Shows how to turn conflict and disappointment in a relationship into opportunities for learning, mutual growth, and intimacy

As Ruben Wells kneels with a gun pointed at his head all he can do is reflect on the life he spoiled. What has led him here? Was it his willingness to always try to do the right thing that has him staring at the barrel of a gun? Or was that he was too much of a people pleaser having a hard time saying no that has led to him begging for his life? Every thing begins and ends with a choice. The moment a choice is made it only takes a second for a life to change. Ruben made a choice to initiate a relationship with the alluring Bianca Jones. She makes heads turn and every man's dream. She is beautiful as a gazelle, but as dangerous as a lioness, as she's unavailable due to being unhappily married with children. Being married doesn't keep her from wanting to pursue Ruben as well as being pursued by him. Getting involved with Bianca changes Ruben's life in ways he never could have imagined. Choices are a gift constantly given to everyone. The choices made lead to different paths. We all have to choose this day what we're going to do with our own lives not knowing what the end result will be. What kind of impact will Ruben's choices have on his life?

He proposed. She had her doubts. She said yes. Now what? Everyone tells Sarah Giles how lucky she is to be engaged to Paul O'Brian—a handsome hotshot who's financially secure, knows how to throw the perfect dinner party...and taught Sarah how to, uh, take care of herself. Everyone thinks he's great. Except for Sarah. But she has too much on her plate trying to become career woman of the year and hiding the fact that her seemingly blissful relationship is all but celibate (those lessons he gave her should come in handy) to figure out what's wrong with Mr.

Right, let alone qualify for the role of perfect fiancée. Meanwhile, what started as an innocent office flirtation with a man named John Wayne (really), has now moved beyond illicit lunches and harmless text messaging, and is fast turning into erotic obsession. Sarah can't get John out of her head and she's plunging deeper into a double life. But which life is the lie? Torn between two men, and trying not to lose sight of her own dreams, Sarah writes a scandalously honest diary of one life-changing year, and faces the challenge of writing her own happy ending...

This book is a detailed depiction of the "cuts" that people incur or will incur over the course of their lives, and how those "cuts" subsequently shape their lives. (Cuts are hurts, experiences, tragedies, and/or various pains incurred). Unfortunately, people will inevitably incur hurts and pains in life, which most are beyond their own control. One simply cannot control what happens to them at the hands of another. People hurt other people. It's not so much the hurt that causes the problem, but more so the effects of the hurt. Oftentimes, people ignore the hurt. They try to live their lives as if the hurt never occurred. Many are oblivious to their deep hurt because they've mastered the art of disguising the pain. The problem ensues when the severely wounded people interact with others, then they subsequently inflict others with the residual hurt that they've been harboring. Because of this, many fail to realize that they've been "cut" and are in need of healing. The purpose of this book is to aid in identifying and healing cuts from one's life (including their past, present, or possibly their future), as these cuts will affect one's life in some regard. Oftentimes, people need healing to recover from some trauma or tragedy that they've endured, yet they're too afraid to ask for help. Many internalize their feelings, never properly articulating their mental anguish, ultimately forsaking the need and opportunity to heal. It's the lack of healing that causes people to hurt others or live unhappy lives. This book was written to aid people with identifying their hurt, their need for healing, and ultimately helping them to heal and subsequently live their best lives.
