recent studies focusing on peer groups and anti-social behaviour. The book will be the first in a series of three that examines the latest research in key areas of developmental psychology, edited by Rutger Engels and Hakan Stattin. This volume will present four areas of peer research: the 'deviancy training' mechanism of peer influence; behavioural genetic analytical techniques in understanding peer selection; romantic partners as peer relationships; and in-school and out-of-school peers studies.

When he sees the young stud across the dance floor, feelings are awakened deep within him that he hasn't experienced in over a century. Will the dark desires and forbidden attraction between a vampire and a human lead to eternal love or the final nail in the coffin?

The marriage failed. Maybe we never really loved each other. Maybe it wasn't meant to be. He went his way, I went mine. Now, the children have left, and I find myself feeling lonely. I find myself thinking to somebody I was once involved with... A woman. She was gorgeous, sexy as sin. We laughed together, kissed, made love day and night. But... time moves on. So did we. Now, though... I find myself wanting to meet her again. Wondering how she is. Wondering if time has been kinder to her than it has to me. It's silly, to dote on the possibility... the 'what if'. But what if we could rekindle that old flame again? What if this could be a second chance? Not just lust... not just fun. A second chance at love? I'm going to take that chance. I need to take that chance. Crave is a steamy and sensual full-length lesbian romance from Celeste Fox, author of 'Covet and 'Desire', telling the love story of two women rekindling an old flame.
