God is not poverty-stricken, and He does not produce poverty-stricken children. The Bible abounds with promises that God will open the windows of heaven, satisfy us, shower down blessing on us, provide for us, replenish us, and prosper us. Yet, despite all these powerful promises, Christians don't always know how to receive His provision. Now, from the inspirational writings of E. W. Kenyon and Don Gossett comes a book to help you excellently receive all that God has for you by daring to stand on the promises for financial blessing and success found in God's Word. You will understand... How to stop worrying about finances How to get a better job How to become a joyful giver How to pray and get results How confession leads to possession How God can work miracles in your life When you were born again, you were not born to be defeated. You were born to be a conqueror. Declare the truth of Romans 8:37: "I am more than a conqueror through Christ!" Think victory, not defeat. Speak triumphant words, not words of failure. Act like a conqueror, for in Christ, you are!

Your head sits heavily in your hands as the last employee turns out the last light and goes home for the night, leaving you alone in the dark with your failure and desperation. This scene is played-out daily in offices all over America, as leaders in corporations, churches, and organizations free-fall from moral or ethical failure. Wayne Goodall has observed this quagmire for decades, counseling those who have thrown away their families and their futures for a moment of pleasure or profit. Profiling well-known leaders who've had a fall from grace, Goodall notes the common traits, warning signs, and most importantly, a plan for avoiding such deadly traps of the soul. For everyone who has found himself in this terrible dilemma, and to those who can still avoid it, this book is like a beacon. There is a fail-safe guide for remaining on the right path, and Why Great Men Fall illustrates that safe route in a riveting way. One after the other, great men are falling like dominoes as they defy the profound wisdom of Scripture, make themselves into their own god and satisfy their most base desires. If you are already experiencing substantial fame, power or wealth or, more importantly, if you are approaching that possibility in your life, this will be one of the most important books you will ever read. -Barry Meguiar, President/CEO of Meguiar's, Inc, and host of FOX's Speed Channel program, Car Crazy Television Wayne Goodall has shared a brief but masterful guide to leadership in WHY GREAT MEN FALL. Having known Wayne as an exceptional leader for over 20 years, it is obvious that this is the life story and lessons learned by a great, humble leader whose "life lessons" blended with the truth of God's Word, give us a page turner that addresses the personal issues of today. -Dr. Tom

In this book, Norvel Hayes teaches on the light of God. Norvel challenges you as a child of God to allow God's light to shine through you as you minister to others. Jesus' first action in His ministry was to resist the devil and cause him to flee. We all follow Jesus' example in ministry as we resist devils, feed the poor, lay hands on the sick, and pray for people, letting the light of God pour through us upon those who sit in darkness.

Already an internet phenomenon, these wise and insightful lessons by popular newspaper columnist and Pulitzer Prize finalist Regina Brett will make you see the possibilities in your life in a whole new way. When Regina Brett turned 50, she wrote a c on the 50 lessons life had taught her. She reflected on all she had learned through becoming a single parent, looking for love in the wrong places, working on her relationship with God, battling cancer and making peace with a difficult childhood. It became one of the most popular columns ever published in the newspaper, and since then the 50 lessons have been emailed to hundreds of thousands of people. Brett now takes the 50 lessons and expounds on them in essays that are deeply personal. From "Don't take yourself too seriously-Nobody else does" to "Life isn't tied with a bow, but it's still a gift," these lessons will strike a chord with anyone who has ever gone through tough times--and haven't we all?

You Can Walk in Freedom, Blessing and Victory When You Learn to Possess the Heart, Mind and Mouth of Christ! There is a kingdom on the inside of each of us. Either Jesus sits on the throne, or the devil sits on the throne. In this book, Dr. Zona Hayes-Morrow shows how our words affect our lives. The smallest word of judgement can open the door for the devil to attack. When you talk about another person, you give place to the devil. As Christians, we need to look at the person's heart and not their appearance. The Lord wants our lives to be so filled with His love that when someone else attacks us, we can be ready to forgive immediately, never affecting the love we should have for them. This is not a game we are playing. One quick word can cause a long time of sorrow. This is why it is imperative that we guard our mind, our mouth and our heart. We must pray daily to have the mind, the mouth and the heart of Christ.

One way to obtain God's mighty healing power is believing in James 5:14-15. Norvel Hayes explains how you must confess and believe that you are healed regardless of whether you feel anything or not. Norvel recounts what happened when he traveled to Alabama by himself for a two-day meeting. He explains the special instructions the Lord gave him on the way and what happened during the first service when he followed the Lord's instructions.
