Everybody went there almost daily to pick up a fresh loaf of bread, or to buy some freshly baked chocolate chip cookies and even a few cupcakes. But the big grocery chains and their cheap machine-made full of additive bakery items took over our lives and ran the locally owned bakeries out of business. If you haven't, I urge you to take a look at the expiration date on any store-bought bread, what you see will shock you. I have seen breads with 30-day expiration dates. If you are like me, you would wonder how that could even be possible. People, in general, are getting more and more health conscious, and generation X & Y are into trendy, healthy, gluten-free, all-natural and organic food. And that is the very reason you may see more and more upscale; trendy bakeries are opening up around every city now. If you have a passion for a food-related business, this is THE time to get into it before someone else does it. You don't have to be a pastry chef or have a degree in culinary arts to be a bakery owner. Most successful bakeries are not owned by chefs or people who are into baking. But if you are into cooking and baking, sure that is always a huge plus. But remember a long-term success in any business comes from being dedicated, motivated and having some basic understanding of how small business and marketing works. Before you say, "oh I don't have that kind of money to start a bakery business" I think you should at least give my ideas a chance, I outlined every step of opening and running a successful bakery business including how to get funding when
